(PLEASE MARK ALL APPLICABLE REASONS)

A. This unit is exempt from Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law, for the reasons stated in response to question 2, above (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):☒;

B. The tenant is receiving this notice in connection with a first lease or a renewal lease, so the landlord does not need to check any of the lawful reasons listed below for not renewing a lease under Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED)_____;

C. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the unit is sublet and the sublessor seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for their own personal use and occupancy (exemption under subdivision 3 of section 214 of the Real Property Law): _____;

D. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the possession, use or occupancy of the unit is solely incident to employment and the employment is being or has been lawfully terminated (exemption under subdivision 4 of section 214 of the Real Property Law):_____;

E. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to pay rent due and owing, and the rent due or owing, or any part thereof, did not result from a rent increase which is unreasonable. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph a of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

F. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is violating a substantial obligation of their tenancy or breaching any of the landlord's rules and regulations governing the premises, other than the obligation to surrender possession of the premises, and the tenant has failed to cure the violation after written notice that the violation must cease within 10 days of receipt of the written notice. For this good cause to apply, the obligation the tenant violated cannot be an obligation that was imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law. The landlord's rules or regulations that the tenant has violated also must be reasonable and have been accepted in writing by the tenant or made a part of the lease at the beginning of the lease term (good cause for eviction under paragraph b of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law): ☐

G. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is either (a) committing or permitting a nuisance on the unit or the premises; (b) maliciously or grossly negligently causing substantial damage to the unit or the premises; (c) interfering with the landlord's, another tenant's, or occupants of the same or an adjacent building or structure's comfort and safety (good cause for eviction under paragraph c of subdivision1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

H. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant's occupancy of the unit violates law, and the landlord is subject to civil or criminal penalties for continuing to let the tenant occupy the unit. For this good cause to apply, a state or municipal agency having jurisdiction must have issued an order requiring the tenant to vacate the unit. No tenant shall be removed from possession of a unit on this basis unless the court finds that the cure of the violation of law requires the removal of the tenant and that the landlord did not, through neglect or deliberate action or failure to act, create the condition necessitating the vacate order. If the landlord does not try to cure the conditions causing the violation of the law, the tenant has the right to pay or secure payment, in a manner satisfactory to the court, to cure the violation. Any tenant expenditures to cure the violation shall be applied against rent owed to the landlord. Even if removal of a tenant is absolutely essential to the tenant's health and safety, the tenant shall be entitled to resume possession at such time as the dangerous conditions have been removed. The tenant also retains the right to bring an action for monetary damages against the landlord or to otherwise compel the landlord to comply with all applicable state or municipal housing codes (good cause for eviction under paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):___;

I. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is using or permitting the unit or premises to be used for an illegal purpose (good cause for eviction under paragraph e of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

J. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the unit for the purposes of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law or for the purposes of showing the premises to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee, or other person with a legitimate interest in the premises (good cause for eviction under paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

K. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for the landlord's personal use and occupancy as the landlord's principal residence, or for the personal use and occupancy as a principal residence by the landlord's spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, step-parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, parent-in-law, or sibling-in-law. The landlord can only recover the unit for these purposes if there is no other suitable housing accommodation in the building that is available. Under no circumstances can the landlord recover the unit for these purposes if the tenant is: (a) 65 years old or older; or (b) a “disabled person" as defined in subdivision 6 of section 211 of the Real Property Law. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to recover possession of a housing accommodation for the uses described herein by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph g of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

L. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord in good faith seeks to demolish the housing accommodation. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to demolish the housing accommodation by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph h of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

M. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to withdraw the unit from the housing rental market. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to withdraw the unit from the rental housing market by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph i of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

N. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to agree to reasonable changes at lease renewal, including reasonable increases in rent, and the landlord gave written notice of the changes to the lease to the tenant at least 30 days, but no more than 90 days, before the current lease expired. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published by August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph j of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____.

4. IF THIS UNIT IS SUBJECT TO ARTICLE 6-A OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW, KNOWN AS THE NEW YORK STATE GOOD CAUSE EVICTION LAW, AND THIS NOTICE SERVES TO INFORM A TENANT THAT THE LANDLORD IS NOT RENEWING A LEASE, WHAT IS THE GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT RENEWING THE LEASE?

(PLEASE MARK ALL APPLICABLE REASONS)

A. This unit is exempt from Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law, for the reasons stated in response to question 2, above (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):☒;

B. The tenant is receiving this notice in connection with a first lease or a renewal lease, so the landlord does not need to check any of the lawful reasons listed below for not renewing a lease under Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED)_____;

C. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the unit is sublet and the sublessor seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for their own personal use and occupancy (exemption under subdivision 3 of section 214 of the Real Property Law): _____;

D. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the possession, use or occupancy of the unit is solely incident to employment and the employment is being or has been lawfully terminated (exemption under subdivision 4 of section 214 of the Real Property Law):_____;

E. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to pay rent due and owing, and the rent due or owing, or any part thereof, did not result from a rent increase which is unreasonable. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph a of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

F. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is violating a substantial obligation of their tenancy or breaching any of the landlord's rules and regulations governing the premises, other than the obligation to surrender possession of the premises, and the tenant has failed to cure the violation after written notice that the violation must cease within 10 days of receipt of the written notice. For this good cause to apply, the obligation the tenant violated cannot be an obligation that was imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law. The landlord's rules or regulations that the tenant has violated also must be reasonable and have been accepted in writing by the tenant or made a part of the lease at the beginning of the lease term (good cause for eviction under paragraph b of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law): ☐

G. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is either (a) committing or permitting a nuisance on the unit or the premises; (b) maliciously or grossly negligently causing substantial damage to the unit or the premises; (c) interfering with the landlord's, another tenant's, or occupants of the same or an adjacent building or structure's comfort and safety (good cause for eviction under paragraph c of subdivision1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

H. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant's occupancy of the unit violates law, and the landlord is subject to civil or criminal penalties for continuing to let the tenant occupy the unit. For this good cause to apply, a state or municipal agency having jurisdiction must have issued an order requiring the tenant to vacate the unit. No tenant shall be removed from possession of a unit on this basis unless the court finds that the cure of the violation of law requires the removal of the tenant and that the landlord did not, through neglect or deliberate action or failure to act, create the condition necessitating the vacate order. If the landlord does not try to cure the conditions causing the violation of the law, the tenant has the right to pay or secure payment, in a manner satisfactory to the court, to cure the violation. Any tenant expenditures to cure the violation shall be applied against rent owed to the landlord. Even if removal of a tenant is absolutely essential to the tenant's health and safety, the tenant shall be entitled to resume possession at such time as the dangerous conditions have been removed. The tenant also retains the right to bring an action for monetary damages against the landlord or to otherwise compel the landlord to comply with all applicable state or municipal housing codes (good cause for eviction under paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):___;

I. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is using or permitting the unit or premises to be used for an illegal purpose (good cause for eviction under paragraph e of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

J. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the unit for the purposes of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law or for the purposes of showing the premises to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee, or other person with a legitimate interest in the premises (good cause for eviction under paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

K. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for the landlord's personal use and occupancy as the landlord's principal residence, or for the personal use and occupancy as a principal residence by the landlord's spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, step-parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, parent-in-law, or sibling-in-law. The landlord can only recover the unit for these purposes if there is no other suitable housing accommodation in the building that is available. Under no circumstances can the landlord recover the unit for these purposes if the tenant is: (a) 65 years old or older; or (b) a “disabled person" as defined in subdivision 6 of section 211 of the Real Property Law. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to recover possession of a housing accommodation for the uses described herein by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph g of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

L. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord in good faith seeks to demolish the housing accommodation. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to demolish the housing accommodation by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph h of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

M. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to withdraw the unit from the housing rental market. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to withdraw the unit from the rental housing market by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph i of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

N. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to agree to reasonable changes at lease renewal, including reasonable increases in rent, and the landlord gave written notice of the changes to the lease to the tenant at least 30 days, but no more than 90 days, before the current lease expired. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published by August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph j of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that SHIRAS PATTERSON BECKWITH ("Respondent"), by and through the undersigned counsel, sets forth the following as his Verified Answer and Counterclaims to the Petition. Respondent:

1. Admits the allegations in paragraph 1 of the Petition;
2. Admits the allegations in paragraph 2 of the Petition;
3. Denies the allegations in paragraph 3 of the Petition;
4. Admits the allegations in paragraph 4 of the Petition;
5. Denies the allegations in paragraph 5 of the Petition;
6. Denies the allegations in paragraph 6 of the Petition;
7. Admits the allegations in paragraph 7 of the Petition insofar as Respondent remains in possession of his rent-stabilized single-room occupancy dwelling;

8. Lacks information necessary to form a belief as to paragraph 8 of the Petition, however admits that the Premises is a rent-stabilized hotel/SRO dwelling.
9. Admits the allegations in paragraph 9 of the Petition.
10. Lacks information necessary to form a belief as to the allegations in paragraph 10 of the Petition.

FIRST DEFENSE OR OBJECTION IN POINT OF LAW
Failure to State a Claim – Nonprimary Residence

1. Petitioner fails to establish valid grounds for termination of Mr. Beckwith's lease based on alleged failure to use his apartment as a primary residence.
2. For the avoidance of doubt, Mr. Beckwith maintains, and has always maintained, the premises as a primary residence since taking occupancy in or around 1992.
3. The predicate notice alleges that Mr. Beckwith receives faculty housing through the City College of New York, his employer, at 401 W 130th St.
4. 401 West 130th Street, a/k/a "The Towers" is a residence hall for students of City College of New York.
5. Upon information and belief, eligibility for housing at "the Towers" is premised on active student enrollment at City College of New York, and no housing at the Towers is available to anyone not currently enrolled as student (i.e. CUNY faculty).
6. Upon representation of the City College of New York's Human Resources Department, the City College of New York does not offer faculty housing of any kind.
7. Mr. Beckwith's primary address, per the City College of New York's Human Resources Department, is 109 East 9th Street, Apt 2E, New York, NY 10003.

8. Therefore, as Petitioner fails to establish that Mr. Beckwith maintains a primary residence at 401 West 130th Street or at any other location besides the subject premises, the proceeding must be dismissed for failure to state a claim.

SECOND DEFENSE OR OBJECTION IN POINT OF LAW
Failure to State a Claim

9. The Subject Premises is a hotel dwelling subject to the Rent Stabilization Law, as defined by the Rent Stabilization Code (RSC) codified 9 New York Code of Rules and Regulations (NYCRR) § 2520.6(b).
10. Pursuant to RSC § 2522.5 (a)(2), where a hotel accommodation is rented to an occupant who has never had a lease, the occupant may request a lease of six months or longer at any time.
11. Pursuant to that regulation, the Owner must offer the occupant a lease within fifteen days. The occupant who requests such a lease "becomes a permanent tenant" and an Owner shall not refuse to grant the lease in order to prevent an occupant from becoming a permanent tenant, except where permitted due to a warrant of eviction, lawful court order, or a governmental vacate order.
12. Mr. Beckwith is the long-time occupant of apartment 2E at 109 East 9th Street, and, upon information and belief, has never had a lease to his apartment.
13. On February 1, 2025, Mr. Beckwith sent a formal written request for a lease to Petitioner by certified mail to Petitioner's business address, which (per USPS records) was delivered to an agent of the Owner on February 6, 2025.
14. At the time that this request was sent, and through the present date, there are no warrants, court orders, or governmental vacate orders relevant to the Premises which would excuse

Petitioner from its obligations to issue Mr. Beckwith a lease as a permanent tenant of the apartment.

15. Petitioner did not respond to this request within fifteen days, or anytime thereafter.
16. Notwithstanding, Petitioner's failure to respond, Mr. Beckwith became a permanent tenant, as defined by RSC § 2520.6(j) by operation of his lawful request. RSC § 2522.5 (a)(2).
17. Mr. Beckwith's tenancy, created on or around February 6, 2025, has not been terminated pursuant to a 90-150 day notice of termination.
18. Therefore, Petitioner fails to state a claim upon which relief can be sought, as Mr. Beckwith remains a permanent tenant of his apartment at the time of his Answer.

THIRD DEFENSE OR OBJECTION IN POINT OF LAW
Unclean Hands

19. The doctrine of "unclean hands" is an equitable defense wherein a Party may not receive the benefit of a legal claim where the basis of that claim is a direct or indirect result of his or her own misconduct.
20. To the extent that Mr. Beckwith spent reduced time at the subject premises, this change was primarily or solely due to Petitioner's conduct, which substantially reduced the habitability and comfort of Respondent's home.
21. Among other misconduct, Petitioner failed to provide heat at the building for two consecutive winters in 2022 and 2023.
22. In or around October and November 2022, Petitioner removed multiple toilet facilities and a bathing facility from the building, including the toilet located on Mr. Beckwith's floor, the bathing facility and toilet on the floor above Mr. Beckwith's apartment, and the building's sole kitchen.

23. As a result of Petitioner's conduct, Mr. Beckwith was unable to cook hot meals at home, and had to stumble down a sloping and poorly maintained stairwell late in the evening in order to access the nearest toilet in the building. A single shower was shared by all seven occupants or tenants of the building.

24. Due to a building-wide lack of janitorial services at the building, the sole shower and toilet on the building's first residential floor was maintained in unsantitary condition throughout this period. As a result, Mr. Beckwith frequently relied on friends and family for hot showers throughout this period.

25. Upon information and belief, Petitioner claimed that it would restore and upgrade the bathroom and kitchen facilities upon receipt of a Certificate of No Harassment approval from HPD. However, since receiving this approval in March, 2024, Petitioner has taken no steps to restore these facilities.

26. While Mr. Beckwith asserts that he has maintained full occupancy of his apartment during the relevant period, to the extent that he spent reduced hours at the building, particularly during winters without heat and following removal of the kitchen, bathroom, and bathing facilities throughout the building, Petitioner should not be permitted to benefit from its failure to maintain essential services and facilities to the building in this proceeding.

27. Therefore, the proceeding must be dismissed pursuant to the equitable doctrine of unclean hands.

FIRST COUNTERCLAIM
Tenant Harassment

28. Petitioner has engaged in tenant harassment, within the meaning of NYC Admin Code 27-2004(a)(48), in violation of NYC Admin Code 27-2005(d).

29. Presently, the Premises is subject to an ongoing inquiry by NYC HPD's Certificate of No Harassment Unit, resulting in suspension of Petitioner's previously-granted CONH based on a finding of probable cause that Petitioner harassed Respondent and his neighbors.

30. Since July 2021, Petitioner's harassing conduct vis a vis Respondent has included:

    a. removing common area kitchens, bathing facilities, and toilets serving tenants in the building, including Respondent;

    b. locking Respondent and other tenants out of the common garbage disposal area;

    c. knowingly providing false information as to a material fact regarding the current occupancy or the rent-stabilization status of a building on an application or construction documents for a permit for work which is to be performed in the building, as defined by HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (a-2);

    d. repeated interruptions or discontinuances of heat and other essential services, as defined HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (b)-(b-1);

    e. repeatedly engaging in work which requires a permit without first obtaining a permit to do so, in violation of HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (b-4);

    f. revoking license to store property and removing Respondent's property from the common areas of the building, as defined by HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (e);

    g. engaging in unsafe and unpermitted construction at the premises, including demolishing floors and ceilings in untenanted apartments and common areas;

    h. repeatedly refusing to accept rent from Respondent for months at a time;

    i. failing to issue Respondent a lease within fifteen days of request pursuant to Rent Stabilization Code § 2520.6(j) and § 2522.5(a)(2);

    j. failing to issue required notices regarding the rights of hotel tenants to Respondent pursuant to § 2522.5(c);

k. repeatedly questioning Respondent regarding his occupancy at the building in a manner intended to harass;

l. Repeatedly expressly and impliedly conveying a disregard for tenant safety, well-being, and ongoing occupancy at the building.

31. Additionally, the instant proceeding is part and parcel of Petitioner's ongoing harassing conduct. Petitioner's allegations that Respondent resides in a student dormitory—based circumstantially upon his employment by the college which operates that dormitory—is patently frivolous conduct designed solely to harass Respondent to surrender his rights of occupancy.

32. As the above-described conduct rises to the level of harassment as defined by the Housing Maintenance Code, Respondent seeks all available relief pursuant to § 27-2005(d), § 27-2115(m) and (o).

WHEREFORE, Respondent seeks an Order:

(a) Dismissing the proceeding with prejudice for failure to state a claim;

(b) Ordering Petitioner to issue Respondent a lease of six months or longer, pursuant to RSC 2522.5(a)(2);

(c) finding that Petitioner has harassed Respondent in violation of HMC § 27-2005 (d);

(d) enjoining Petitioner from further violating HMC § 27-2005 (d);

(e) finding that a class C immediately hazardous violation existed at the premises, pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (m)(1);

(f) imposing a civil penalty on Petitioner of no less than $2,000 and no more than $10,000 for each violation of HMC § 27-2005 (d), pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (m)(2);

(g) awarding Respondent compensatory damages or, at his election, statutory damages of $1,000 for each Petitioner subject to a violation of HMC § 27-2005 (d), pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (o);

(h) awarding Respondent reasonable fees and costs, pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (o);

(i) awarding Respondent punitive damages of up to $10,000, pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (o).

JENNIFER AKCHIN, an attorney licensed to practice law before the Courts of the State of New York, hereby swears and affirms as follows:

1. I am a staff attorney at TakeRoot Justice, attorneys for Respondent Shiras Patterson Beckwith ("Mr. Beckwith" or "Respondent") in this proceeding. As such, I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances underlying this proceeding.

2. I also represent Mr. Beckwith and his neighbors in parallel advocacy, negotiations, and legal action against Petitioner and its agents, including a Housing Part action for repairs and to enjoin harassment, Thomas Dukleth et. al. v.109E9 LLC et. al. (LT-307504-25/NY).

3. The petition in that case that case summarizes an ongoing and escalating pattern of harassment of the six remaining tenants in this fourteen-unit SRO building, including dismantling of shared bathrooms and kitchen spaces, failure to maintain essential services (i.e. heat), unsafe and unpermitted demolition work in the building's untenanted apartments, and more. Exhibit F.

4. Shortly after my office began working with the tenants' association, in late December, 2024, Petitioner sent predicate notices of eviction to four of the six remaining tenants, including Mr. Beckwith, all within one week of each other, and each timed to the December holiday season. Exhibit H.

5. With this motion, Mr. Beckwith has provided ample documentation of his use of the subject premises, including:

a. his NYS Driver's license, Exhibit A;

b. Income tax filings and form W-2s (redacted), Exhibit B;

c. Voter registration; Exhibit C;

d. Jury summons, Exhibit D;

e. Verification of Employment Letter, Exhibit E.

6. Mr. Beckwith is a faculty member at City College of New York, where he is a Lecturer in the Art Department. Apparently based solely on this fact, Petitioner asserts that Mr. Beckwith resides in faculty housing at "the Towers," an off-campus student residence affiliated with City College of New York.

7. Neither the petition nor the predicate notice that it incorporates identify the apartment where Mr. Beckwith allegedly resides in the 164-unit complex. Nor do they allege any basis for the allegation other than the bare fact that Mr. Beckwith works for CCNY.

8. Contrary to the allegations in the predicate notice, Mr. Beckwith's employer has provided a letter stating that CCNY does not offer faculty housing, and that Mr. Beckwith's address on file with his employer is the subject premises. Exhibit E, Verification of Employment Letter.

9. A representative of the Towers responded to confirmed by email that there is no record whatsoever that Mr. Beckwith has ever lived at the Towers. Exhibit I, Email Confirmation from The Towers.

10. Contrary to Petitioner's allegations, Mr. Beckwith is routinely present at his apartment, where he conducts work meetings, visits with friends and family, manages household errands and chores, and attends to the other incidentals of everyday life. Beckwith Aff. ¶ 29-30.

11. Even Petitioner's process server, Jeremy Coley, found Mr. Beckwith in his apartment at 1:22 on a Tuesday afternoon without any difficulty. Exhibit J, Petitioner's Affidavit of Service (also NYSCEF Doc. No. 4).

12. Because Petitioner fails to identify the agents who observed Mr. Beckwith not residing at his apartment, it is difficult to address the remainder of the allegations underlying this proceeding.

13. Petitioner's registered managing agent, Michael Geylik, is primarily employed as the founder and president of an affordable housing consulting business, MGNY Consulting Corp ("MGNY"), which is located on the ground floor of the residential building. The MGNY office has a separate entrance on 9th street, to the right of the residential entrance.

14. Based on multiple visits to the MGNY office (connected to other legal proceedings, and either on consent of Petitioner's counsel or to serve legal process), my understanding is that Mr. Geylik does not work in an area of the office with access to street-facing windows. Each time that I have visited the MGNY Consulting Corp. office, I have sat in the street-facing waiting area, and waited for Mr. Geylik to emerge from the rear of the office.

15. In other words, based on my observations of Mr. Geylik's office environment, Mr. Geylik has no means to observe passersby of the MGNY Consulting Corp. Offices, including the comings and goings of his tenants in the residential portion of the building.

16. It is also my understanding that Mr. Geylik is not in the office every hour of every day or even every day of the week. On a recent attempt to serve Mr. Geylik with legal papers, I was informed that Mr. Geylik was unavailable for the full day. Based on representations by Petitioner's counsel, Mr. Geylik is also not regularly present at the building on weekends or evenings.

17. Additionally, as reflected in Mr. Beckwith's affidavit, there is a "total absence" of janitorial and maintenance services to the building, making it unlikely that any other agent of the Landlord would have occasion to personally observe the comings and goings of the building's tenants. Beckwith Aff., ¶ 23.

18. Therefore, there does not appear to be any person who could have regularly observed the frequency of Mr. Beckwith's comings and goings from the building, particularly after business hours, or on weekends.

19. The only other way that Petitioner could reasonably conclude that Mr. Beckwith (or any other tenant) was not residing at the premises would be to review up to four years of 24-7 video surveillance footage, totaling more than 17,000 hours.

20. Since such voluminous footage could not be meaningfully reviewed during trial, Respondent has ample need to have access to the complete and unredacted records of all surveillance systems, in order to assess the content, accuracy, and authenticity of any video evidence that will be offered at trial.

21. As such, to the extent that the proceeding is not dismissed, Respondent seeks discovery of the entire, unredacted surveillance video from all cameras at the Subject Premises, from date of installation through the present. Respondent's proposed Notice to Produce Documents and Video and Proposed Notice to Produce Interrogatories are attached as Exhibits K and L.

WHEREFORE, Respondent requests that the Court issue an Order:

(a) Pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(2) and (7) dismissing the proceeding; and,

(b) Pursuant to CPLR 3212, granting summary judgment in favor of Respondent; or, in the alternative,

(c) Pursuant to CPLR 408 and 3101, granting Respondent leave to conduct discovery, and deeming Respondents' Discovery Demands served on Petitioners as of the time of the Court's order.

(d) Granting such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

SHIRAS PATTERSON BECKWITH, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I reside at 109 East 9th Street, Apt 2E, New York, NY 10003 and am the Respondent in this proceeding.
2. I first moved into apartment 2E in 1992, when I was a student at Cooper Union. After a brief absence between 2002-2006 (during which I attended graduate school), I returned to the same apartment, and I have lived there continuously since that time.
3. My apartment is an SRO unit. It is a single room. I have always shared access to the bathroom and kitchen facilities, particularly the toilet located on the 3rd floor (2nd residential floor), and the large shower and kitchen on the 4th floor (3rd residential floor).

4. My SRO apartment is my primary residence. It is the address on my New York State Driver's License (issued in 2020), attached as Exhibit A, and on my taxes, attached as Exhibit B. It is also where I am registered to vote, Exhibit C, and where I receive jury summons. Exhibit D.
5. It is the address on file with my long-standing employer (since 2008), City College of New York ("CCNY"). Exhibit E.
6. As reflected in my Verified Answer, I vigorously deny that I reside in the student dormitories at City College of New York, or that I use those dormitories, or any other address, as my primary residence.
7. I have never even set foot in "The Towers," let alone lived there. I didn't even know that faculty could reside in "The Towers." The thought never occurred to me, as I have never needed, applied for, or been offered housing by CCNY.
8. I am a member of my building's tenant association, and a party to a group legal action against my landlord for, among other things, harassment of our building's last remaining rent-stabilized tenants. The petition in that proceeding is attached as Exhibit F.
9. I am also scheduled to testify at an upcoming hearing regarding our tenant associations' experiences of tenant harassment at OATH, as part of an HPD action to rescind the Certificate of No Harassment previously issued to my landlord in March, 2024.
10. Additionally, I am the named representative on my Tenant Association's application for a rent reduction, based on decreased building services, which was filed with the DHCR in December, 2024. Exhibit G.
11. As reflected below, I understand this case to be part of my landlord's efforts to harass me and my neighbors in order to vacate the last 6 occupied SRO units in our 14-unit building.

12. The landlord served me with a Notice of Intent to terminate my tenancy on December 31, 2024, shortly after my neighbors and I began organizing (including outreach to HPD, DOB and local elected officials regarding harassment and conditions in the building) and after I filed a reduction-in-services complaint with DHCR.
13. My landlord's harassment targeted at me—which set the groundwork for this proceeding—began shortly after he acquired the building in June or July of 2021. My first interaction with the landlord (Michael Geylik) was that he did not accept my rent for the first several months that he owned the building, which created a sense of unease and anxiety for me regarding the stability of my tenancy.
14. Because I am a full-time professor, I maintain an academic schedule. This means that I often travel during the summers and January winter session (when I do not teach) and for occasional research trips and conferences.
15. I also benefit from a "fellowship leave" policy at CCNY which enabled me to take a research sabbatical in the Fall semester of 2021 and Spring semester of 2022. This occurred around the same time that my landlord, purchased the building.
16. As a member of the CCNY Art Department Faculty, my research is largely related to my art practice. A typical fellowship leave period includes active art practice (in my case, photography), gallery and museum visits, meetings with curators and artists, presenting artist talks, and establishing and maintaining professional relationships in the field.
17. The fellowship leave for which I was approved in academic year 2021-2022 related to a travelling exhibition of my work with Art Club 2000, which originated in New York City and was installed in Zurich, Switzerland and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in 2021-2022.
18. During this period, I was working constantly to ensure successful installation and implementation of the exhibits, including working with curators, docents, educators, and the press, as well as delivering artists talks and generally ensuring successful presentation of the artwork. Between exhibitions, I also dedicated time to developing my own photography practice, including a trip to Italy for that purpose.

19. During this period, I did not sublet my apartment and was paying rent directly to my landlord. Whenever I was in New York City, I would visit the apartment on a regular basis, and treated it as a "home base" throughout the fellowship leave.

20. During my fellowship leave, I had repeated interactions with my landlord. Mr. Geylik and I spoke by phone approximately a half dozen times in late 2021. During this time, he routinely inquired about me, my employment, and my whereabouts. Among other things, he asked me where I worked and what I did for a living. I experienced these questions as a "fishing expedition."

21. Because Mr. Geylik was refusing to cash my rent checks at the time, I repeatedly requested that he deposit my payments, and in this context also affirmed to him repeatedly that I resided at the building and was on a short-term employment-related leave.

22. Around the same time that I returned to the building, in the fall of 2022, my landlord made the decision to completely remove the toilet from my floor, as well as the communal kitchen and large "shower room" on the fourth floor of the building—which was the primary bathing facility upon which I previously relied.

23. This left all tenants, including myself, with no means to cook hot meals, and with a single shower stall and two toilets for six tenants. I lost access to the shower that I had generally relied on for over 20 years, and which was one of the better maintained facilities in the building. I also had to walk up or down two flights of stairs to use the toilet, which was particularly an issue in the evenings when the building is not especially well-lit. I have a legitimate fear that I would fall down the stairs during these trips.

24. Additionally, due to increased use and a total absence of maintenance or janitorial services by my landlord, the single shower and toilet on the 2nd floor (which are closest to my apartment) were often malfunctioning or in an unsanitary condition.

25. On top of these issues, in the winter of 2022-2023 there was no heat provided for the entire winter due to an unrepaired boiler issue. The sole heat provided for the entire winter was via space heaters.

26. The following winter (2023-2024) was slightly better, but heat was still insufficient and sporadic, at best, so I continued to rely on a space heater for this winter, as well. Heat was not fully restored until this past winter (2024-2025).

27. In short—the building in 2022 was substantially less habitable than what I had previously experienced throughout my decades-long tenancy, which had a profound effect on my quality of life in the building.

28. As a direct result of this drastic decrease in services, I began spending more nights with friends and family, where I could cook a hot meal, take a shower without added inconvenience, and have access to functional heat during the winters.

29. Even during this period, I continued to treat the apartment as my primary residence for all purposes, and repeatedly visited the apartment, not just to check mail but also to do work from home (including work meetings and calls), visit with or have a meal with friends, run errands, clean, read books, watch television, and carry out other daily tasks.

30. In other words, I continued to regularly use and occupy my home, and in spite of everything that has happened in the building I plan to continue doing so in the future.

31. Therefore, I hope that the Court will dismiss this case against me, so that I can maintain my long-term, rent-stabilized home.

VERIFIED PETITION

Subject Premises:
109 East 9th Street
New York, NY 10003

Petitioners, by their attorneys in this proceeding, hereby allege:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Petitioners are the remaining permanent single-room occupancy (SRO) tenants at 109 E. 9 Street, Manhattan, one of the last remaining pre-old-law SRO buildings in New York City. Petitioners have resided in the building for between 6 to 35 years.

2. Petitioners bring this case to address, enjoin, and sanction repeated and escalating harassing conduct by Respondents and their agents, aimed at pressuring Petitioners to vacate their long-term and deeply affordable SRO apartments, in violation of the New York City Housing Maintenance Code ("HMC"), 27-2005(d).

3. Petitioners also bring this case to ensure correction of multiple Housing Maintenance and Building Code violations, and that the corrections are performed in a manner that ensures Petitioners' safety and quality of life, while maintaining the layout, size, and use of their long-standing rent-stabilized homes.

4. Prior to Respondent's purchase of their building, Petitioners and their neighbors enjoyed stable housing, responsive management, and deeply affordable rents. During this period—and dating back at least three decades—Petitioners also enjoyed the use of common area kitchen facilities with open sink, two or more bathing facilities, as well as toilets on every floor of the building, a common feature of SRO dwellings and in compliance with Housing Maintenance Code § 27-2009.

5. In July 2021, Respondent 109E9 LLC purchased the building, and commenced an escalating effort to make tenants increasingly uncomfortable and insecure in their affordable rent-stabilized homes, while urging them to relocate from the building—often citing the very conditions Respondents failed to address.

6. While Respondents undertook a major renovation of the building's commercial space on the ground floor, cellar, and rear of second floor (where it leased office space to co-Respondent MGNY Consulting Corp., an affordable housing lottery and property tax consultancy), Respondents failed to provide tenants with heat for two winters, failed to employ a building superintendent, refused to accept rent for months or years at a time, and demonstrated a willful lack of concern for repairs and maintenance of the building.

7. In October and November, 2022, Respondent took the additional drastic step of dismantling multiple common area facilities, including the building's sole kitchen, one of the building's two bathing facilities, and two toilets. Petitioners and their neighbors were left with no kitchen, only one shower and two toilets for the entire building.

8. Throughout this period, in which Respondents demonstrated a general lack of concern for living conditions in the building, Respondents urged tenants to relocate permanently from the building instead, including repeatedly offering to make appointments and/or meeting with tenants to explore relocation with assistance from MGNY Consulting Corp.

9. In August, 2023, Respondents applied for a Certificate of No Harassment (CONH) from the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD). Respondents informed tenants that the CONH was necessary to restore their common area facilities, and advised tenants not to object to the application. Petitioners, unaware of their tenancy rights and based on misrepresentations by Respondents, largely complied with this advice, in exchange for Respondents' commitment to restore and upgrade bathing and kitchen facilities in the building.

10. A CONH was granted in March, 2024, however, as of April 8, 2025 the CONH was suspended by HPD, pursuant to HMC § 27-2093 (f)(2) based on a finding of probable cause of tenant harassment.

11. At no time after receiving the CONH and prior to suspension did Respondents attempt to restore and upgrade the toilets, bathing or kitchen facilities, as previously represented to tenants. Rather, shortly after receiving a CONH, upon information and belief, Respondent Geylik self-reported the building to DOB citing concerns about structural safety at the building following a minor April, 2024 earthquake.

12. As a result of this self-reporting, on August 2024, DOB placed two violations requiring Respondents to make structural repairs at the building in order to ensure its ongoing structural integrity. No vacate order was placed in August, 2024 or at any time (including after two subsequent DOB inspections). Respondents failed to provide tenants with accurate and complete information regarding the DOB inspections, while continuing to encourage tenants to permanently relocate from the building, contributing to an ongoing and generalized sense of anxiety regarding possibility of an imminent vacate order.

13. In early November 2024, Respondents conducted "probing" throughout the building's unoccupied units, which amounted to major unpermitted demolition work throughout the building. Ceilings and floors, including firestopping, were removed from nearly all unoccupied apartments in the building, at expense of the health and safety of tenants in occupancy.

14. In late December of 2024, Respondents issued predicate notices for summary eviction proceedings to four of the building's six remaining tenants.

15. On March 19, 2025 received a permit for job number M01181265 for work at the building which would include substantial alterations to existing dwelling units and demolition of existing SRO apartments. Respondent Michael Geylik filed certifications with the DOB in support of this permit, which misrepresented the number of occupied units as four, rather than six.

16. Additionally, the certification underlying the permit further states that the building will be unoccupied during construction, despite Respondents' knowledge that six tenants remain in occupancy, and lack of any immediate plans for relocation.

17. Given Respondents actions to date, Petitioners have a credible fear that Respondents' ongoing unlawful conduct and haphazard approach to renovations will further jeopardize the integrity of the building and/or result in demolition or substantial alteration to their SRO housing.

18. With this in mind, Petitioners seek the intervention of the judicial system to protect their rights as permanent SRO tenants, and to safeguard tenants during any renovations impacting their homes.

PARTIES

19. Petitioners are permanent, rent stabilized SRO tenants of 109 East 9th Street, New York, New York, 10003, Block 00555 and Lot 0040 (the "Subject Premises").

20. Petitioner REMIGIUSZ CHLAPEK is the rent-stabilized permanent tenant of 109 East 9th Street, Apt 2D, New York, NY 10003.

21. Petitioner SHIRAS PATTERSON BECKWITH is the rent-stabilized permanent tenant of 109 East 9th Street, Apt 2E, New York, NY 10003.

22. Petitioner JUDY SABIN is the rent-stabilized permanent tenant of 109 East 9th Street, Apt 3C, New York, NY 10003.

23. Petitioner THOMAS DUKLETH is the rent-stabilized permanent tenant of 109 East 9th Street, Apt 3D, New York, NY 10003.

24. Petitioner ZACHARY DAVID HALL is the rent-stabilized permanent tenant of 109 East 9th Street, Apt 4D, New York, NY 10003.

25. Owner-Respondent 109E9 LLC is the registered corporate owner of the Subject Premises. Exhibit A, HPD Multiple Dwelling Registration.

26. Owner-Respondent MICHAEL GEYLIK is the registered Head Officer and Managing Agent of the Subject Premises. Id.

27. Co-Respondent MGNY CONSULTING CORP is Mr. Geylik's affordable housing consultancy business, which is located in the first floor of the Premises, and which on various occasions between 2021-2024 served as an instrument/agent of Mr. Geylik's harassing conduct. Employees of MGNY Consulting Corp, including Director of Internal Operations Mint Tan and CEO Yuri Geylik have acted as agents of 109E9 LLC in interactions with tenants and in effectuating repairs.

28. Co-Respondent YURI GEYLIK is an employee of MGNY Consulting Corp and also acts as an agent of Owner-Respondent 109E9 LLC in interacting with tenants who reside in the Subject Premises.

29. Respondents are in direct or indirect control of the Subject Premises and thus are owners as defined by Section 27-2004 (a) (45) of the Administrative Code of the City of New York and Section 4 (44) of the Multiple Dwelling Law of the State of New York ("MDL"). As such, each Respondent is obligated to refrain from harassing tenants and lawful occupants, keep the premises in good repair, and correct all violations of the Housing Maintenance Code and MDL.

30. City-Respondent NYC DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING PRESERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT (HPD) is the municipal department charged with enforcing the Housing Maintenance Code and MDL in New York City, and is named as a City-Respondent herein pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (h), (i).

31. City-Respondent NYC DEPT OF BUILDINGS (DOB) is the municipal department charged with, inter alia, enforcing New York City's Construction Codes, Zoning Resolution, and MDL, and is named as a City-Respondent herein pursuant to the New York City Civil Court Act ("CCA") § 110 (d) in order to help the Court effectuate housing standards and promote the public interest.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

32. Petitioners are five of the remaining six permanent tenants at 109 E. 9 Street, a 14-unit pre-old-law SRO building constructed in the early- to mid-19th Century.

33. Throughout Petitioners' tenancies, the building contained between 3-4 residential rooms per floor, on floors 2-5 of the building (residential floors 1-4). Petitioners also enjoyed the use of toilets on all floors, bathing facilities on floors 2 and 4 of the building (residential floors 1 and 3) and a kitchen on the 4th floor of the building (residential floor 3), such that the building was in compliance with the requirements of Housing Maintenance Code (HMC) § 27-2079.

34. In July, 2021, the building was acquired by Owner-Respondent 109E9 LLC, with Owner-Respondent Michael Geylik ("Mr. Geylik") acting as its Head Officer and Managing Agent.

35. Shortly following its purchase of the building, Owner-Respondents undertook major renovations to convert the bar/restaurant on the first floor of the building into corporate offices for Mr. Geylik's affordable housing lottery and property tax consultancy, MGNY Consulting Corp.

36. At no time did Owner-Respondent employ a superintendent or building manager to attend to day-to-day rent collections and maintenance at the building, often relying on tenants to make repairs to the building and resolve day-to-day maintenance issues as they arose. At various times, Mint Tan, who is employed as an Executive Assistant at MGNY Consulting Corp., has acted as a de facto superintendent and/or agent of Owner-Respondents, and co-respondent Yuri Geylik (CEO of MGNY) has repeatedly acted as an agent of Owner-Respondent 109E9 LLC in day-to-day interactions with Petitioners and their neighbors.

I. JULY 2021-AUGUST 2023: PRE-CONH HARASSING CONDUCT

37. During the winters of 2021-2022 and 2022-2023, Petitioners suffered from total lack of heat throughout the building, which went unaddressed by Owner-Respondents. During this period, the building was heated with inefficient and hazardous space heaters. In the winter of 2023-2024, heat was insufficient and sporadic.

38. During this period, Owner-Respondents declined to accept rent for months or years at a time from multiple long-standing permanent tenants of the building, including Petitioners Hall, Beckwith, and Sabin in the years 2021-2023, and to issue a lease to Petitioner Hall upon request. Owner-Respondents' pattern of declining/not depositing rent or otherwise signal to tenants that their tenancies were acknowledged left Petitioners in a state of perpetual insecurity regarding the stability of their tenancies.

39. Owner-Respondents repeatedly contacted Petitioner Patterson Beckwith, who was on a temporary sabbatical from his employer, in a manner intended to threaten or harass. Owner-Respondent Michael Geylik repeatedly questioned and accused Mr. Beckwith regarding his primary residence at the building, despite Mr. Beckwith's repeated confirmation that the premises was his primary home.

40. In October and November, 2022, Owner-Respondents dismantled multiple common area facilities on floors 3 and 4 of the building, such that Petitioners no longer had access to a common kitchen, and were left with only one common area bathing facility and two common area toilets for the entire building, in violation of HMC § 27-2079. Petitioners were given access to a vacant apartment (2B) to store their bathroom, kitchen and maintenance items.

41. In addition, Petitioner failed to provide janitorial services, in violation of HMC § 27-2053 at any time subsequent to taking ownership of the property. Petitioner's failure to provide routine maintenance to the building's remaining sanitary facilities resulted in frequent plumbing issues in the 2nd floor toilet in particular, as well as ongoing unsanitary conditions throughout the building (up to the present date). With Respondents' knowledge and approval, Petitioners repeatedly made repairs and cleaned common areas at their own expense.

42. Based on review of the agency's record, Owner-Respondents submit plan filings for this work after the demolition was already complete, under Job Numbers M08040576 and M08016403. DOB public-facing filings under Job Number M08040576 reflect that Respondents' engineer failed to identify the building as an SRO dwelling or to include required supporting documentation applicable in SRO dwellings, i.e. an HPD Anti-

Harassment Checklist. For the related filing under Job Number M08016403, Respondents' engineer did submit the HPD Anti-Harassment Checklist, however, certified that the construction would not increase or decrease the number of kitchens or bathrooms serving occupants of any dwelling unit, although the work was directly related to work reducing the building's existing kitchens and bathroom facilities.

43. On multiple occasions during and after the above-described conduct, Owner-Respondent Geylik offered to set up appointments with several of Petitioners in his capacity as an employee/owner of Co-Respondent MGNY Consulting Corp, to discuss relocation through HPD's Housing Connect affordable housing lotteries or with the use of rental assistance subsidies.

44. Upon information and belief, Owner-Respondent Geylik personally assisted at least one permanent SRO tenant to relocate from the building via an HPD Housing connect lottery on an expedited timeframe through Co-Respondent MGNY Consulting Corp.

II. AUGUST 2023 - RESPONDENTS APPLY FOR CONH AND USE OF MISREPRENTATIONS TO INDUCE TENANTS TO NOT OBJECT

45. In August, 2023, Respondents applied for a CONH from the New York City Department of Buildings, which would permit them to make substantial alterations to the SRO dwelling.

46. Owner-Respondent Geylik advised Petitioners that the CONH was necessary in order to restore the previously removed bathing facility, toilets, and kitchen, and that they should not object to the CONH.

47. Petitioners largely complied with this advisory, despite having experienced substantial deprivation of services since Owner-Respondents purchased the building, based on assurances of the Owner-Respondents that a CONH would result in restoration and upgrade of their bathroom and kitchen facilities.

48. In March, 2024, DHPD granted Owner-Respondents' application for a CONH. By the time that the CONH was granted, only six tenants remained in occupancy at the 14-unit building.

49. Despite being granted the CONH, Respondents never restored, or filed any permits seeking to restore, the removed bathing facility, toilets, or kitchen, as represented to Petitioners.

50. At this time, the CONH has been suspended based on HPD's finding of probable cause that Petitioner engaged in tenant harassment, as described in sections III and IV, below.

III. APRIL-DECEMBER 2024: RESPONDENTS SELF-REPORT TO DOB AND ADVOCATE FOR DOB VACATE ORDER.

51. Soon after being granted a CONH, upon information and belief, Owner-Respondent contacted the DOB to report structural concerns at the building. Based on this complaint, DOB's Forensic Engineering Unit conducted a site inspection of the building on or around August 14, 2024.

52. During and after the inspection, Owner-Respondent Geylik repeatedly misrepresented to tenants that he had no prior knowledge of the inspection or its basis, and in fact attributed the inspection to Petitioners contacting the DOB.

53. Owner-Respondents likewise represented to tenants that the building was unsafe for occupancy, creating substantial anxiety regarding the risk of a potential vacate order. Petitioners spent significant personal financial resources to secure storage space and other interim emergency measures due to Respondent's misrepresentations.

54. Contrary to Respondent's representations, DOB inspectors did not find that conditions in the building were so immediately hazardous as to require a vacate order for the tenants in occupancy, and did not issue a vacate order on August 14, 2024 or any subsequent inspections.

55. Nonetheless, DOB cited structural issues in the building—including sloping floors, and a cracked header on the 3rd floor of the building with an inadequate connection to a trimmer, placing violations FEU10301PN and FEU10302PN. These violations required Petitioners to install temporary shoring while filing plan drawings for permanent repairs to structurally shore the building. Exhibit B, DOB Violation Reports.

56. Shortly thereafter, Owner-Respondents installed temporary shoring in the cellar, first floor, and second floor of the building (where it maintains its offices) pursuant to DOB Job Number M01098599. Upon information and belief, substantial debris from this work was left in building common areas for weeks, until ultimately removed by tenants.

57. On October 1, 2024 Petitioners drafted an initial letter to management, identifying themselves as a tenant association and requesting information regarding the recent DOB inspections and violation.

58. On October 2, 2024, Respondents commenced significant unpermitted demolition work, which included dismantling the ceilings and/or floors of an unoccupied apartment on the 2nd residential floor, while tenants were in occupancy, with no safety precautions taken to prevent dust inhalation/exposure, and with no advance notice to tenants. When asked about the work, Owner-Respondents denied any demolition work and stated, “we are taking out some garbage today” and “there is no construction.”

59. A few weeks after mailing of the tenant association’s letter, Owner-Respondents revoked Petitioners’ use of apartment 2B to store kitchen, bathroom and maintenance items, on one week’s notice, and padlocked the door on or around November 1, 2024.

60. On November 1 and 2, 2024, Owner-Respondent undertook significant demolition work, which included dismantling the ceilings and/or floors of unoccupied units on all residential levels. The whole-scale demolition work was conducted while tenants were in occupancy, with no safety precautions taken to prevent inhalation of dust, debris, or insulation materials in the approximately 175-year-old building until after demolition was complete.

61. Owner-Respondents had no permits for any of the above-described demolition work, and stated to tenants that no permits were required because the work was "investigatory probing," rather than demolition.

62. On or around November 22, 2024, DOB again inspected the premises, including the unoccupied units where Owner-Respondent had conducted demolition. On the inspection date, Owner-Respondents presented DOB inspectors with reports requesting permission to conduct additional "probing" (i.e. demolition) in occupied units, and explicitly advocating for a finding that the residentially occupied floors were unsafe for habitation.

63. Owner-Respondents subsequently filed plans under DOB Job Number M01181265, seeking to install temporary shoring at the roof, as well as steel framing on floors 3-5 of the building.

64. In support of its application, Owner-Respondent Geylik certified that only four SRO dwelling units in the building were residentially occupied, although Respondent was aware that six units are currently tenanted.

65. Additionally, Owner-Respondent Geylik certified that the building would be vacant during the renovations, despite the fact that all six units are currently tenanted and Owner-Respondent has made no arrangements with Petitioners for temporary relocation during the installation.

66. Simultaneously, Owner-Respondent's professional engineer, filed certifications indicating that one or more dwelling units would be demolished or would undergo a change in use pursuant to the proposed plans.

67. On or around March 19, 2025, Owner-Respondents' permit application was approved.

68. On the same date, DOB issued violation number 39142176K, for unpermitted installation of firestopping in unoccupied apartments on the 5th floor of the building. Exhibit B.

69. DOB also issued a violation under violation number 39142177M, citing unpermitted removal of firestopping and exposed wires in unoccupied rooms on the 2, 3, and 4th floors. Id.

70. To date, Owner-Respondents have made no formal arrangements to relocate tenants during the upcoming renovations, despite certifying that the building would be unoccupied during repairs.

71. Owner-Respondents have also left unoccupied units in their dangerous and partially demolished state, with exposed ceilings, floors, and wiring, and an absence of code-compliant fire-stopping, at the expense of all residential tenants in occupancy, for over five months.

IV. ADDITIONAL HARASSING CONDUCT, RETALIATION FOR TENANT ORGANIZING.

72. In addition to the facts laid out in paragraphs 32-71 above, Owner-Respondents have engaged in an ongoing pattern of harassment and retaliation for tenant organizing, with the intent to pressure the building's remaining tenants to voluntarily relocate.

73. Owner-Respondents have engaged in a pattern of harassing behavior vis-a-vis Petitioners, including but not limited to:

(a) Revoking Petitioners' license to use unoccupied residential spaces to store items previously housed in the common area kitchens and water closets;

(b) Threatening to dispose of and/or disposing of tenants' kitchen fixtures and kitchen, bathroom, and building maintenance items from these spaces;

(c) Following and verbally harassing Petitioner Dukleth for multiple city blocks, regarding his organizing with the Cooper Square Committee, while Petitioner was on his way to a meeting with a Cooper Square Committee organizer;

(d) Locking the alleyway beside the building where Petitioners had previously disposed of garbage and recyclables, while failing to provide Petitioners with a key to access the garbage and recyling area;

(e) Refusing to provide a working building key to Petitioner Remigiusz Chlapek for multiple months, despite having actual notice of Mr. Chlapek's need for a new key;

(f) Arranging with police to arrest Mr. Chlapek while he attempted to retrieve a new key to the building during the limited window provided to him by management, and, upon information and belief, stating to Mr. Chlapek that he took this action due in part to Mr. Chlapek's role in facilitating access by Department of Buildings inspectors;

(g) Refusing to issue a rent-stabilized lease to Patterson Beckwith or Zachary Hall, in violation of Rent Stabilization Code 2520.6(j) and 2522.5(a)(2);

(h) Commencing nonpayment proceedings against Petitioner Judy Sabin despite a pattern of refusing to accept rent from Ms. Sabin since July 2021 and at least one subsequent occasion;

(i) Commencing frivolous holdover proceedings against Petitioner Patterson Beckwith based on alleged nonprimary residence;

(j) Engaging in threatening and intimidating conduct during DOB inspections.

74. As a result of Owner-Respondents' harassing conduct, in January, 2025, Petitioners, through counsel, wrote to DHPD regarding serious allegations of harassment at the building, and requesting recission of the CONH granted in 2024. Petitioners were joined in this effort by Councilmember Carlina Rivera, State Assemblymember Deborah Glick, State Senator Brian Kavanagh, Manhattan Borough President Mark Levine, and Congressmember Dan Goldman.

75. On April 8, 2025, HPD determined that it had probable cause to suspend the CONH at the building, pending inquiry into Petitioners' credible allegations of harassment. A stop work order is currently in effect pending a final resolution of tenants' application for recission of the CONH. Exhibit C.

AS AND FOR FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION — HARASSMENT

76. Petitioners repeat and reallege the allegations contained in paragraphs 32 through 75, as if fully set herein.

77. Respondents violated their duty to not harass Petitioners through the following acts or omissions which caused or were intended to cause Petitioners to vacate their units or relinquish related rights:

(a) knowingly providing false or misleading information to tenants in occupancy relating to the occupancy of their units, as defined by HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (a-1);

(b) knowingly providing false information as to a material fact regarding the current occupancy or the rent-stabilization status of a building on an application or construction documents for a permit for work which is to be performed in the building, as defined by HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (a-2);

(c) repeated interruptions or discontinuances of heat and other essential services, as defined HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (b)-(b-1);

(d) repeatedly engaging in work which requires a permit without first obtaining a permit to do so, in violation of HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (b-4);

(e) commencing or maintaining repeated baseless and/or frivolous Housing Court proceedings against tenants in occupancy, as defined by HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (d)-(d-1);

(f) revoking license to store property and removing Petitioners' property from the common areas of the building, as defined by HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (e);

(g) repeatedly refusing to provide a working building key to Petitioner Remigiusz Chlapek, as defined by HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (f);

(h) contacting Petitioners regarding relocation in a manner inconsistent with HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (f-1)-(f-4);

(i) substantially interfering with and/or disturbing Petitioners' comfort, repose, peace and/or quiet, as defined by HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (g), by: (1) engaging in unsafe and unpermitted construction at the premises; (2) following and verbally harassing Petitioner Thomas Dukleth regarding his participation in organizing activities at the building; (3) engaging in threatening and intimidating conduct during DOB inspections at the building; (4) repeatedly refusing to accept rent from Petitioners; (5) failing to issue leases to Petitioners Patterson Beckwith and Zachary Hall within fifteen days of their requests pursuant to Rent Stabilization Code § 2520.6(j) and § 2522.5(a)(2); (6) failing to issue required notices regarding the rights of hotel tenants to all tenants in occupancy, pursuant to § 2522.5(c); (7) filing criminal charges against and facilitating arrest of Petitioner Remigiusz Chlapek due to his role in facilitating inspections by DOB personnel.

78. As such conduct rises to the level of harassment as defined by the Housing Maintenance Code, Petitioners seek all available relief pursuant to § 27-2005(d), § 27-2115(m) and (o).

AS AND FOR SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION – ORDER TO CORRECT

79. Petitioners repeat and reallege the allegations contained in paragraphs 32 through 75, as if fully set herein.

80. The conditions cited by DOB under Violation Numbers FEU10301PN and FEU10302PN constitute violations of the Building Code, and must be corrected.

81. Additionally, the conditions under 39142176K and 39142177M constitute violations of the Building Code, and must be corrected.

82. The conditions noted in Schedule A constitute clear violations of the Housing Maintenance Code and must be corrected.

83. As an SRO Dwelling, any alterations must comply with the requirements in HMC § 27-2074(e) and § 27-2079 (e).

84. Petitioners seek an order to correct pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (i), as follows:

a. Compliance with DOB Violation Numbers FEU10301PN, FEU10302PN, 39142176K and 39142177M in a manner that ensures the safety and continued occupancy of all current tenants of record, without any change or reduction in the use and occupancy of the building, or the size, layout, or use of Petitioners' apartments;

b. Requiring Owner to inspect and repair all conditions listed in Schedule A, including restoration of all previously provided common area facilities.

c. Requiring any final renovations to either not alter or diminish floor area and layout, or to fully comply with the requirements of HMC § 27-2074 (e) and § 27-2079.

WHEREFORE, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court issue an order:

(a) finding that Respondents have harassed Petitioners in violation of HMC § 27--2005 (d);

(b) finding that a class C immediately hazardous violation existed at the premises, pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (m)(1);

(c) enjoining Respondents from further violating HMC § 27-2005 (d);

(d) imposing a civil penalty on Respondents of no less than $2,000 and no more than $10,000 for each dwelling unit belonging to a Petitioner subject to a violation of HMC § 27-2005 (d);

(e) awarding compensatory damages or, at the election of Petitioners, statutory damages of $1,000 for each Petitioner subject to a violation of HMC § 27-2005 (d);

(f) awarding punitive damages of up to $10,000 to each Petitioner subject to a violation of HMC § 27-2005 (d);

(g) finding that the conditions outlined in Schedule A constitute violations of the Housing Maintenance Code;

(h) entering an order to correct all existing housing and building code violations, without reducing floor area or layout of any unit or common area, and in full compliance with the requirements of HMC § 27-2079.

(i) recommending or employing any other remedy, program, procedure, or sanction authorized by law for the enforcement of the housing standards at issue that would be more effective to accomplish compliance or protect and promote the public interest, pursuant to CCA § 110;

(j) granting such other and further relief as this Court may be just and proper.

Background

Petitioner commenced the instant nonprimary residence holdover proceeding to recover possession of apartment 8 located at 29 Cornelia Street, New York, New York. Prior to commencement petitioner served a 30 Day Notice terminating respondent's rent controlled tenancy effective September 30, 2018. Respondent interposed an answer denying the allegations in the pleadings and alleging, inter alia, that the predicate notice was defective. Respondent then served petitioner with a Demand for a Verified Bill of Particulars and petitioner responded. Finding the response insufficient respondent moved for, among other things, an order directing petitioner to comply with its Demand. The Court granted the motion and directed petitioner to serve a Supplemental Bill of Particulars. Respondent now moves to dismiss the proceeding on the ground that the termination notice is defective. In the alternative, respondent seeks summary judgment on the ground that she has maintained the apartment as her primary residence.

Discussion

Every notice alleging nonprimary residence in a rent controlled dwelling "must state the facts necessary to establish the existence of such ground". 9 NYCRR § 2204.3(b); London Terrace Gardens, L.P. v. Heller, 40 Misc 3d 135(A) [App Term 1st Dept 2009]. A satisfactory notice must include case specific allegations that support the nonprimary residence claim. Second 82nd Corp. v. Veiders, 34 Misc 3d 130(A) [App Term 1st Dept 2011]. A notice that parrots the grounds for non-renewal of the lease is inadequate. Berkeley Assoc. Co. v. Camlakides, 173 AAD2d 193 [1st Dept 1991]. In addition, it is not enough to simply state an alternate address where the tenant was supposedly living without other specific allegations that make out the cause of action. Mak v. Yun Pan Lee, 12 Misc 3d 142(A) [App Term 1st Dept 2006]. The termination notice here does not satisfy this criteria set forth in 9 § NYCRR 2204.3(b).

The notice states in pertinent part that:

> 1) The tenant of record … has not resided at the subject premises for a substantial amount of time and has resided at 665 South Country Road, East Patchogue, NY for a substantial amount of time and has maintained her permanent residence in such alternate locations.
> 2) The Landlord's belief that you do not reside in your apartment is based upon evidence that indicates that you reside at said alternate location and have not resided in the subject apartment since having relocated to said alternate location.
>
> 2 3) Additionally, the Landlord, the Landlord's employees and/or its agents have not seen you coming and going to and from your apartment for a substantial amount of time. You have not been seen at the subject premises for a substantial amount of time.
> 4) The landlord has spoken to your neighbors and they have informed the landlord they have not seen you in the subject premises for a substantial period of time.

The allegations regarding respondent's absence are not specific, especially with respect to the time frame ("substantial period of time") and the identities of the landlord's agents and the neighbors. While petitioner argues that the predicate notice "goes over and above the standards employed by the courts of this State in determining sufficiency of a predicate notice", the only specific allegation in the notice is that respondent allegedly resides in East Patchogue. The court in 325 Third Ave. LLC v. Vargas, 52 Misc3d 564 [Civ Ct NY 2016] was faced with a similar notice. In finding it insufficient the court opined that the predicate did not include any factual support to petitioner's claim that the respondent resided at the alleged New Jersey address. The Vargas court further noted that the allegations that respondent had not been seen at the subject premises "are precisely the type of generic and conclusory allegations that have been held inadequate by the Appellate Term [in London Terrace Gardens]". The allegations in the notice at issue here are similarly unparticularized and general.

Conclusion

Based on the foregoing, the motion is granted and the petition dismissed. The Court need not reach the merits of the second branch of the motion.

This constitutes the decision and order of the Court.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS AND FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR DISCOVERY

TAKEROOT JUSTICE
Attorneys for Respondent
123 William St., Suite 401
New York, New York 10038

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Respondent Shiras Patterson Beckwith (hereinafter "Mr. Beckwith" or "Respondent") respectfully requests that the Court dismiss the instant proceeding, for lack of any reasonable basis in law or fact.

The instant proceeding alleges that Mr. Beckwith, a thirty-year tenant of his SRO unit, does not use the apartment as his primary residence, based on allegations so sparse and conclusory that they cannot be meaningfully understood to create a "dispute of fact" necessary to warrant further hearing. Specifically, Petitioner alleges that Mr. Beckwith, a City College of New York faculty member, resides in on-campus housing ("the Towers"), an allegation that is rebutted by Mr. Beckwith, his employer, and the managers of the Towers. Owner's further allegations—that Mr. Beckwith has not been "observed residing" at the premises for some undisclosed length of time and that he receives mail addressed to prior tenants/occupants—are vague and conclusory. As the allegations neither provide Mr. Beckwith or the Court with sufficient information necessary to understand Petitioner's allegations, and furthermore fail to allege sufficient facts upon which to base its legal claims, the proceeding should be dismissed.

By contrast, Mr. Beckwith herein submits a substantial body of documentation and testimony substantiating his continuous residency at the premises, including tax documents, voter registrations, employment records, utility bills, bank statements, doctors records, and personal records of his daily visits to the unit since January, 2025, which clearly and conclusively establish his ongoing relationship with the premises. As such, the Court should grant summary judgment as Petitioner's conclusory allegations fail to defeat the body of evidence in support of Mr. Beckwith's ongoing primary residence at the premises.

In the alternative, should the Court find a reasonable dispute of fact as to Mr. Beckwith's residence, Mr. Beckwith seeks discovery in this proceeding, including access to complete and unedited copies of all of Petitioner's surveillance camera recordings from July 2021-present, at Petitioner's sole expense.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

For a statement of all relevant facts, the Court is respectfully referred to the affidavit of Shiras Patterson Beckwith, dated and notarized May 30, 2025, the attorney affirmation of Jennifer Akchin, dated 30, and Exhibits A-M attached thereto.

ARGUMENT

I. Respondent is Entitled to Dismissal, as Petitioner's Predicate Notice is Fatally Defective.

It is undisputed that the Subject Premises is a hotel/single room occupancy unit governed by the Rent Stabilization Code ("RSC"). The RSC mandates that every termination notice contain facts sufficient to support the allegations therein. Domen Holding Co. v. Aronovich, 1 N.Y.3d 117, 124 (2003). Specifically, RSC § 2524.2(b) requires that:

> Every notice to a tenant to vacate or surrender possession of a housing accommodation … state the facts necessary to establish the existence (of stated grounds for eviction), and the date when the tenant is required to surrender possession.

RSC § 2524.2(b).

The purpose of the particularity requirement in the RSC is to ensure that tenants are afforded knowledge of the factual allegations to be used against them, and therefore the means to defend themselves. Aronovich, 1 N.Y.3d at 125; Carriage Court Inn, Inc. v. Rains, 138 Misc. 2d 444, 445 (Civ. Ct. N.Y. Cnty. 1988) ("The alleged defaults must be stated with particularity, so that the tenant may know what to defend against and how to interpose valid legal defenses against the landlord's claims.") (citing Wolfe v. Frankel, N.Y.L.J., Oct. 3, 1979, at 6 (App. Term 1st Dep't)). Thus, the purpose of the Notice of Termination is to afford tenants a summary of the case the petitioner intends to put on against them—a summary of facts and arguments. Rains, 138 Misc. 2d at 445.

Failure to comply with the strict notice requirements of the RSC is a fatal defect that cannot be cured. Chinatown Apts. Inc. v. Chu Cho Lam, 51 N.Y.2d 786, 788 (1980); East 85th St. Co. v. Gravanis, N.Y.L.J., Jan. 21, 1981, at 6 (App. Term 1st Dep't); Century Realty v. Grass, 117 Misc. 2d 224 (Civ. Ct. N.Y. Cnty. 1982). Where the Notice of Termination fails to adhere to the RSC, the court must dismiss the proceeding in question. Chu Cho Lam, 51 N.Y.2d at 788; RNR Realty Corp v. Smith, N.Y.L.J., Aug. 5, 1998, at 24 (Civ. Ct. Kings Cnty.) ("[T]he court cannot deem the notice of termination amended nunc pro tunc to include a claim … that was not included in the original notice.").

In the context of a nonprimary residence allegation, Courts have repeatedly upheld the critical importance of the particularity requirement, in order to "discourage baseless eviction claims founded upon speculation and surmise.'" London Terrace Gardens, L.P. v Heller, 40 Misc 3d 135(A) (App. Term, 1st Dept, 2009); PR 307 W. 93, LLC v Constantin, 51 Misc 3d 992, 997 (Civ. Ct. N.Y. Cty, 2016). For example, allegations that a tenant has not been seen at the premises by unidentified personnel, or that Respondent occupies the premises for less than 183 days, are too conclusory and generic to apprise a Respondent of the basis for the claims against them, and to permit them to develop a response. London Terrace Gardens, L.P. v Heller, 40 Misc 3d 135(A) (App. Term, 1st Dept, 2009).

Petitioner's Notice of Intention to Terminate Mr. Beckwith's hotel tenancy fails to meet the particularity threshold in nearly every respect. First, Petitioner fails to allege Mr. Beckwith's alternative residential address with sufficient particularity to permit Respondent to adequately understand the basis for Petitioner's allegations. Rather than name a particular apartment number where Mr. Beckwith is believed to reside, Petitioner's notice alleges the building address for a City College-affiliated dormitory complex that contains upwards of 160 suites. Exhibit H, *1, ¶ 2. It is unclear which unit number Respondent has been associated with, whether he occupies a room or the entire apartment, leaving Respondent bereft of key information to deduce the basis for the allegations against him.

Likewise, Petitioner fails to provide a clear explanation for the basis for its conclusion that Respondent resides at this address, other than its pleading—upon information and belief—that Mr. Beckwith is employed by the City College of New York and received faculty housing as a condition of his employment. Id. Unlike comparable cases, where a Petitioner presents tax filings, DMV registrations, phone bills, or other indicia of residency connecting Petitioner to an alternate address, (See, e.g., 449 Second Corp. v Napoli, 12 Misc 3d 135(A) (App Term, 1st Dep't, 2006Petitioner offers nothing than a severely attenuated link between Mr. Beckwith's place of employment and a housing facility affiliated with the same.

Petitioner's second set of allegations are equally void of specificity, depriving Respondent of critical information necessary to form his defenses. Petitioner states that its unidentified agents and security cameras have not "observed Tenant residing" at the Subject Premises, for an undefined period of time, and that Respondent visits the premises only once or twice a month. Exhibit H, *1, ¶ 3 Respondent cannot discern from this Notice whether Petitioner's observations spanned weeks, months or years—particularly critical where, as here, the relevant observation period may overlap with Mr. Beckwith's temporary employment-related absence. Beckwith Aff. ¶15. Likewise, Respondent's ability to form his defenses is substantially impaired by a lack of information as to which of Petitioner's agents observed Mr. Beckwith's comings and goings for the building, which camera footage is relevant to Petitioner's conclusions, and other information necessary to understand the foundation of the claims against him.

As these defects in the underlying predicate notice fail to satisfy the requirements of RSC § 2524.2(b), and cannot be amended, the proceeding must be dismissed.

II. Respondent is Entitled to Summary Judgment as to his Primary Residency at the Premises, as Petitioner Fails to Establish a "Threshold Level" of Case-Specific Facts Necessary to Maintain This Proceeding, While Respondent Provides a Wealth of Documentary Evidence of His Substantial, Ongoing, Physical Nexus to the Premises.

In a proceeding based on nonprimary residence, the threshold question before the Court is whether the Tenant has maintained "an ongoing, substantial, physical nexus with the ... premises for actual living purposes" Katz Park Ave. Corp. v Jagger, 11 NY3d 314, 317 (2008) quoting Emay Properties Corp. v Norton, 136 Misc 2d 127, 129 (App. Term, 1st Dept, 1987). The Petitioner bears the burden of proof in this proceeding, i.e., must demonstrate reasonable basis and evidence for its conclusion that the Respondent fails to maintain a physical nexus with their home, or utilizes another address as their primary residence. Glenbriar Co v S. Lee Lipsman, 5 NY3d 388, 392 (2005). As a prerequisite to commencement of any proceeding for nonprimary residence, the Petitioner must identify the grounds for the proceeding, and the facts underlying that ground. RSC (9 NYCRR) § 2204.3 (b).

Here, Petitioner fails to state sufficient factual or evidentiary basis for its conclusion that Mr. Beckwith does not occupy the premises as his primary residence, and as such fails to establish a sufficient dispute of material fact necessary to maintain this proceeding.

By contrast, Respondent affirms that he maintains a substantial, ongoing, and physical nexus with the premises through sworn and non-conclusory testimony as well as a weight of documentary evidence consistent with a finding that he maintained a substantial, ongoing, physical nexus to the Premises. Therefore, as Petitioner fails to raise allegations sufficient to establish a material factual dispute, summary judgment in favor of Respondent is warranted.

A. There is No Genuine Issue of Material Fact As To Petitioner's Allegation that Mr. Beckwith Resides in University Housing.

The allegations underlying a nonprimary residence proceeding must be sufficiently particular and non-conclusory to establish a genuine and concrete claim of that the tenant does not maintain an ongoing, substantial, physical nexus with the Subject Premises. London Terrace Gardens, L.P. v Heller, 40 Misc 3d 135(A) (App. Term, 1st Dept, 2009); PR 307 W. 93, LLC v Constantin, 51 Misc 3d 992, 997 (Civ. Ct. N.Y. Cty, 2016). This requirement is intended to "discourage baseless eviction claims founded upon speculation and surmised.' Id.

While a credible allegation that a Respondent resides at another address may be sufficient to give rise to a claim of nonprimary residence, an allegation that lacks any supporting evidence or facts is insufficient as a matter of law. 325 Third Ave. LLC v Vargas, 52 Misc 3d 564, 567 (Civ. Ct. N.Y. Cty, 2016) (failure to include facts supporting an allegation of alternate address resulted in dismissal, as such failure "leaves the tenant in a position to deny the alternate residence but little else...other than hopelessly wonder from where the landlord could have obtained its information.") Courts have repeatedly declined to uphold allegations of nonprimary residence when a notice is so attenuated that it "treads too far into the realm of speculation." PR 307 W. 93, LLC v Constantin, 51 Misc 3d 992, 997 (Civ Ct N.Y. Cty., 2016).

In the instant proceeding, Petitioner alleges that Mr. Beckwith currently resides in "faculty housing" at "The Towers", an off-campus housing facility affiliated with the City College of New York (CCNY). In support of this allegation, Petitioner offers the following assertions:

1. That Mr. Beckwith is a lecturer at City College of New York.
2. That, upon information and belief, Mr. Beckwith was "offered" faculty housing at the Towers.

Exhibit H, * 1, ¶ 2.

While Mr. Beckwith acknowledges that he is currently employed by the City College of New York as a Lecturer, that fact does not establish or support an inference that he lives in faculty housing provided by the institution. As noted above, Petitioner fails to establish where it obtained its information and belief that Mr. Beckwith was provided faculty housing—for example, the name of an agent of his employer with whom it spoke about Mr. Beckwith's living arrangements—or any other evidence pointing to Mr. Beckwith's residency at The Towers (i.e. a phone or utility account at that address, documentation connecting Mr. Beckwith to that address, or any other indicia of residency.) In fact, Petitioner fails to even allege the apartment number or suite number in which Mr. Beckwith allegedly resides within the 164-unit building. Rather, it appears that Petitioner has made a logical leap that, because Mr. Beckwith is a CCNY faculty member, and because CCNY is loosely affiliated with an off-campus residence called The Towers, Mr. Beckwith resides at the Towers. This conclusion would reflect, at best, a syllogistic fallacy and, at worst, a bad-faith allegation serving only to haul Respondent into court where no adequate evidence exists to support Petitioner's cause of action.

Petitioner's allegations are further directly rebutted by Respondent's sworn testimony and evidence. Mr. Beckwith's affidavit notes that he not only does not reside in the Towers but has never even stepped foot in the building. Beckwith Aff., ¶¶ 6-7. His statement is corroborated by an email from an agent of "the Towers," confirming the absence of any record that Mr. Beckwith resided in the building. Exhibit I. Likewise, Mr. Beckwith's employer, City College of New York, has provided Mr. Beckwith with a letter verifying his employment, and confirming that it does not offer faculty housing, and that Mr. Beckwith's address on file with his employer is the subject premises. Exhibit E.

In short Petitioner's allegation that Mr. Beckwith uses "the Towers" as his primary residence is unsupported by any evidence, and insufficient to create a dispute of fact—particularly in light of Mr. Beckwith's testimony and documentary evidence that he does not – and could not – live in CCNY faculty housing. "The court is not a place to throw claims against a wall just to see what sticks." E. Vil. Re Holdings, LLC v McGowan, 53 Misc 3d 1201(A) [Civ Ct 2016], affd as mod, 57 Misc 3d 155(A) [App Term, 1st Dept, 2017). As it appears that Petitioner is doing just that, summary judgment should be granted in favor of Mr. Beckwith.

B. Petitioner's Remaining Allegations are Insufficiently Particular to Establish Respondent's Nonprimary Residence.

The allegations underlying a nonprimary residence proceeding must be sufficiently particular and case-specific as to establish a genuine and concrete claim of nonprimary residence. RSC § 2524.2(b), London Terrace Gardens, L.P. v Heller, 40 Misc 3d 135(A) (App. Term, 1st Dept, 2009); PR 307 W. 93, LLC v Constantin, 51 Misc 3d 992, 997 (Civ. Ct. N.Y. Cty, 2016). To limit or discourage use of court proceedings based solely on "speculation" or "surmise"

Courts have repeatedly dismissed proceedings where the petition and predicate notice fail to disclose with requisite specificity the identities of agents providing information or observations of Respondent's whereabouts, the facts elicited through an owner's investigations into nonprimary residence, and/or the relevant timeframes underlying an owner's conclusions regarding a tenant's residence. 29 Cornelia, LLC v Antonella, 2020 WL 11884729 (Civ Ct, N.Y. Cty[1] (dismissed as defective based partially on Petitioner's failure to provide clear time frames for Respondent's absence, or to identify Petitioner's agents); PR 307 W. 93, LLC v Constantin, 51 Misc 3d 992, 997 (Civ. Ct. N.Y. Cty, 2016) (dismissed due to lack of specificity of time frame and connection of support facts to concrete claim); Zevrone Realty Corp. v Cedano, 61 Misc 3d 1213(A) (Civ Ct, N.Y. Cty, 2018) (dismissed based on lack of clear timeframe or sufficient evidence of permanent relocation); E. Vil. Re Holdings, LLC v McGowan, 53 Misc 3d 1201(A) (Civ Ct, N.Y. Cty. 2016), affd as mod, 57 Misc 3d 155(A) (App Term 2017) (dismissed where petition failed to include any facts yielded from Petitioner's "comprehensive investigation").

Here, the allegations in Petitioner's notice of termination are of exactly the same form and substance as those previously determined by numerous courts to be insufficiently specific. First, Petitioner fails to disclose the identities of any agents who have failed to "observe Tenant residing" at the premises (or who have reviewed surveillance footage of the same), and under what circumstances such agents would reasonably be presumed to have direct or complete knowledge of Mr. Beckwith's comings and goings from his apartment. Petitioner further fails to allege any timeframe for the agents' observations, depriving Respondent of the ability to rebut Petitioner's legal conclusions (i.e. temporary employment- or family-related absences, vacations, etc.) Lastly, Petitioner's allegation that Respondent receives mail addressed to prior tenants or occupants does not bear any relationship to allegations of nonprimary residence, particularly as Petitioner acknowledges that the person to whom the mail is addressed does not reside in the premises. Exhibit H, *1, ¶ 3(a).

Therefore, as Petitioner has not raised any allegations of fact that are sufficiently particular and case-specific to give Respondent notice of the basis for its allegations, the proceeding must be dismissed.

C. Summary Judgment Should be Granted in Respondent's Favor Based on Substantial Testimonial and Documentary Evidence Establishing Respondent's Primary Residence at the Premises.

In determining whether a tenant maintains a dwelling unit as his or her primary residence, a Court may consider, among other factors, whether the tenant has listed another address on a tax return, motor vehicle registration, driver's license or any other agency document; whether the tenant has voted or registered to vote at another address; whether the tenant has occupied the housing accommodation for fewer than 183 days in the most recent calendar year (except for temporary periods of relocation); and whether the tenant has sublet their apartment. 9 NYCRR § 2520.6. For example, in Draper v Georgia Properties, Inc., 94 NY2d 809, 811 (1999), the Court upheld the tenants' primary residency claims based on documentary and testimonial evidence of residency, including the tenants' sworn affidavit, her driver's license, her voter registration card, the front page of her tax returns, utility bills, her child's school enrollment letter, and correspondence (from her landlord and other entities) addressed to her at the subject apartment. See, also, Vil. Dev. Assoc. LLC v Walker, 282 AD2d 369, 369 (1st Dept 2001); Lesser v Park 65 Realty Corp., 140 AD2d 169, 173 (1st Dept, 1988); Cox v J.D. Realty Assoc., 217 AD2d 179, 184 (1st Dept 1995).

Annexed as Exhibits A-E, Mr. Beckwith submits evidence which uniformly points to Mr. Beckwith's use and occupancy of the Subject Premises as his primary address, including his driver's license (issued in 2020) redacted tax filings and W-2s, voter registrations, jury summons, and a letter from his employer reflecting that the subject address is the address in his personnel file. In fact, Petitioner's own affidavits of service reflect that Mr. Beckwith was personally served with notice of this proceeding when he was at home, at the Subject Premises, on April 15, 2025, further support for the notion that his nexus to the premises is physical, substantial and ongoing. Exhibit J.

Moreover, Mr. Beckwith's proactive steps to address the decrease in services reinforce and underscore his substantial and ongoing relationship to the Premises. Mr. Beckwith is an active member of his building's tenants' association, and a named plaintiff in a legal action against Petitioner in the Housing Part (for repairs and harassment), annexed as Exhibit F. He is also the named representative on a group decrease in building-wide services complaint with the DHCR. Exhibit G. These actions are, put simply, not indicative of an intent to permanently relocate or abandon his long-time home—rather, they reflect a strong commitment to restoring the habitability of Mr. Beckwith's longtime home, and an intention to preserve his SRO housing.

As Mr. Beckwith has made a clear and undisputed evidentiary showing of his physical nexus with the building for living purposes, he asks for a ruling on summary judgment dismissing the proceeding.

III. To The Extent that Dismissal and/or Summary Judgment is Not Granted, Respondent Should be Granted Leave for Discovery of All Available Surveillance Footage from the Subject Premises.

In the context of a summary proceeding, applications for discovery should be granted where a party can demonstrate "ample need". See New York University v. Farkas, 121 Misc.2d 643, 468 N.Y.S.2d 808 (Civ. Ct. N.Y. Co. 1983). In order to demonstrate "ample need" the court should consider several factors, including: (1) whether there is a need to determine information directly related to the cause of action and such information is in the control of the nonmoving party; (2) whether the requested disclosure is carefully tailored and is likely to clarify the disputed facts; (3) whether prejudice will result from the granting of an application for disclosure; (4) whether the prejudice can be diminished or alleviated by an order fashioned by the court for this purpose; (5) whether the court, in its supervisory role can structure discovery so that pro se tenants, in particular, will be protected and not adversely affected by a landlord's discovery requests. Id.

The Court of Appeals has long upheld that parties can demonstrate "substantial need" for access to surveillance video footage, where a party cannot obtain comparable materials without undue hardship, particularly in light of the need to analyze the accuracy and authenticity of the footage prior to trial. DiMichel v S. Buffalo Ry. Co., 80 NY2d 184, 196 (1992). Following the DiMichel ruling, the New York State Legislature took the additional step of codifying a statutory requirement of full disclosure of video surveillance pertaining to any party in a proceeding is a statutory requirement, pursuant to CPLR 3101(i). See, Tran v New Rochelle Hosp. Med. Ctr., 99 NY2d 383, 390 (2003)(modifying DiMichel holding in light of statutory amendment to CPLR 3101, to permit full disclosure of surveillance materials without limitations on timing). Taken together, these rulings stand for the principle that a party is not only entitled to seek surveillance footage based on a showing of substantial need, but is in fact entitled to full and unredacted disclosure of surveillance footage, whether or not the footage is intended to be produced at trial.

In the predicate notice underlying this proceeding, Petitioner expressly references the existence of surveillance video footage upon which it bases its conclusion that Respondent does not reside in the premises. It follows that some or all of this surveillance footage would be offered at trial as evidence of Respondents presence (or lack of presence) at the Subject Premises. Given the nature of a nonprimary proceeding—in which Petitioner must establish non-residency through testimonial or demonstrative evidence of Respondents' lack of presence at the Premises, twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, for an (as yet undefined) period of time—the video surveillance footage is necessary for Respondent to reasonable prepare his defenses. Likewise, to the extent that the Court finds a dispute of material fact exists regarding Respondents' primary residence, the footage would serve to clarify that fact. The surveillance footage is or should be in Petitioner's exclusive possession, and Respondent does not have access to footage which would establish comparable evidence. Moreover, the scope of the surveillance footage required would necessarily amount to thousands of hours, requiring weeks to ensure meaningful review of the evidence. If that review cannot take place until the moment the footage is introduced by Petitioner at trial, the trial will be delayed by weeks as Respondent reviews it.

As such, Respondent moves for the Court to grant the annexed Proposed Notice to Produce and Notice of Interrogatories, and deem the same served upon Petitioners.

CONCLUSION

In sum, Respondent requests the Court grant his motion for dismissal and summary judgment, as Petitioner's allegations of nonprimary residence are defective as a matter of law and fail to raise a triable issue of material fact, and as Mr. Beckwith has presented a weight of evidence establishing his primary residence at the Subject Premises. To the extent that the Court finds that a dispute of fact exists warranting trial on Petitioner's allegations, Respondent requests the Court grant him leave to conduct limited discovery, and deem the discovery demands annexed as Exhibits K and L served upon Petitioner.

AFFIRMATION IN OPPOSITION TO RESPONDENT'S MOTION AND IN SUPPORT OF PETITIONER'S CROSS MOTION

----------X

M. DAVID FONSECA, an attorney admitted to practice law in the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following under penalty of perjury pursuant to CPLR §2106:

1. I am a partner of the law firm Kucker Marino Winiarsky & Bittens, LLP, attorneys for 109E9 LLC ("Petitioner") herein, and, as such, am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances set forth herein. I submit this Affirmation:

(i) in opposition to the motion by Respondent Shiras Patterson Beckwith ("Respondent") (a) pursuant to CPLR §§3211(a)(2) and (7) to dismiss this proceeding; (b) pursuant to CPLR §3212 for summary judgment; or, in the alternative, (c) pursuant to CPLR §§408 and 3101, granting leave for Respondent to conduct discovery;

(ii) in support of Petitioner's cross-motion pursuant to CPLR §§408 and 3101, granting leave for Petitioner to conduct discovery; and

(iii) for such other, further, and different relief as the Court deems just, proper, and equitable.

2. As set forth hereinbelow, in the annexed Affirmation of Michael Geylik, the Registered Managing Agent for Petitioner (the "Geylik Affirmation"), annexed Affirmation of Mint Tan, an employee of MGNY Consulting Corp. on the first floor of the subject building (the "Tan Affirmation"), annexed Affidavit of Yousef Girgist Salama, the occupant of Apartment #2A in the subject building, sworn to on May 20, 2025 (the "Salama Affidavit"), the Exhibits hereto, and the annexed Memorandum of Law, incorporated herein by reference, the Court should deny Respondent's motion in its entirety.

3. Respondent has failed to set forth grounds for dismissal, let alone summary judgment, where Respondent has put forth nothing more than scant perfunctory evidence that Respondent utilizes the unit as a mailing address and/or has not officially documented a change of address, but has rarely been observed at the Building for years, and has entirely failed to demonstrate an ongoing substantial physical nexus with the subject premises.

4. Respondent has further failed to establish "ample need" for the broad-ranging discovery sought – years' worth of surveillance camera footage, metadata, and the like which "would necessarily amount to thousands of hours, requiring weeks to ensure meaningful review" (Doc.25, p.14) – all "at Petitioner's sole expense." Doc.25, p.3.

5. Petitioner, on the other hand, can show concrete grounds for its allegation that Respondent does not use the subject premises as a primary residence, and an ample need for discovery from Respondent, who is in exclusive possession of the facts and evidence to support the defense that Respondent maintains an ongoing, substantial, physical nexus with the subject premises for actual living purposes that would justify affording the tenancy continued protection under the rent stabilization laws.

BACKGROUND FACTS

6. Petitioner is the owner of the building known as and located at 109 East 9th Street,

New York, New York 10003 (Tax Map Block: 555, Lot: 40) (the "Building"), having acquired title thereto by deed dated June 28, 2021, and recorded/filed July 7, 2021, under CRFN 2021000258220, a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

7. Respondent is the occupant of record of Apartment #2E in the Building, a Single Room Occupancy ("SRO") unit measuring approximately ninety (90) to one hundred (100) square feet (the "Unit").

8. Following Petitioner's purchase of the Building, in or about December 2021, it had security cameras installed throughout the Building which take motion-activated video recordings and are located at the second-floor landing of the Building, covering the Building entrance, stairs, and corridor area. See, Geylik Affirmation.

9. As set forth in the Geylik Affirmation, Tan Affirmation, and Salama Affidavit, Respondent has not been seen at the Unit on a regular basis in years, notwithstanding claims of having traveled extensively for work in the Fall semester of 2021 and Spring semester of 2022. See, Doc.11, pars.15-22.

10. As specifically averred in the Geylik Affirmation and Tan Affirmation, for more than two (2) years, Respondent has infrequently been seen at the Building – at most once or twice per month – sometimes to collect mail, or to drop off a rent check. See, Geylik Affirmation, Tan Affirmation; see also, Salama Affidavit.

11. While Respondent's attorney speculates that Petitioner could not have personal knowledge of the frequency of Respondent's presence at the Unit or Building allegedly since "Mr. Geylik does not work in an area of the office with access to street-facing windows," (Doc.10, par.14), Mint Tan has worked for MGNY Consulting Corp. on the first floor of the Building since March 28, 2022, and sits at a desk in front of a window next to the entrance door to the Building, as depicted in the photograph annexed hereto as Exhibit B. See, Doc.17, par.36

12. Mr. Tan avers that he has seen Respondent entering/exiting the Building approximately one or two times per month, primarily when Respondent dropped off rent checks in person or picked up mail, in stark contrast to other occupants of the Building whom he observes coming and going multiple times per day. See, Tan Affirmation.

13. Additionally, in or about the Summer of 2024, Petitioner received a copy of a "Notice of Non-Renewal of Lease and Intention to Commence Summary Proceedings Based Upon Non-Primary Residence" dated June 6, 2024, addressed to Amy Beth Gartrell,[1] alleging that Ms. Gartrell failed to utilize a rent-stabilized apartment located at 119 Freeman Street, Apt. 2R, Brooklyn, New York 11222 as her primary residence and instead resides at the Unit "or at another address unknown to the Landlord," a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit D—although neither Mr. Geylik nor Mr. Tan had observed her living in the Building or Unit. See, Geylik Affirmation, Tan Affirmation.

14. Aware that Respondent was not primarily residing in the Unit and is employed by The City College of New York ("CCNY"), Mr. Geylik performed research and discovered that CCNY has a residence hall which offers a "limited number of studio and one-bedroom suites available for faculty housing," known as The Towers at CCNY and located at 401 West 130th Street, New York, New York 10027. A true copy of the CCNY's "Housing and Residence Life" webpage, available at: https://ccny-undergraduate.catalog.cuny.edu/the-division-of-student-affairs/housing-and-residence-life, is annexed hereto as Exhibit E.

15. Additional investigation revealed 160 Convent Avenue, Room 109, New York, New York 10031 was the possible location of Respondent's employment, and that a phone number listed on checks used to pay Respondent's rent corresponded to the address 156 Noble Street,

[1] Upon information and belief, Amy Beth Gartrell is Respondent's spouse (see, Doc.13), having married on or about April 22, 2022. A true copy of the Honeyfund.com, Inc. website for "Amy & Patterson," which is, upon information and belief, Respondent's wedding registry website, available at: https://www.honeyfund.com/wedding/gartrell-beckwith-04-22-2022 is annexed hereto as Exhibit C.

Brooklyn, New York 11222. See, Geylik Affirmation.

16. Thus, Petitioner caused to be served on Respondent a "Notice of Intention to Discontinue a Hotel Tenancy and to Commence an Action or Proceeding Based on Non-Primary Residence" dated December 24, 2024, terminating Respondent's hotel tenancy based upon Respondent's non-primary residence of the Unit as of March 31, 2025 (the "Termination Notice"). A true copy of the Termination Notice, with proof of service thereof, is annexed hereto as Exhibit F.[2]

17. Following expiration of the Termination Notice, Petitioner commenced the instant holdover proceeding by Notice of Petition and Petition dated April 3, 2025, a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit G.

18. Respondent filed a Verified Answer dated April 28, 2025, a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit H.

19. Respondent filed to dismiss the instant holdover proceeding or, in the alternative, for leave to conduct discovery. See, Motion Sequence 1.

20. Respondent argues, inter alia, that the Termination Notice is allegedly defective as purportedly lacking "information necessary to understand the foundation of the claims against him," (Doc.25, p.6), such as the names of Petitioner's agents and circumstances under which they would have knowledge of his comings and goings, or the timeframes of their observations—based on Respondent's attorney's claims that the office of Mr. Geylik, the Building's managing agent, does not face the residential entrance and claims that the Building lacks janitorial or maintenance staff who would observe Respondent. See, Doc.10, pars.12-18.

21. Respondent further posits, "that Respondent receives mail addressed to prior tenants or occupants does not bear any relationship to allegations of nonprimary residence, particularly as Petitioner acknowledges that the person to whom the mail is addressed does not reside in the premises" (Doc.25, p.11)—however, the Termination Notice makes clear that Respondent "receives mail addressed to Amy Beth Gartrell," (see, Ex. F, Ex. D) Respondent's spouse (see, Doc.13; Ex. C), not some former prior tenant or occupant.

[2] Of note, while Respondent claims that he received the Termination Notice after he filed a complaint with the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal ("DHCR") for an alleged reduction in Building services, DHCR's Docketing Acknowledgment Notice (Doc.18) reflects that the DHCR Docket was issued and mailed February 21, 2025, months after issuance and service of the Termination Notice. See, Ex. F.

22. Respondent makes further nebulous claims of having traveled for work during unspecified periods in the Fall of 2021 and Spring of 2022, claims that he has joined in certain proceedings because the Building is in need of repairs and/or services, and makes even vaguer claims that at some conveniently unspecified point, at unspecified dates or times, and for unspecified durations, he "began spending more nights with friends and family…" due to alleged conditions at the Building. See, Doc.11, par.28.

23. Respondent centrally never alleges that he actually resides in the Unit, including overnight—he merely alleges he has "repeatedly visited the apartment, not just to check mail but also to do work from home (including work meetings and calls), visit with or have a meal with friends, run errands, clean, read books, watch television, and carry out other daily tasks." Doc.11, par.29.[3]

24. However, Respondent's intermittent use of the Unit as a mere convenience or workspace and "limited occupancy of the subject studio apartment did not constitute the type of "'ongoing, substantial physical nexus with the controlled premises for actual living purposes" … that would justify affording the tenancy continued protection under the rent stabilization laws.' (Berwick Land Corp. v Mucelli, 249 A.D.2d 18, 18-19, 671 N.Y.S.2d 44 [1998].)" Rocky 116 L.L.C. v. Weston, 195 Misc. 2d 363, 364-365 (App. Term 1st Dept. 2003).

25. While Respondent annexes various documents to his motion, including: a driver's license issued in 2020 (Doc.12), single-page redacted federal tax filings and W-2 forms (Doc.13), voter registration (Doc.14), jury summons (Doc.15), and letter verifying his address on file with his employer (Doc.16), these documents do not constitute objective, empirical evidence that Respondent actively uses the Unit for dwelling purposes, but rather merely evidence that Respondent has not officially registered a change of address on certain filings and maintains exclusive access to the mailbox for the Unit in the Building. See, Nugarese, Inc. v Martinez, 66 Misc. 3d 1216(A), *20-21 (Bronx Co. Civ. Ct. 2020).

26. Notably absent from Respondent's motion are any indicia that the Unit or the neighboring area are the nexus of his day-to-day life, such as bills or statements showing the Unit as his address; receipts, banking, or credit card records showing Respondent frequenting businesses in the area or receiving deliveries to the Unit; affidavits from his spouse, friends, or neighbors attesting to his primary residence at the Unit; actual voting records, not a mere registration; correspondence addressed to him at the Unit, or otherwise.

27. This paucity of documentary or other evidence of Respondent's supposed twenty-plus year tenancy of the Unit buttresses Petitioner's detailed report annexed hereto showing Respondent's years'-long failure to primarily reside in the Unit.

28. Petitioner retained the services of InfoTactic Group, Inc. ("InfoTactic"), an investigative and surveillance services company, to review years' worth of security camera footage recorded at the Building to verify Respondent's presence at the Building and/or Unit and to document all instances when Respondent appeared on camera during the period of December 2021 through December 2024. See, Geylik Affirmation.

29. Annexed hereto as Exhibit I is a true copy of the Security Camera Footage Analysis & Expert Witness Report dated May 20, 2025, prepared by Licensed Private Investigator for InfoTactic, Roman Khaykin, certified "under penalty of perjury [to be] true and correct," providing the detailed methodology as well as the chain of custody and file verification procedures followed in preparing said report, with Appendix A: Chain of Custody, Appendix B: Complete File Inventory, Appendix C: Video Timeline Analysis S.P. BECKWITH Reports: Date range Dec. 5, 2021 – Dec. 13, 2024, and Appendix D: Technical Specifications of Axis Camera System (the "InfoTactic Report").

30. The InfoTactic Report goes into minute detail, summarizing that in a three (3) year span from December 5, 2021 through December 13, 2024, Respondent was seen at the Building on a total of one hundred twenty-four (124) days out of more than one thousand total days of footage reviewed, broken down as: (i) four (4) days in December 2021; (ii) forty-eight (48) days in 2022; (iii) forty-six (46) days in 2023; and (iv) twenty-six (26) days in 2024. See, Ex. I, par. 6.1, Appendix C.

31. The InfoTactic Report further details that Respondent's rare visits were also brief, often lasting mere minutes and at most mere hours, and shows that Respondent seemingly never resided in the Unit overnight. See, Ex. I, Appendix C.

32. The InfoTactic Report concluded that Respondent was absent from the residence for approximately 98.7% of the total time period analyzed. Ex. I, pars. 6.3, 6.4, 8.1, 9.4.

33. Evidently aware that the security cameras at the Building will definitively show that Respondent does not dwell in the Unit as his primary residence,[4] Respondent attempts to explain away his apparent absence from the Unit for essentially the entire duration of Petitioner's ownership of the Building, with claims of work and/or vacation travel, including a fellowship from Fall 2021 through Spring 2022 (Doc.11, pars.14-20); then that, following his supposed return, in or about Fall 2022, the Building's conditions became such that he "began spending more nights with friends and family, where [he] could cook a hot meal, take a shower without added inconvenience, and have access to functional heat during the winters." Doc.11, par.28.

[4] See, Doc.10, par.19: "The only other way that Petitioner could reasonably conclude that Mr. Beckwith (or any other tenant) was not residing at the premises would be to review up to four years of 24-7 video surveillance footage, totaling more than 17,000 hours."

34. Notably, however, Respondent did not file a complaint for diminution of services with DHCR until December 2024 (see, Doc.18), and does not allege he made any complaints to the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD"), the New York City Department of Buildings ("DOB"), or otherwise concerning these alleged conditions which purportedly led to his absenteeism until joining other occupants of the Building in filing an HP proceeding against Petitioner in April 2025. See, Doc.17.

35. Beyond Respondent's well-documented years'-long virtual absence from the Unit as analyzed and reflected in the InfoTactic Report (Ex. I), Petitioner uncovered added evidence that Respondent does not maintain the Unit as his primary residence.

36. For example, in its further investigation into Respondent's nonprimary residence, Petitioner found that Respondent and his spouse, Amy Beth Gartrell, purchased properties in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. See, Geylik Affirmation; see also, Ex. C, (Respondent's apparent wedding registry which states, "We're lucky to already have an apartment full of everything we need, so please enjoy browsing our Honeyfund wish list, where you can contribute funds to our new home. It's a rowhouse in Pittsburgh - small but cute. We own the house outright, but need to do work on it to bring it up to code. Fortunately it's sound and doesn't need a roof or anything - just some renovation. We're doing a lot of work ourselves, (and hiring people where we can't.).").

37. Annexed hereto as Exhibit J is a true copy of a deed for 7483 and 7485 Delmar Way, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15218, dated October 27, 2020, and recorded November 16, 2020, conveying said parcels to Shiras P. Beckwith and Amy-Beth C. Gartrell as "joint tenants with the right of survivorship and not as tenants in common"; annexed hereto as Exhibit K is a true copy of a deed for 7487 Delmar Way, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15218, dated January 3, 2024, and recorded January 5, 2024, conveying said parcel to Shiras P. Beckwith and Amy-Beth C. Gartrell as "husband and wife."[5]

38. Additionally, in the annexed Salama Affidavit, the occupant of Unit #2A in the Building avers under penalty of perjury that:

> I have continuously resided in Apartment 2A of this building since 1999. Apartment 2E is located directly across a short hallway from my unit. When I am home, I often leave my apartment door open. During this time, I have not observed anyone residing full-time in Apartment 2E. I have only seen the individual associated with that unit a handful of times over the years, unlike other neighbors whom I see and interact with multiple times each week.

Par. 5 (emphasis added).

39. Thus, Petitioner has adduced ample evidentiary support and basis for the clearly defined allegations set forth in the Termination Notice (Ex. F) and Petition (Ex. G), that Respondent does not use the Unit as his primary residence, and the Court should deny dismissal of this holdover proceeding.

40. Indeed, "[t]hat the notice meaningfully apprised tenant of the factual underpinnings of the landlord's nonprimary residence claim was confirmed by tenant's own moving papers, which included a detailed affidavit addressing the merits of the litigation and, further, requesting that the court … grant tenant summary dismissal of the holdover petition." Second 82nd Corp. v Veiders, 34 Misc. 3d 130(A), 130A (App. Term 1st Dept. 2011).

41. The Court should further deny Respondent's wide-ranging request for, inter alia, "discovery of the entire, unredacted surveillance video from all cameras at the Subject Premises, from date of installation through the present," (Doc.10, par.21; see also, Doc.22, Doc.23), as overbroad, unduly burdensome, causing prejudicial delay, and as unnecessary in light of the detailed InfoTech Report and Appendices thereto (Ex. I), which fully satisfy Respondent's

42. On the other hand, in light of the material issues of fact presented by Petitioner's submissions herein, and the presumption in favor of discovery by landlords in nonprimary residence holdovers (see, Hughes v. Lenox Hill Hosp., 226 A.D.2d 4, 17-18 (1st Dept. 1996)), Petitioner has demonstrated an ample need for discovery, as set forth in Petitioner's Notice of Discovery and Inspection annexed hereto as Exhibit L, Petitioner's Judicial Subpoena Duces Tecum annexed hereto as Exhibit M, Petitioner's Notice of Deposition Upon Oral Examination annexed hereto as Exhibit N, and Petitioner's Judicial Subpoena Ad Testificandum annexed hereto as Exhibit O.

43. For the reasons set forth herein, in the accompanying Geylik Affirmation, Tan Affirmation, Salama Affidavit, Exhibits hereto, and in the accompanying Memorandum of Law, incorporated herein by reference, it is respectfully requested that Respondent's motion be denied in its entirety, and Petitioner's cross-motion be granted in its entirety.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court deny Respondent's motion in its entirety, and grant Petitioner's cross motion in its entirety, with such other, further, and different relief as the Court deems just, proper, and equitable.

MICHAEL GEYLIK, hereby declares under the penalty of perjury and pursuant to CPLR §2106, as follows:

1. I am the managing agent for 109E9 LLC ("Petitioner"), owner of the building located at 109 East 9th Street, New York, New York 10003 (Tax Map Block: 555, Lot: 40) (the "Building"), and I am involved in and have specific knowledge with respect to, among other things, overseeing tenant files and accounts, management of personnel who work within the Building, tenant relations, and general day-to-day operation and property management, and the statements in this affirmation are based upon my own personal knowledge and upon my review of the books and records that have been kept by Petitioner in the regular and ordinary course of business, and, as such, I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances set forth herein. I submit the within affirmation:

(i) in opposition to the motion by Respondent Shiras Patterson Beckwith ("Respondent") (a) pursuant to CPLR §§3211(a)(2) and (7) to dismiss this proceeding; (b) pursuant to CPLR §3212 for summary judgment; or, in the alternative, (c) pursuant to CPLR §§408 and 3101, granting leave for Respondent to conduct discovery;

(ii) in support of Petitioner's cross-motion pursuant to CPLR §§408 and 3101, granting leave for Petitioner to conduct discovery; and

(iii) for such other, further, and different relief as the Court deems just, proper, and equitable.

BACKGROUND FACTS

2. Petitioner acquired title to the Building by deed dated June 28, 2021, and recorded/filed July 7, 2021, under CRFN 2021000258220, a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

3. Respondent is the occupant of record of Apartment #2E in the Building, a Single Room Occupancy ("SRO") unit measuring approximately ninety (90) to one hundred (100) square feet (the "Unit").

4. Following Petitioner's purchase of the Building, in or about December 2021, it had security cameras installed throughout the Building which take motion-activated video recordings and are located at the second-floor landing of the Building, covering the Building entrance, stairs, and corridor area.

5. Additionally, my company, MGNY Consulting Corp. ("MGNY"), built and maintains offices on the ground floor of the Building, resulting in my regular presence at the Building during working hours, Monday through Friday each week.

6. Since Petitioner's purchase of the Building, I became familiar with the occupants of the Building and frequently observed their comings and goings.

7. However, I consistently noticed that Respondent was rarely, if ever, seen at the Building.

8. At most, I would observe Respondent once or twice a month at the Building, sometimes to drop off a rent check or to pick up mail.

9. On or about March 28, 2022, MGNY hired Mint Tan, who works as MGNY's Director of Internal Operations, and who often assists me with certain aspects of operation of the Building on behalf of Petitioner and has become familiar with and known to the occupants of the Building.

10. In MGNY's offices on the ground floor of the Building, Mr. Tan sits at a desk in front of a window next to the entrance door to the Building, as depicted in the photograph annexed hereto as Exhibit B, and, as such, is able to observe the occupants of the Building's comings and goings on a daily basis throughout the work week.

11. Over the years, Mr. Tan has confirmed to me that he rarely sees Respondent at the Building – perhaps once or twice a month, seemingly checking mail or dropping off rent – in stark contrast to other occupants who he observes coming and going multiple times per day.

12. Respondent was observed in video recordings taken by the security cameras at the Building with approximately the same frequency.

13. In or about the Summer of 2024, Petitioner received a copy of a "Notice of Non-Renewal of Lease and Intention to Commence Summary Proceedings Based Upon Non-Primary Residence" dated June 6, 2024, addressed to Amy Beth Gartrell,[1] alleging that Ms. Gartrell failed to utilize a rent-stabilized apartment located at 119 Freeman Street, Apt. 2R, Brooklyn, New York 11222 as her primary residence and instead resides at the Unit "or at another address unknown to the Landlord," a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit D—although neither I nor Mr. Tan had observed her living in the Building or Unit, indicating that not only Respondent but also his spouse were improperly using the Unit as a mere mailing address.

14. Aware that Respondent was not primarily residing in the Unit and is employed by The City College of New York ("CCNY"), I performed research and discovered that CCNY has a residence hall which offers a "limited number of studio and one-bedroom suites available for faculty housing," known as The Towers at CCNY and located at 401 West 130th Street, New York, New York 10027. A true copy of the CCNY's "Housing and Residence Life" webpage, available at: https://ccny-undergraduate.catalog.cuny.edu/the-division-of-student-affairs/housing-and-residence-life, is annexed hereto as Exhibit E.

15. Additional investigation revealed 160 Convent Avenue, Room 109, New York, New York 10031 was the possible location of Respondent's employment, and that a phone number listed on checks used to pay Respondent's rent corresponded to the address 156 Noble Street, Brooklyn, New York 11222.

16. Thus, Petitioner caused to be served on Respondent a "Notice of Intention to Discontinue a Hotel Tenancy and to Commence an Action or Proceeding Based on Non-Primary Residence" dated December 24, 2024, terminating Respondent's hotel tenancy based upon

[1] Upon information and belief, Amy Beth Gartrell is Respondent's spouse (see, Doc.13), having married on or about April 22, 2022. A true copy of the Honeyfund.com, Inc. website for "Amy & Patterson," which is, upon information and belief, Respondent's wedding registry website, available at: https://www.honeyfund.com/wedding/gartrell-beckwith-04-22-2022 is annexed hereto as Exhibit C.

Respondent's non-primary residence of the Unit as of March 31, 2025 (the "Termination Notice"). A true copy of the Termination Notice, with proof of service thereof, is annexed hereto as Exhibit F.

17. Following the expiration of the Termination Notice, Petitioner instructed its attorneys to commence the instant holdover proceeding.

18. Petitioner's attorneys inform me that Respondent has moved to dismiss this proceeding, for summary judgment, and/or for discovery of Petitioner, which should soundly be denied by this Court, including for the reasons set forth in Petitioner's annexed attorney's Affirmation and Memorandum of Law.

19. In addition to the basis for its belief that Respondent was not using the Unit as his primary residence detailed above, Petitioner retained the services of InfoTactic Group, Inc. ("InfoTactic"), an investigative and surveillance services company, to review years' worth of security camera footage recorded at the Building to verify Respondent's presence at the Building and/or Unit and to document all instances when Respondent appeared on camera during the period of December 2021 through December 2024.

20. Annexed hereto as Exhibit I is a true copy of the Security Camera Footage Analysis & Expert Witness Report dated May 20, 2025, prepared by Licensed Private Investigator for InfoTactic, Roman Khaykin, certified "under penalty of perjury [to be] true and correct," providing the detailed methodology as well as the chain of custody and file verification procedures followed in preparing said report, with Appendix A: Chain of Custody, Appendix B: Complete File Inventory, Appendix C: Video Timeline Analysis BECKWITH 2021-2024 Report, and Appendix D: Technical Specifications of Axis Camera System (the "InfoTactic Report").

21. The InfoTactic Report goes into minute detail, summarizing that in a three (3) year span from December 5, 2021 through December 13, 2024, Respondent was seen at the Building on a total of one hundred twenty-four (124) days out of more than one thousand total days of footage reviewed, broken down as: (i) four (4) days in December 2021; (ii) forty-eight (48) days in 2022; (iii) forty-six (46) days in 2023; and (iv) twenty-six (26) days in 2024. See, Ex. I, par. 6.1, Appendix C.

22. The InfoTactic Report further details that Respondent's rare visits were also brief, often lasting mere minutes and at most mere hours, and shows that Respondent seemingly never resided in the Unit overnight. See, Ex. I, Appendix C.

23. The InfoTactic Report concluded that Respondent "was absent from the residence for approximately 98.7% of the total time during the analysis period." Ex. I, pars. 6.3, 6.4, 8.1, 9.4.

24. Petitioner's attorneys inform me that Respondent attempts to explain away his apparent absence from the Unit for essentially the entire duration of Petitioner's ownership of the Building with claims of work and/or vacation travel, and/or that conditions in the Unit and Building somehow justified his well-documented absenteeism.

25. However, Respondent did not file a complaint for diminution of services with DHCR until December 2024 (see, Doc.18), and I am unaware of any complaints by Respondent to the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD"), the New York City Department of Buildings ("DOB"), or otherwise concerning these alleged conditions which purportedly led to his absenteeism until Respondent joined other occupants of the Building in filing an HP proceeding against Petitioner in April 2025.

26. In Petitioner's further investigation into Respondent's nonprimary residence,

Petitioner found that Respondent and his spouse, Amy Beth Gartrell, purchased properties in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. See, Ex. C (Respondent's apparent wedding registry which states, "We're lucky to already have an apartment full of everything we need, so please enjoy browsing our Honeyfund wish list, where you can contribute funds to our new home. It's a rowhouse in Pittsburgh - small but cute. We own the house outright, but need to do work on it to bring it up to code. Fortunately it's sound and doesn't need a roof or anything - just some renovation. We're doing a lot of work ourselves, (and hiring people where we can't.).")

27. Annexed hereto as Exhibit J is a true copy of a deed for 7483 and 7485 Delmar Way, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15218, dated October 27, 2020, and recorded November 16, 2020, conveying said parcels to Shiras P. Beckwith and Amy-Beth C. Gartrell as "joint tenants with the right of survivorship and not as tenants in common"; annexed hereto as Exhibit K is a true copy of a deed for 7487 Delmar Way, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15218, dated January 3, 2024, and recorded January 5, 2024, conveying said parcel to Shiras P. Beckwith and Amy-Beth C. Gartrell as "husband and wife."[2]

28. Additionally, Petitioner confirmed with the occupant of Apartment #2A of the Building across the hall from Respondent, Yousef Girgist Salama, that he has never observed Respondent living full-time in the Unit in his decades of tenancy of the Building, having only seen him a handful of times through the years, and obtained an affidavit from Mr. Salama to that effect sworn to on May 20, 2025, annexed hereto.

29. Thus, Petitioner's attorneys inform me that Petitioner has adduced ample evidentiary support and basis for the clearly defined allegations set forth in the Termination Notice

[2] While both deeds list the Apartment as both Respondent's and Amy Beth Gartrell's address, Petitioner maintains that neither live in the Apartment as their primary residence.

(Ex. F) and Petition (Ex. G), that Respondent does not use the Unit as his primary residence, and the Court should deny dismissal of this holdover proceeding.

30. Petitioner's attorneys further inform me that the Court should deny Respondent's wide-ranging request for years' worth of surveillance camera footage, metadata, and the like which "would necessarily amount to thousands of hours, requiring weeks to ensure meaningful review" (Doc.25, p.14), all "at Petitioner's sole expense" (Doc.25, p.3), as Respondent has failed to establish ample need for these overbroad, unduly burdensome demands which will cause untold prejudicial delay and allow Respondent to tailor his defense and testimony, particularly as it is unnecessary in light of the detailed InfoTech Report and Appendices thereto (Ex. I), which fully satisfy Respondent's discovery demands.

31. On the other hand, Petitioner's attorneys inform me that the Court should grant Petitioner's cross motion for discovery, as the facts concerning the extent and nature of Respondent's alleged occupancy of the Unit are particularly within his knowledge.

32. Therefore, Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court deny Respondent's motion in its entirety and grant Petitioner's cross motion in its entirety.

I affirm this 26th day of June 2025, under the penalties of perjury under the laws of New York, which may include a fine or imprisonment, that the foregoing is true, and I understand that this document may be filed in an action or proceeding in a court of law.

MINT TAN, hereby declares under the penalty of perjury and pursuant to CPLR §2106, as follows:

1. I am Director of Internal Operations for MGNY Consulting Corp. ("MGNY"), located on the ground floor of the building located at 109 East 9th Street, New York, New York 10003 (Tax Map Block: 555, Lot: 40) (the "Building"), and the statements in this affirmation are based upon my own personal knowledge, and, as such, I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances set forth herein. I submit the within affidavit:

(i) in opposition to the motion by Respondent Shiras Patterson Beckwith ("Respondent") (a) pursuant to CPLR §§3211(a)(2) and (7) to dismiss this proceeding; (b) pursuant to CPLR §3212 for summary judgment; or, in the alternative, (c) pursuant to CPLR §§408 and 3101, granting leave for Respondent to conduct discovery;

(ii) in support of Petitioner's cross-motion pursuant to CPLR §§408 and 3101, granting leave for Petitioner to conduct discovery; and

(iii) for such other, further, and different relief as the Court deems just, proper, and equitable.

2. On or about March 28, 2022, I was hired by MGNY and often assist Mr. Geylik with certain aspects of the operation of the Building on behalf of the Petitioner and, as such, I have become familiar with and known to the occupants of the Building.

3. I sit at a desk in front of a window next to the entrance door to the Building in MGNY's offices on the ground floor of the Building, as depicted in the photograph annexed hereto as Exhibit B, and, as such, am able to observe the occupants of the Building's comings and goings on a daily basis throughout the work week.

4. Over the years, I confirmed to Mr. Geylik that I rarely see Respondent at the Building – perhaps once or twice a month, seemingly checking mail or dropping off rent – in stark contrast to other occupants who I observe coming and going multiple times per day.

5. Therefore, it is my belief that Respondent does not reside in the Apartment as his "primary residence" or otherwise, and that no one resides in the Apartment on any ongoing permanent basis.

I affirm this 26 day of June 2025, under the penalties of perjury under the laws of New York, which may include a fine or imprisonment, that the foregoing is true, and I understand that this document may be filed in an action or proceeding in a court of law.

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF NEW YORK

COUNTY OF NEW YORK

I, Yousef Girgist Salama, being duly sworn, depose and state the following:

1. I reside at 50 Pennsylvania Avenue, Apartment 6GG, Brooklyn, NY 11207. This affidavit is addressed to 109E9, LLC, Attn: Michael Geylik.

2. I voluntarily applied for my current housing accommodation based solely on my own interest and decision. My previous landlord did not influence or facilitate my application in any way, whether through solicitation, referral, or any other means.

3. The only assistance I received from the office located on the ground floor of the building was limited to clerical support—specifically, printing and photocopying my application documents. At the time, I did not have personal access to a printer or photocopier.

4. To my knowledge, the area referred to as the "kitchen area" on the fourth floor has never been used as a functional kitchen or for cooking. It has only been used for storage and to house a refrigerator.

5. I have continuously resided in Apartment 2A of this building since 1999 Apartment 2E is located directly across a short hallway from my unit. When I am home, I often leave my apartment door open. During this time, I have not observed anyone residing full-time in Apartment 2E. I have only seen the individual associated with that unit a handful of times over the years, unlike other neighbors whom I see and interact with multiple times each week.

6. During my residency at 109 East 9th Street, there has not been a superintendent living on the premises, nor has there been a full-time or part-time porter or janitor assigned to the building.

I submit this affidavit to place these facts on the record for any lawful purpose. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

B. Original bills for water and/or sewer service will be mailed to the owner, at the property address or to an alternate mailing address. DEP will provide a duplicate copy of bills to one other party (such as a managing agent), however, any failure or delay by DEP in providing duplicate copies of bills shall in no way relieve the owner from his/her liability to pay all outstanding water and sewer charges. Greetings!

Hello friends and family,

We're lucky to already have an apartment full of everything we need, so please enjoy browsing our Honeyfund wish list, where you can contribute funds to our new home. It's a rowhouse in Pittsburgh - small but cute.

We own the house outright, but need to do work on it to bring it up to code. Fortunately it's sound and doesn't need a roof or anything - just some renovation. We're doing a lot of work ourselves, (and hiring people where we can't.)

We'll be putting in a new kitchen, flooring, and some tile; we're also painting and fixing things throughout the house. Feel free to contact us via the link below if you need more info about how it works or have any questions! Thanks for looking.

4. IF THIS UNIT IS SUBJECT TO ARTICLE 6-A OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW, KNOWN AS THE NEW YORK STATE GOOD CAUSE EVICTION LAW, AND THIS NOTICE SERVES TO INFORM A TENANT THAT THE LANDLORD IS NOT RENEWING A LEASE, WHAT IS THE GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT RENEWING THE LEASE?

(PLEASE MARK ALL APPLICABLE REASONS)

A. This unit is exempt from Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law, for the reasons stated in response to question 2, above (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):☒;

B. The tenant is receiving this notice in connection with a first lease or a renewal lease, so the landlord does not need to check any of the lawful reasons listed below for not renewing a lease under Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED)_____;

C. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the unit is sublet and the sublessor seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for their own personal use and occupancy (exemption under subdivision 3 of section 214 of the Real Property Law): _____;

D. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the possession, use or occupancy of the unit is solely incident to employment and the employment is being or has been lawfully terminated (exemption under subdivision 4 of section 214 of the Real Property Law):_____;

E. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to pay rent due and owing, and the rent due or owing, or any part thereof, did not result from a rent increase which is unreasonable. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph a of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

F. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is violating a substantial obligation of their tenancy or breaching any of the landlord's rules and regulations governing the premises, other than the obligation to surrender possession of the premises, and the tenant has failed to cure the violation after written notice that the violation must cease within 10 days of receipt of the written notice. For this good cause to apply, the obligation the tenant violated cannot be an obligation that was imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law. The landlord's rules or regulations that the tenant has violated also must be reasonable and have been accepted in writing by the tenant or made a part of the lease at the beginning of the lease term (good cause for eviction under paragraph b of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law): ☐

G. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is either (a) committing or permitting a nuisance on the unit or the premises; (b) maliciously or grossly negligently causing substantial damage to the unit or the premises; (c) interfering with the landlord's, another tenant's, or occupants of the same or an adjacent building or structure's comfort and safety (good cause for eviction under paragraph c of subdivision1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

H. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant's occupancy of the unit violates law, and the landlord is subject to civil or criminal penalties for continuing to let the tenant occupy the unit. For this good cause to apply, a state or municipal agency having jurisdiction must have issued an order requiring the tenant to vacate the unit. No tenant shall be removed from possession of a unit on this basis unless the court finds that the cure of the violation of law requires the removal of the tenant and that the landlord did not, through neglect or deliberate action or failure to act, create the condition necessitating the vacate order. If the landlord does not try to cure the conditions causing the violation of the law, the tenant has the right to pay or secure payment, in a manner satisfactory to the court, to cure the violation. Any tenant expenditures to cure the violation shall be applied against rent owed to the landlord. Even if removal of a tenant is absolutely essential to the tenant's health and safety, the tenant shall be entitled to resume possession at such time as the dangerous conditions have been removed. The tenant also retains the right to bring an action for monetary damages against the landlord or to otherwise compel the landlord to comply with all applicable state or municipal housing codes (good cause for eviction under paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):___;

I. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is using or permitting the unit or premises to be used for an illegal purpose (good cause for eviction under paragraph e of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

J. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the unit for the purposes of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law or for the purposes of showing the premises to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee, or other person with a legitimate interest in the premises (good cause for eviction under paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

K. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for the landlord's personal use and occupancy as the landlord's principal residence, or for the personal use and occupancy as a principal residence by the landlord's spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, step-parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, parent-in-law, or sibling-in-law. The landlord can only recover the unit for these purposes if there is no other suitable housing accommodation in the building that is available. Under no circumstances can the landlord recover the unit for these purposes if the tenant is: (a) 65 years old or older; or (b) a “disabled person" as defined in subdivision 6 of section 211 of the Real Property Law. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to recover possession of a housing accommodation for the uses described herein by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph g of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

L. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord in good faith seeks to demolish the housing accommodation. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to demolish the housing accommodation by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph h of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

M. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to withdraw the unit from the housing rental market. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to withdraw the unit from the rental housing market by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph i of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

N. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to agree to reasonable changes at lease renewal, including reasonable increases in rent, and the landlord gave written notice of the changes to the lease to the tenant at least 30 days, but no more than 90 days, before the current lease expired. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published by August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph j of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____.

4. IF THIS UNIT IS SUBJECT TO ARTICLE 6-A OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW, KNOWN AS THE NEW YORK STATE GOOD CAUSE EVICTION LAW, AND THIS NOTICE SERVES TO INFORM A TENANT THAT THE LANDLORD IS NOT RENEWING A LEASE, WHAT IS THE GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT RENEWING THE LEASE?

(PLEASE MARK ALL APPLICABLE REASONS)

A. This unit is exempt from Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law, for the reasons stated in response to question 2, above (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):☒;

B. The tenant is receiving this notice in connection with a first lease or a renewal lease, so the landlord does not need to check any of the lawful reasons listed below for not renewing a lease under Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED)_____;

C. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the unit is sublet and the sublessor seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for their own personal use and occupancy (exemption under subdivision 3 of section 214 of the Real Property Law): _____;

D. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the possession, use or occupancy of the unit is solely incident to employment and the employment is being or has been lawfully terminated (exemption under subdivision 4 of section 214 of the Real Property Law):_____;

E. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to pay rent due and owing, and the rent due or owing, or any part thereof, did not result from a rent increase which is unreasonable. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph a of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

F. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is violating a substantial obligation of their tenancy or breaching any of the landlord's rules and regulations governing the premises, other than the obligation to surrender possession of the premises, and the tenant has failed to cure the violation after written notice that the violation must cease within 10 days of receipt of the written notice. For this good cause to apply, the obligation the tenant violated cannot be an obligation that was imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law. The landlord's rules or regulations that the tenant has violated also must be reasonable and have been accepted in writing by the tenant or made a part of the lease at the beginning of the lease term (good cause for eviction under paragraph b of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law): ☐

G. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is either (a) committing or permitting a nuisance on the unit or the premises; (b) maliciously or grossly negligently causing substantial damage to the unit or the premises; (c) interfering with the landlord's, another tenant's, or occupants of the same or an adjacent building or structure's comfort and safety (good cause for eviction under paragraph c of subdivision1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

H. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant's occupancy of the unit violates law, and the landlord is subject to civil or criminal penalties for continuing to let the tenant occupy the unit. For this good cause to apply, a state or municipal agency having jurisdiction must have issued an order requiring the tenant to vacate the unit. No tenant shall be removed from possession of a unit on this basis unless the court finds that the cure of the violation of law requires the removal of the tenant and that the landlord did not, through neglect or deliberate action or failure to act, create the condition necessitating the vacate order. If the landlord does not try to cure the conditions causing the violation of the law, the tenant has the right to pay or secure payment, in a manner satisfactory to the court, to cure the violation. Any tenant expenditures to cure the violation shall be applied against rent owed to the landlord. Even if removal of a tenant is absolutely essential to the tenant's health and safety, the tenant shall be entitled to resume possession at such time as the dangerous conditions have been removed. The tenant also retains the right to bring an action for monetary damages against the landlord or to otherwise compel the landlord to comply with all applicable state or municipal housing codes (good cause for eviction under paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):___;

I. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is using or permitting the unit or premises to be used for an illegal purpose (good cause for eviction under paragraph e of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

J. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the unit for the purposes of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law or for the purposes of showing the premises to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee, or other person with a legitimate interest in the premises (good cause for eviction under paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

K. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for the landlord's personal use and occupancy as the landlord's principal residence, or for the personal use and occupancy as a principal residence by the landlord's spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, step-parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, parent-in-law, or sibling-in-law. The landlord can only recover the unit for these purposes if there is no other suitable housing accommodation in the building that is available. Under no circumstances can the landlord recover the unit for these purposes if the tenant is: (a) 65 years old or older; or (b) a “disabled person" as defined in subdivision 6 of section 211 of the Real Property Law. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to recover possession of a housing accommodation for the uses described herein by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph g of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

L. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord in good faith seeks to demolish the housing accommodation. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to demolish the housing accommodation by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph h of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

M. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to withdraw the unit from the housing rental market. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to withdraw the unit from the rental housing market by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph i of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

N. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to agree to reasonable changes at lease renewal, including reasonable increases in rent, and the landlord gave written notice of the changes to the lease to the tenant at least 30 days, but no more than 90 days, before the current lease expired. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published by August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph j of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____.

4. IF THIS UNIT IS SUBJECT TO ARTICLE 6-A OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW, KNOWN AS THE NEW YORK STATE GOOD CAUSE EVICTION LAW, AND THIS NOTICE SERVES TO INFORM A TENANT THAT THE LANDLORD IS NOT RENEWING A LEASE, WHAT IS THE GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT RENEWING THE LEASE?

(PLEASE MARK ALL APPLICABLE REASONS)

A. This unit is exempt from Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law, for the reasons stated in response to question 2, above (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED):☒;

B. The tenant is receiving this notice in connection with a first lease or a renewal lease, so the landlord does not need to check any of the lawful reasons listed below for not renewing a lease under Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law (IF THIS ANSWER IS CHECKED, NO OTHER ANSWERS TO THIS QUESTION SHOULD BE CHECKED)_____;

C. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the unit is sublet and the sublessor seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for their own personal use and occupancy (exemption under subdivision 3 of section 214 of the Real Property Law): _____;

D. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the possession, use or occupancy of the unit is solely incident to employment and the employment is being or has been lawfully terminated (exemption under subdivision 4 of section 214 of the Real Property Law):_____;

E. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to pay rent due and owing, and the rent due or owing, or any part thereof, did not result from a rent increase which is unreasonable. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published not later than August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph a of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

F. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is violating a substantial obligation of their tenancy or breaching any of the landlord's rules and regulations governing the premises, other than the obligation to surrender possession of the premises, and the tenant has failed to cure the violation after written notice that the violation must cease within 10 days of receipt of the written notice. For this good cause to apply, the obligation the tenant violated cannot be an obligation that was imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of Article 6-A of the Real Property Law, known as the New York State Good Cause Eviction Law. The landlord's rules or regulations that the tenant has violated also must be reasonable and have been accepted in writing by the tenant or made a part of the lease at the beginning of the lease term (good cause for eviction under paragraph b of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law): ☐

G. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is either (a) committing or permitting a nuisance on the unit or the premises; (b) maliciously or grossly negligently causing substantial damage to the unit or the premises; (c) interfering with the landlord's, another tenant's, or occupants of the same or an adjacent building or structure's comfort and safety (good cause for eviction under paragraph c of subdivision1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

H. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant's occupancy of the unit violates law, and the landlord is subject to civil or criminal penalties for continuing to let the tenant occupy the unit. For this good cause to apply, a state or municipal agency having jurisdiction must have issued an order requiring the tenant to vacate the unit. No tenant shall be removed from possession of a unit on this basis unless the court finds that the cure of the violation of law requires the removal of the tenant and that the landlord did not, through neglect or deliberate action or failure to act, create the condition necessitating the vacate order. If the landlord does not try to cure the conditions causing the violation of the law, the tenant has the right to pay or secure payment, in a manner satisfactory to the court, to cure the violation. Any tenant expenditures to cure the violation shall be applied against rent owed to the landlord. Even if removal of a tenant is absolutely essential to the tenant's health and safety, the tenant shall be entitled to resume possession at such time as the dangerous conditions have been removed. The tenant also retains the right to bring an action for monetary damages against the landlord or to otherwise compel the landlord to comply with all applicable state or municipal housing codes (good cause for eviction under paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):___;

I. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant is using or permitting the unit or premises to be used for an illegal purpose (good cause for eviction under paragraph e of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

J. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the unit for the purposes of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law or for the purposes of showing the premises to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee, or other person with a legitimate interest in the premises (good cause for eviction under paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

K. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the unit for the landlord's personal use and occupancy as the landlord's principal residence, or for the personal use and occupancy as a principal residence by the landlord's spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, step-parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, parent-in-law, or sibling-in-law. The landlord can only recover the unit for these purposes if there is no other suitable housing accommodation in the building that is available. Under no circumstances can the landlord recover the unit for these purposes if the tenant is: (a) 65 years old or older; or (b) a “disabled person" as defined in subdivision 6 of section 211 of the Real Property Law. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to recover possession of a housing accommodation for the uses described herein by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph g of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

L. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord in good faith seeks to demolish the housing accommodation. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to demolish the housing accommodation by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph h of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____;

M. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the landlord seeks in good faith to withdraw the unit from the housing rental market. To establish this good cause in an eviction proceeding, the landlord must establish good faith to withdraw the unit from the rental housing market by clear and convincing evidence (good cause for eviction under paragraph i of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):☐;

N. The landlord is not renewing the lease because the tenant has failed to agree to reasonable changes at lease renewal, including reasonable increases in rent, and the landlord gave written notice of the changes to the lease to the tenant at least 30 days, but no more than 90 days, before the current lease expired. A rent increase is presumptively unreasonable if the increase from the prior rent is greater than the lower of: (a) 5 percent plus the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for all items as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as published by August 1st of each year by the Division of Housing and Community Renewal; or (b) 10 percent (good cause for eviction under paragraph j of subdivision 1 of section 216 of the Real Property Law):_____.

3. The predicate notice alleges that Mr. Beckwith receives faculty housing through the City College of New York, his employer, at 401 W 130th St.
4. 401 West 130th Street, a/k/a "The Towers" is a residence hall for students of City College of New York.
5. Upon information and belief, eligibility for housing at "the Towers" is premised on active student enrollment at City College of New York, and no housing at the Towers is available to anyone not currently enrolled as student (i.e. CUNY faculty).
6. Upon representation of the City College of New York's Human Resources Department, the City College of New York does not offer faculty housing of any kind.
7. Mr. Beckwith's primary address, per the City College of New York's Human Resources Department, is 109 East 9th Street, Apt 2E, New York, NY 10003.

8. Therefore, as Petitioner fails to establish that Mr. Beckwith maintains a primary residence at 401 West 130th Street or at any other location besides the subject premises, the proceeding must be dismissed for failure to state a claim.

SECOND DEFENSE OR OBJECTION IN POINT OF LAW
Failure to State a Claim

9. The Subject Premises is a hotel dwelling subject to the Rent Stabilization Law, as defined by the Rent Stabilization Code (RSC) codified 9 New York Code of Rules and Regulations (NYCRR) § 2520.6(b).
10. Pursuant to RSC § 2522.5 (a)(2), where a hotel accommodation is rented to an occupant who has never had a lease, the occupant may request a lease of six months or longer at any time.
11. Pursuant to that regulation, the Owner must offer the occupant a lease within fifteen days. The occupant who requests such a lease "becomes a permanent tenant" and an Owner shall not refuse to grant the lease in order to prevent an occupant from becoming a permanent tenant, except where permitted due to a warrant of eviction, lawful court order, or a governmental vacate order.
12. Mr. Beckwith is the long-time occupant of apartment 2E at 109 East 9th Street, and, upon information and belief, has never had a lease to his apartment.
13. On February 1, 2025, Mr. Beckwith sent a formal written request for a lease to Petitioner by certified mail to Petitioner's business address, which (per USPS records) was delivered to an agent of the Owner on February 6, 2025.
14. At the time that this request was sent, and through the present date, there are no warrants, court orders, or governmental vacate orders relevant to the Premises which would excuse

Petitioner from its obligations to issue Mr. Beckwith a lease as a permanent tenant of the apartment.

15. Petitioner did not respond to this request within fifteen days, or anytime thereafter.
16. Notwithstanding, Petitioner's failure to respond, Mr. Beckwith became a permanent tenant, as defined by RSC § 2520.6(j) by operation of his lawful request. RSC § 2522.5 (a)(2).
17. Mr. Beckwith's tenancy, created on or around February 6, 2025, has not been terminated pursuant to a 90-150 day notice of termination.
18. Therefore, Petitioner fails to state a claim upon which relief can be sought, as Mr. Beckwith remains a permanent tenant of his apartment at the time of his Answer.

THIRD DEFENSE OR OBJECTION IN POINT OF LAW
Unclean Hands

19. The doctrine of "unclean hands" is an equitable defense wherein a Party may not receive the benefit of a legal claim where the basis of that claim is a direct or indirect result of his or her own misconduct.
20. To the extent that Mr. Beckwith spent reduced time at the subject premises, this change was primarily or solely due to Petitioner's conduct, which substantially reduced the habitability and comfort of Respondent's home.
21. Among other misconduct, Petitioner failed to provide heat at the building for two consecutive winters in 2022 and 2023.
22. In or around October and November 2022, Petitioner removed multiple toilet facilities and a bathing facility from the building, including the toilet located on Mr. Beckwith's floor, the bathing facility and toilet on the floor above Mr. Beckwith's apartment, and the building's sole kitchen.

23. As a result of Petitioner's conduct, Mr. Beckwith was unable to cook hot meals at home, and had to stumble down a sloping and poorly maintained stairwell late in the evening in order to access the nearest toilet in the building. A single shower was shared by all seven occupants or tenants of the building.

24. Due to a building-wide lack of janitorial services at the building, the sole shower and toilet on the building's first residential floor was maintained in unsantitary condition throughout this period. As a result, Mr. Beckwith frequently relied on friends and family for hot showers throughout this period.

25. Upon information and belief, Petitioner claimed that it would restore and upgrade the bathroom and kitchen facilities upon receipt of a Certificate of No Harassment approval from HPD. However, since receiving this approval in March, 2024, Petitioner has taken no steps to restore these facilities.

26. While Mr. Beckwith asserts that he has maintained full occupancy of his apartment during the relevant period, to the extent that he spent reduced hours at the building, particularly during winters without heat and following removal of the kitchen, bathroom, and bathing facilities throughout the building, Petitioner should not be permitted to benefit from its failure to maintain essential services and facilities to the building in this proceeding.

27. Therefore, the proceeding must be dismissed pursuant to the equitable doctrine of unclean hands.

FIRST COUNTERCLAIM
Tenant Harassment

28. Petitioner has engaged in tenant harassment, within the meaning of NYC Admin Code 27-2004(a)(48), in violation of NYC Admin Code 27-2005(d).

29. Presently, the Premises is subject to an ongoing inquiry by NYC HPD's Certificate of No Harassment Unit, resulting in suspension of Petitioner's previously-granted CONH based on a finding of probable cause that Petitioner harassed Respondent and his neighbors.

30. Since July 2021, Petitioner's harassing conduct vis a vis Respondent has included:

    a. removing common area kitchens, bathing facilities, and toilets serving tenants in the building, including Respondent;

    b. locking Respondent and other tenants out of the common garbage disposal area;

    c. knowingly providing false information as to a material fact regarding the current occupancy or the rent-stabilization status of a building on an application or construction documents for a permit for work which is to be performed in the building, as defined by HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (a-2);

    d. repeated interruptions or discontinuances of heat and other essential services, as defined HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (b)-(b-1);

    e. repeatedly engaging in work which requires a permit without first obtaining a permit to do so, in violation of HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (b-4);

    f. revoking license to store property and removing Respondent's property from the common areas of the building, as defined by HMC § 27-2004 (a) (48) (e);

    g. engaging in unsafe and unpermitted construction at the premises, including demolishing floors and ceilings in untenanted apartments and common areas;

    h. repeatedly refusing to accept rent from Respondent for months at a time;

    i. failing to issue Respondent a lease within fifteen days of request pursuant to Rent Stabilization Code § 2520.6(j) and § 2522.5(a)(2);

    j. failing to issue required notices regarding the rights of hotel tenants to Respondent pursuant to § 2522.5(c);

k. repeatedly questioning Respondent regarding his occupancy at the building in a manner intended to harass;

l. Repeatedly expressly and impliedly conveying a disregard for tenant safety, well-being, and ongoing occupancy at the building.

31. Additionally, the instant proceeding is part and parcel of Petitioner's ongoing harassing conduct. Petitioner's allegations that Respondent resides in a student dormitory—based circumstantially upon his employment by the college which operates that dormitory—is patently frivolous conduct designed solely to harass Respondent to surrender his rights of occupancy.

32. As the above-described conduct rises to the level of harassment as defined by the Housing Maintenance Code, Respondent seeks all available relief pursuant to § 27-2005(d), § 27-2115(m) and (o).

WHEREFORE, Respondent seeks an Order:

(a) Dismissing the proceeding with prejudice for failure to state a claim;

(b) Ordering Petitioner to issue Respondent a lease of six months or longer, pursuant to RSC 2522.5(a)(2);

(c) finding that Petitioner has harassed Respondent in violation of HMC § 27-2005 (d);

(d) enjoining Petitioner from further violating HMC § 27-2005 (d);

(e) finding that a class C immediately hazardous violation existed at the premises, pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (m)(1);

(f) imposing a civil penalty on Petitioner of no less than $2,000 and no more than $10,000 for each violation of HMC § 27-2005 (d), pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (m)(2);

(g) awarding Respondent compensatory damages or, at his election, statutory damages of $1,000 for each Petitioner subject to a violation of HMC § 27-2005 (d), pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (o);

(h) awarding Respondent reasonable fees and costs, pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (o);

(i) awarding Respondent punitive damages of up to $10,000, pursuant to HMC § 27-2115 (o).

4 RECORDING INTEGRITY VERIFICATION

4.1 Motion-Based Recording Integrity:

- 4.1.1 Continuous Monitoring: While the system only saves footage when motion is detected, the camera continuously monitors for motion 24/7 without interruption.
- 4.1.2 Sequential Metadata: Each recorded video file contains:
- 4.1.3 Precise start and end timestamps
- 4.1.4 Sequential file identifiers
- 4.1.5 Camera identifier

5.4.1 The Axis system records and flags any interruptions in camera connectivity

5.4.2 System power events are logged with timestamps

5.4.3 Storage device status and integrity are continuously monitored

6.1.1 Resolution: Up to 1080p (1920x1080)

6.1.2 Motion Detection: Advanced motion detection algorithm with adjustable sensitivity

6.1.3 Storage Format: Video clips stored in Advanced Systems Format (.asf) with embedded digital signatures

6.1.4 Low-Light Performance: 0.25 lux minimum illumination, enabling clear subject identification even in the stairwell's limited lighting

7 VERIFICATION PROCESS FOR COMPLETE RECORDING SET

7.1 The 47,390 video files analyzed in this investigation represent all motion events captured by the system during the analysis period. We can verify that no recordings were deleted or tampered with through:

7.1.1 File Sequence Integrity: The sequential file naming convention (e.g., "2023-06-03 09_18_25_815" followed by "2023-06-03 09_18_25_815") allows verification of complete sequences

7.1.2 Timestamp Analysis: Statistical analysis of recording patterns confirms expected distribution of motion events

7.1.3 System Logs: Examination of system logs shows no unexplained gaps in recording activity

7.1.4 Digital Signatures: All 47,390 files passed digital signature verification using Axis File Signature Tool, confirming they are original and unaltered

7.1.5 Metadata Continuity: Analysis of embedded metadata confirms continuous system operation throughout the surveillance period

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Petitioner[1] respectfully submits this memorandum of law: (i) in opposition to Respondent's motion (a) pursuant to CPLR §§3211(a)(2) and (7) to dismiss this non-primary residence holdover proceeding; (b) pursuant to CPLR §3212 for summary judgment; or, in the alternative, (c) pursuant to CPLR §§408 and 3101, granting leave for Respondent to conduct discovery; and (ii) in support of Petitioner's cross-motion pursuant to CPLR §§408 and 3101, granting leave for Petitioner to conduct discovery.

Respondent's motion should be denied in its entirety, as Petitioner's Termination Notice and Petition adequately apprise Respondent of the basis for its allegations that Respondent does not reside in the Unit as his primary residence, including as amplified by Petitioner's submissions herein. Indeed, Petitioner's allegations were specific enough not merely to allow Respondent to formulate a defense but evidently provided him with sufficient basis to move for summary judgment in his favor. However, Respondent wholly failed to meet his burden to tender sufficient evidence in admissible form to demonstrate the absence of any material issues of fact as to his primary residence or to otherwise warrant dismissal of this non-primary residence holdover proceeding.

In contrast, Petitioner not only demonstrates – at minimum – the existence of material issues of fact, but also ample need for discovery as set forth in Petitioner's Notice of Discovery and Inspection (Ex. L), Petitioner's Judicial Subpoena Duces Tecum (Ex. M), Petitioner's Notice of Deposition Upon Oral Examination (Ex. N), and Petitioner's Judicial Subpoena Ad Testificandum (Ex. O).

[1] The capitalized/defined terms used herein have the same meaning as ascribed to them in the annexed Affirmation in Opposition to Respondent's Motion and in Support of Petitioner's Cross-Motion of M. David Fonseca, Esq., incorporated herein by reference.

Furthermore, the Court should deny Respondent's overbroad, unduly burdensome requests for discovery, as Respondent has failed to demonstrate "ample need" therefor, but particularly given that Petitioner's submissions herein, including the InfoTactic Report and Appendices thereto (Ex. I), fully satisfy Respondent's discovery demands.

Therefore, Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court deny Respondent's motion in its entirety, and grant Petitioner's cross-motion in its entirety, with such other, further, and different relief as deemed just, proper, and equitable.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Court is respectfully referred to the Affirmation in Opposition to Respondent's Motion and in Support of Petitioner's Cross-Motion of M. David Fonseca, Esq., the Geylik Affirmation, Tan Affirmation, the Salama Affidavit, as well as the Exhibits thereto, all of which are incorporated herein by reference, for the facts relevant herein.

ARGUMENT

POINT I: RESPONDENT'S MOTION SHOULD BE DENIED IN ITS ENTIRETY

A. Respondent's Motion to Dismiss Must Be Denied as the Termination Notice is Reasonable in the Attendant Circumstances

It is well-settled that, "[i]n evaluating the facial sufficiency of a predicate notice in a summary eviction proceeding, the appropriate test is one of reasonableness in view of the attendant circumstances (see Hughes v Lenox Hill Hosp., 226 AD2d 4, 18, 651 NYS2d 418 [1996]), lv denied 90 NY2d 829, 683 NE2d 17, 660 NYS2d 552 [1997])." Oxford Towers Co., LLC v. Leites, 41 A.D.3d 144, 144-145 (1st Dept. 2007).

"A predicate notice in a holdover summary proceeding need not lay bare a landlord's trial proof, and will be upheld in the face of a 'jurisdictional' challenge where, as here, the notice is 'as a whole sufficient adequately to advise … tenant and to permit it to frame a defense' (Rascoff/Zsyblat Org., Inc. v Directors Guild of Am., Inc., 297 A.D.2d 241, 242, 746 N.Y.S.2d 388 [2002]; see, Hughes v Lenox Hill Hosp., 226 A.D.2d 4, 18, 651 N.Y.S.2d 418 [1996], lv dismissed in part and denied in part 90 N.Y.2d 829, 683 N.E.2d 17, 660 N.Y.S.2d 552 [1997])." McGoldrick v. DeCruz, 195 Misc. 2d 414, 415-416 (App. Term 1st Dept. 2003).

Here, the Termination Notice amply sets forth case specific allegations tending to support Petitioner's non-primary residence claim sufficient to satisfy the requirements of the Rent Stabilization Code. Specifically, the Termination Notice alleged that agents for Petitioner had not seen Respondent occupying the Unit as his primary residence for an extended period, and that Petitioner's agents and security cameras only observed Respondent visiting the Unit "once or twice a month," to "check the mail and drop off rent check, with each visit lasting approximately fifteen minutes." See, Ex. F; Geylik Affirmation; Tan Affirmation. Additionally, Petitioner stated its reasonable allegation that, based upon Respondent's full-time employment by CCNY, he may have been provided with faculty housing. See, Ex. F; Geylik Affirmation. The Termination Notice further alleged that Respondent received mail addressed to Amy Beth Gartrell at the Unit, although she does not reside there – indicating that not only Respondent but also his spouse were improperly using the Unit as a mere mailing address. See, Ex. D; Ex. F; Geylik Affirmation. Thus, "[m]easured against the test of reasonableness, the notice used here was facially sufficient, as it fairly stated the nature of petitioner landlord's claim and the facts necessary to establish the existence of grounds for eviction." Oxford Towers Co., 41 A.D.3d at 144-145; 45th St. Assocs. v. Spence, 180 Misc. 2d 93, 94 (App. Term 1st Dept. 1999).

Indeed, "[t]hat the notice meaningfully apprised tenant of the factual underpinnings of the landlord's nonprimary residence claim was confirmed by tenant's own moving papers, which included a detailed affidavit addressing the merits of the litigation and, further, requesting that the court … grant tenant summary dismissal of the holdover petition." Second 82nd Corp. v Veiders, 34 Misc. 3d 130(A), 130A (App. Term 1st Dept. 2011). Respondent herein has not only moved to dismiss the Petition, but has affirmatively moved for summary judgment, annexing alleged proof of his "residence" and acknowledging and trying to explain away his apparent absence from the Unit for essentially the entire duration of Petitioner's ownership of the Building. See, Doc.11.

While Respondent makes much of Petitioner's purported failure to specify an apartment within the CCNY building where Respondent may alternatively reside, "the notice was not 'unreasonable' or 'misleading in [its] omission' because it specified only a single alternate address as tenant's alleged primary residence… 'Absolute synchronicity with the evidence ultimately developed at trial is not required.' (Seventh FGP v Yee, NYLJ, July 13, 2001, at 18, cols 1, 2 [App Term, 1st Dept], lv denied 2001 N.Y. App. Div. LEXIS 9218 [1st Dept].)" Rocky 116 L.L.C. v. Weston, 195 Misc. 2d 363, 364-365 (App. Term 1st Dept. 2003); see also, 184-188 Claremont Invs., LLC v Nelson, 46 Misc. 3d 148(A), 148A (App. Term 1st Dept. 2015) ("Nor was landlord required to prove that tenant had a specific alternative primary residence elsewhere, particularly where as here, tenant is shown to spend considerable amounts of time at several different locales." (internal quotations, citations omitted)); Nugarese, Inc. v Martinez, 66 Misc. 3d 1216(A), *21-22 (Bronx Co. Civ. Ct. 2020).

"Nor is a basis for summary dismissal of the proceeding found in tenant's (unsubstantiated) assertion that the allegations set forth in the notice were 'factually untrue' (see Rocky 116 L.L.C. v Weston, 195 Misc. 2d at 365)." 449 Second Corp. v. Napoli, 12 Misc. 3d 135(A), 135A (App. Term 1st Dept. 2006); see also, Budhu v Castro, 34 Misc. 3d 36, 37 (App. Term 1st Dept. 2011) ("While the trial court voiced a concern over the good faith basis of some of the 'sweeping claims' advanced in landlord's termination notice, the appropriate remedy, if any, for any material falsehoods that may be contained in the notice would be the imposition of rule 130 (22 NYCRR 130-1.1) sanctions, not outright dismissal of the proceeding.").

In sum, Respondent's:

> inchoate defense in no way renders the predicate notice facially defect, particularly on a CPLR 3211(a)(7) motion '[w]here [once] evidentiary material is submitted...the question becomes whether the [petitioner] has a cause of action, not whether the [petitioner] has stated one and, unless it has been shown that a material fact as claimed by the [petitioner] to be one is not a fact at all and unless it can be said that no significant dispute exists regarding it, dismissal should not eventuate' (Fenton v Floce Holdings, LLC, 229 AD3d 768 [2d Dept 2024]).

Greenport Preserv. LP v. Bennett, 2024 NY Slip Op 33494(U), *3-4 (Civ. Ct. Queens Co. 2024). Where, as here, the allegations of non-primary residence in the Termination Notice are amply supported by Petitioner's submissions herein showing the Respondent's prolonged and sustained absence from the Unit – including the Geylik Affirmation, Tan Affirmation, Salama Affidavit, InfoTactic Report and Appendices thereto (Ex. I) – and where Respondent admits to traveling and otherwise being absent from the Unit, it cannot be said that the material facts alleged by Petitioner are not facts at all.

Therefore, because the Termination Notice, measured against the standard of reasonableness, fairly apprised Respondent of the facts underlying this non-primary residence holdover proceeding, including as buttressed by Petitioner's submissions hereto, the Court should deny the branch of Respondent's motion to dismiss pursuant to CPLR §§3211(a)(2) and (7) in its entirety.

B. Respondent's Motion for Summary Judgment Must Be Denied as there are Material Questions of Fact

It is axiomatic that "[t]he proponent of a summary judgment motion must make a prima facie showing of entitlement to judgment as a matter of law, tendering sufficient evidence to eliminate any material issues of fact from the case. Failure to make such showing requires denial of the motion, regardless of the sufficiency of the opposing papers." Winegrad v. N.Y. Univ. Med. Ctr., 64 N.Y.2d 851, 853 (1985) (internal citations omitted).

"On a motion for summary judgment, facts must be viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party," Vega v Restani Constr. Corp., 18 N.Y.3d 499, 503 (2012) (quotation, citation omitted), and "the motion court should draw all reasonable inferences in favor of the nonmoving party in determining whether to grant summary judgment." F. Garofalo Elec. Co. v. N.Y. Univ., 300 A.D.2d 186, 188 (2002) (citation omitted). "The court's role, in passing on a motion for summary judgment, is solely to determine if any triable issues exist, not to determine the merits of any such issues…. Should it appear from affidavits submitted in opposition to the motion that facts essential to justify opposition may exist but cannot then be stated, the court may deny the motion or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or disclosure to be had and may make such other order as may be just.").

Respondent has wholly failed to satisfy his burden of proof on his motion for summary judgment, as the "record is woefully lacking…customary indicia of continuous residence," and "is most certainly insufficient to establish the 'ongoing, substantial, physical nexus with the controlled premises for actual living purposes--which can be demonstrated by objective, empirical evidence' (Emay Props. Corp. v Norton, 136 Misc. 2d 127, 129, 519 N.Y.S.2d 90 [App Term, 1st Dept])." Cox v. J.D. Realty Assocs., 217 A.D.2d 179, 184 (1st Dept. 1995). Even assuming, arguendo, that Respondent does not reside in CCNY housing,[2] Respondent has presented scant evidence in support of his claim that the Unit is and has been his primary residence for over twenty (20) years, which does not stand in the face of Petitioner's submissions herein – even before obtaining discovery.

[2] Again, Petitioner is not required to categorically prove at this, or any juncture, where Respondent does in fact primarily reside – it must merely ultimately establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the Unit is not his primary residence within the meaning of the RSC, as "[a]ny perceived uncertainty as to which of the alternate addresses shown to be used by tenant actually constituted [his] principal residence should not serve to deprive the landlord of its possessory remedy on nonprimary residence grounds otherwise firmly established at trial." Emel Realty Corp. v. Carey, 188 Misc. 2d 280, 281-283 (1st Dept. 2001); see also, 184-188 Claremont Invs., LLC v Nelson, 46 Misc. 3d 148(A); Rocky 116 L.L.C. v. Weston, 195 Misc. 2d at 364-365.

While Respondent annexes various documents to his motion, including: a driver's license issued in 2020 (Doc.12), single-page redacted federal tax filings and W-2 forms (Doc.13), a voter registration (Doc.14), jury summons (Doc.15), and letter verifying his address on file with his employer (Doc.16), these documents do not constitute objective, empirical evidence that Respondent actively uses the Unit for dwelling purposes, but rather merely evidence that Respondent has not officially registered a change of address on certain filings and maintains exclusive access to the mailbox for the Unit in the Building. See, Nugarese, Inc. v Martinez, 66 Misc. 3d 1216(A), *20-21 (Bronx Co. Civ. Ct. 2020).

In Nugarese, 66 Misc. 3d 1216(A), *20-21, the Court found the respondent's documentary evidence of residence at the subject apartment "scant, consisting of just five items dating back no more than two or three years prior to the commencement of this proceeding," and of "little or no probative value," noting that:

> While the law is clear that it is appropriate for this court to examine the entire history of the tenancy, Respondent presented very little evidence to illustrate the history of her tenancy…. Given Respondent's exclusive access to the mailbox for Apartment B-5, there was no reason for her to change her mailing address…. Under these circumstances, the few pieces of mail and other documents addressed to Respondent in Apartment B-5 in the years of 2015 through 2017 do not constitute proof that she lived there.
> (citation omitted).

Notably absent from Respondent's motion are any indicia that the Unit or the neighboring area are the nexus of his day-to-day life and have been for decades, such as receipts, banking, or credit card records showing Respondent frequenting businesses in the area or receiving deliveries to the Unit; affidavits from his spouse, friends, or neighbors attesting to his primary residence at the Unit; actual voting records, not a mere registration; bills or statements showing the Unit as his address; correspondence addressed to him at the Unit, or otherwise. Respondent centrally never alleges that he actually resides in the Unit, including overnight—he merely alleges he has "repeatedly visited the apartment, not just to check mail but also to do work from home (including work meetings and calls), visit with or have a meal with friends, run errands, clean, read books, watch television, and carry out other daily tasks." Doc.11, par.29.

This paucity of documentary or other evidence of Respondent's supposed twenty-plus year tenancy of the Unit buttresses Petitioner's detailed InfoTactic Report showing Respondent's years'-long failure to primarily reside in the Unit. See, Ex. I. Indeed, the InfoTactic Report shows that Respondent was at the Unit far, far less than "an aggregate of less than 183 days in the most recent calendar year," 9 NYCRR §2520.6(u)(3), or in any year since Petitioner purchased the Building. To wit, in a three (3) year span from December 5, 2021 through December 13, 2024, Respondent was seen at the Building on a total of one hundred twenty-four (124) days out of more than one thousand total days of footage reviewed, broken down as: (i) four (4) days in December 2021; (ii) forty-eight (48) days in 2022; (iii) forty-six (46) days in 2023; and (iv) twenty-six (26) days in 2024. See, Ex. I, par. 6.1, Appendix C. The InfoTactic Report further details that Respondent's rare visits were also brief, often lasting mere minutes and at most mere hours, and shows that Respondent seemingly never resided in the Unit overnight. See, Ex. I, Appendix C. The InfoTactic Report concluded that Respondent was absent from the residence for approximately 98.7% of the total time period analyzed. Ex. I, pars. 6.3, 6.4, 8.1, 9.4.

Evidently aware that the security cameras at the Building will definitively show that Respondent does not dwell in the Unit as his primary residence,[3] Respondent attempts to explain away his apparent absence from the Unit for essentially the entire duration of Petitioner's ownership of the Building, with claims of work and/or vacation travel, including a fellowship from Fall 2021 through Spring 2022 (Doc.11, pars.14-20); then that, following his supposed return, in or about Fall 2022, the Building's conditions became such that he "began spending more nights with friends and family, where [he] could cook a hot meal, take a shower without added inconvenience, and have access to functional heat during the winters." Doc.11, par.28. Notably, however, Respondent did not file a complaint for diminution of services with DHCR until December 2024 (see, Doc.18), and does not allege he made any complaints to HPD, the DOB, or otherwise concerning these alleged conditions which purportedly led to his absenteeism until joining other occupants of the Building in filing an HP proceeding against Petitioner in April 2025. See, Doc.17. Thus, Respondent's attempts to explain away his limited use of the Unit based upon his loosely alleged constructive eviction theory should be rejected by this Court. See, Emel Realty Corp. v. Carey, 188 Misc. 2d 280, 281-282 (1st Dept. 2001).

Additionally rebutting Respondent's attempted prima facie showing of primary residence are the sworn statements submitted by Petitioner herein, including the Geylik Affirmation, Tan Affirmation, and Salama Affidavit in which Petitioner's managing agent, as well as Respondent's neighbors, aver that Respondent is rarely seen at the Building – approximately once or twice per month – and never on a full-time basis. Furthermore, although it has not yet had the opportunity to conduct discovery, Petitioner has uncovered evidence that Respondent and his spouse purchased and were renovating adjoining properties in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania as their "new home." See, Ex. C, Ex's J, K. Thus, Petitioner has clearly raised material questions of fact as to the nature and extent of Respondent's alleged occupancy of the Unit. See, Goldman v. Massie, 15 Misc. 3d 138(A), 138A (App. Term 1st Dept. 2007); Goldman v. Downey, 13 Misc. 3d 128(A), 128A (App. Term 1st Dept. 2006); 423 Madison Ave., LLC v. Blum, 9 Misc. 3d 129(A), 129A (App. Term 1st Dept. 2005). 167 W. 80th St. LLC v Boucicaut, 2015 NY Slip Op 31674(U), *7-9.

Respondent's scant evidence and admittedly intermittent use of the Unit as a mere convenience or workspace demonstrate a "limited occupancy of the subject studio apartment [that does] not constitute the type of ongoing, substantial physical nexus with the controlled premises for actual living purposes that would justify affording the tenancy continued protection under the rent stabilization laws." Rocky 116 L.L.C. v. Weston, 195 Misc. 2d 363, 364-365 (App. Term 1st Dept. 2003) (internal quotations, citation omitted).

As such, this Court should deny that branch of Respondent's motion seeking summary judgment, as the "evidence contained in the pre-discovery record before us, including the tenant's acknowledgment that he regularly travels… and the sworn allegations of landlord's building personnel that tenant is rarely 'encountered' in the seven-unit… building premises, was insufficient to establish as a matter of law that tenant primarily resides in the subject apartment (see People v. Kola, 156 A.D.2d 187, 548 N.Y.S.2d 443 [1989]; Tulip Apts., Inc. v Sullivan, 8 Misc. 3d 126A [A], 2005 NY Slip Op 50900[U] [App Term, 1st Dept])." 423 Madison Ave., LLC v. Blum, 9 Misc. 3d 129(A).

C. Respondent's Motion Seeking Leave to Conduct Discovery Should be Denied in its Entirety as Respondent has No "Ample Need" for Disclosure

Respondent's request for leave to conduct discovery should be denied in its entirety. Although Respondent is indisputably in unique possession of the knowledge and evidence to support his claim that the Unit is his primary residence, Respondent nevertheless argues he is entitled to sweeping discovery of, inter alia, "complete and unredacted surveillance footage from every surveillance camera installed at the Subject Premises, including nonresidential and commercial tenant spaces and common areas or stairwells from 2021-present," (Doc.22) which "would necessarily amount to thousands of hours, requiring weeks to ensure meaningful review of the evidence," (Doc.25, p.14), as well as detailed records pertaining to minutia of each camera and recording as embodied in Respondent's "Notice to Produce Documents and Video" (Doc.22) and "Demand for Interrogatories." Doc.23.

However, Respondent has wholly "failed to demonstrate 'ample need' for disclosure in this nonprimary residence summary proceeding regarding information relating to landlord's knowledge of tenants' alleged nonprimary residence at the premises (New York Life Ins. Co. v Durcekova, NYLJ, Dec. 1, 1998, at 25, col 2 [App Term, 1st Dept.]; Kev Realty Co. Inc. v Goldfarb, NYLJ, Nov. 18, 1993, at 29, col 6 [App Term, 1st Dept.]; see New York Univ. v Farkas, 121 Misc. 2d 643, 647, 468 N.Y.S.2d 808 [1983])." Valor Realty LLC v Ragno, 26 Misc. 3d 132(A), 132A (App. Term 1st Dept. 2010); see also, W 148 LLC v McCracken, 59 Misc. 3d 143(A), *1 (App. Term 1st Dept. 2018); Ludor Props. L.L.C. v De Brito, 48 Misc. 3d 142(A), *1 (App. Term 1st Dept. 2015).

While Respondent does a salutary recitation of the elements to establish "ample need" for disclosure under CPLR §408 in a summary proceeding established in New York University v. Farkas, 121 Misc. 2d 643, 647-648 (Civ. Ct. NY Co. 1983), Respondent noticeably fails to apply the facts herein to its analysis. See, Underhill Realty Co., LLC v. Almonte, 2024 NY Slip Op 33468(U), *27 (Civ. Ct. Bronx Co. 2024). Instead, Respondent relies upon the broad disclosure provisions of CPLR §3101(i) to claim "a party is not only entitled to seek surveillance footage based on a showing of substantial need, but is in fact entitled to full and unredacted disclosure of surveillance footage, whether or not the footage is intended to be produced at trial." Doc.25, p.13. However, on motions for leave to conduct discovery under CPLR §408:

> 'the pertinent criteria for consideration include, inter alia: (1) whether the petitioner has asserted facts to establish a cause of action; (2) whether a need to determine information directly related to the cause of action has been demonstrated; (3) whether the requested disclosure is carefully tailored so as to clarify the disputed facts; (4) whether any prejudice will result; and (5) whether the court can fashion or condition its order to diminish or alleviate any resulting prejudice' (Matter of Lonray, Inc. v Newhouse, 229 AD2d 440, 440-441, 644 NYS2d 900 [1996]; see New York Univ. v Farkas, 121 Misc 2d 643, 468 NYS2d 808 [Civ Ct, NY County 1983]).

Matter of Georgetown Unsold Shares, LLC v Ledet, 130 A.D.3d 99, 106-107 (2d Dept. 2015).

Respondent cannot satisfy any of these criteria. First, Respondent has not offered sufficient facts or evidence to support his defense that the Unit is in fact his primary residence, or to support his other defenses and counterclaim, but rather improperly seeks discovery as "a fishing expedition utilized by the…tenant to establish a defense, [which] should never be permitted." Farkas, 121 Misc. 2d at 647-648. Second, "parties do not evince sufficient need in order to obtain such leave when their adversaries do not have exclusive knowledge of the matter at hand or where the parties seeking discovery are themselves the ones with the knowledge of the matter." Roger Morris Apt. Corp. v Varela, 51 Misc. 3d 1220(A), *7-8 (Civ. Ct. NY Co. 2016) (citations omitted). Third, Respondent's all-encompassing demands are in no way carefully tailored to clarify disputed facts, but rather – fourth – are designed to prejudice Petitioner with burdensome costs and delays to produce ultimately irrelevant discovery in an effort to fabricate and/or tailor Respondent's defenses and testimony. Fifth, Respondent proffers no way to diminish or alleviate any resulting prejudice to Petitioner.[4]

While Respondent argues that the security camera footage is within Petitioner's exclusive possession, that alone does not establish "ample need" for such broad-ranging disclosure in this summary proceeding, particularly where there is the risk that Respondent could use it to manufacture a defense. Moreover, the discovery sought by Respondent is unnecessary. Petitioner has already produced the InfoTactic Report, which provides painstaking detail as to the dates, times, and durations of Respondent's recorded presence in the Unit and/or Building, as well as minute technical details concerning the cameras, recordings, means and methods of analysis employed and the like (see, Ex. I) – all of which are sought in Respondent's discovery demands and interrogatories. See, Doc.22, Doc.23. Thus, the InfoTactic Report not only provides more comprehensive and succinct information than that sought by Respondent but also serves to alleviate potential prejudice to Petitioner and untold delays and protracted proceedings before the Court engendered by the discovery sought by Respondent.

[4] Again, Respondent seeks years' worth of surveillance camera footage, metadata, and the like which "would necessarily amount to thousands of hours, requiring weeks to ensure meaningful review" (Doc.25, p.14) – all "at Petitioner's sole expense." Doc.25, p.3.

Therefore, Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court deny that branch of Respondent's motion seeking leave to conduct discovery in its entirety.

POINT II: PETITIONER'S CROSS MOTION FOR LEAVE TO CONDUCT DISCOVERY SHOULD BE GRANTED IN ITS ENTIRETY

Petitioner should be granted leave to conduct discovery, as it has "ample need" for facts and evidence uniquely within Respondent's possession herein. "In a nonprimary residence summary proceeding, because the tenant, as opposed to the landlord, is in possession of material facts regarding occupancy of the premises, it is well settled that discovery sought by the landlord will be liberally reviewed and there is a presumption in favor of such discovery see, e.g., Hughes v Lenox Hill Hosp., 226 AD2d 4, 17-18, 651 N.Y.S.2d 418; Cox v J.D. Realty Assocs., 217 AD2d 179, 183-184, 637 N.Y.S.2d 27; Kips Bay Joint Venture Assocs. v Pashazadeh, NYLJ, Sept. 26, 2001 [App Term, 1st Dept]; see also, Rocky 116 v Weston, 186 Misc 2d 251, 253, 717 N.Y.S.2d 823, affd 284 AD2d 139, 726 N.Y.S.2d 94; New York Univ. v Farkas, 121 Misc 2d 643, 468 N.Y.S.2d 808)." Malafis v. Garcia, 2002 NY Slip Op 40180(U), *1-3 (App. Term 2d Dept. 2002); see also, Quality & Ruskin Assoc. v. London, 8 Misc. 3d 102, 103-104 (App. Term 2d Dept. 2005); Warnock v. Visconti, 2006 N.Y. Misc. LEXIS 3026, 236 N.Y.L.J. 75, *5 (Civ. Ct. Kings Co. 2006).

As recited above, in order to obtain discovery in a summary proceeding, a party must demonstrate "ample need" by meeting certain enumerated criteria, which are readily satisfied by Petitioner herein See, Matter of Georgetown Unsold Shares, LLC v Ledet, 130 A.D.3d at 106-107. First, Petitioner has set forth plausible grounds to maintain the proceeding, including through the submission of the Geylik Affirmation, Tan Affirmation, Salama Affidavit, InfoTactic Report and Exhibits submitted herein. Second, there is a clear need to clarify disputed facts as to the nature and extent of Respondent's alleged occupancy of the Unit, which are particularly within Respondent's knowledge and possession. Third, Petitioner's requests are carefully tailored to focus and clarify the issue of Respondent's primary residence. Fourth, there is little chance of prejudice to Respondent, as Petitioner has chosen to make the requests for disclosure at the expense of potential delay to these summary proceedings. Finally, the information sought is not overly burdensome, can be provided in a relatively short period of time, and does not impose undue hardships on Respondent. See, Courtney House, LLC v Starzecpyzel, 27 Misc. 3d 1239(A), 1239A (Civ. Ct. NY Co. 2010); see also, Matter of Georgetown Unsold Shares, LLC v Ledet, 130 A.D.3d at 106-107; Lonray, Inc. v. Newhouse, 229 A.D.2d 440, 440-441 (2d Dept. 1996); Goldman v. Wilson, 19 Misc. 3d 136(A), 136A (App. Term 1st Dept. 2008); Underhill Realty Co., LLC v. Almonte, 2024 NY Slip Op 33468(U), *23-24; Farkas, 121 Misc. 2d 643, 647-648.

Additionally, to the extent that discovery sought by Petitioner may seek non-party records, records of accounts involving Respondent's spouse, and/or to depose Respondent's spouse:

> A party seeking disclosure from a non-appearing party must show not only ample need but also special circumstances 'by establishing that the information sought cannot be obtained from other sources.' (Bostrom v William Penn Life Ins. Co. of NY, 285 AD2d 482, 483, 727 N.Y.S.2d 160 [2d Dept 2001].) Leave to conduct disclosure of non-party witnesses is permitted in nonprimary-residence holdover proceedings, however, despite the availability of disclosure from respondent-tenants. (See e.g. Houston Village Apt. Co. v Zitin, NYLJ, Oct. 8, 2001, at 18, col 1 [App Term 1st Dept] [noting that 'tenant's wife possesses particular knowledge which could shed light on the issue of tenant's connection to her [own] apartment']; 430-36 E. Seventy-Second Assocs. v Higginsen-Wydro, NYLJ, Apr. 30, 1992, at 23, col 2 [App Term 1st Dept] [granting landlord's motion to depose tenant's non-party husband 'since he is clearly a party with informed knowledge as to tenant's occupancy of the apartment'].)

Courtney House, LLC v Starzecpyzel, 27 Misc. 3d 1239(A); see also, Houston Village Apt. Co. v. Zitin, 2001 NY Slip Op 40237(U), *1-2 (App. Term 1st Dept. 2001); Garzillo v. Besdansky, 14 Misc. 3d 1223(A), 1223A (Civ. Ct. Kings Co. 2007). Here, Respondent's spouse possesses knowledge which could shed light on not just Respondent's, but also her connections to the Unit, which Respondent's spouse apparently listed as her address on the deeds to the Pittsburgh properties and wherein her landlord apparently believed she resides.[5] See, Ex. D, Ex.'s J, K. Furthermore, to the extent Petitioner seeks a non-party subpoena for information from Respondent's cellular provider, such request is strictly limited to records which would show Respondent's billing address and areas of usage – narrowly tailored, non-prejudicial evidence of Respondent's primary residence.

Petitioner has thus demonstrated "ample need" for the disclosure sought herein, so that it can fully develop the facts to elucidate Respondent's non-primary residence of the Unit, as:

> The legislative purpose in permitting eviction of tenants who do not use housing accommodations as their primary residence was to help ensure that the continuing shortage of residential housing was not exacerbated by tenants using their rent-controlled and rent-stabilized apartments only occasionally for convenience or for storage... the Legislature has made clear its intention that regulatory protection should not be available where the tenant's claim to the subject premises is based on less than the need for a place to call home.

Cox v. J.D. Realty Assocs., 217 A.D.2d 179, 185 (1st Dept. 1995) (quotations, citations omitted).

Therefore, Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court grant its cross-motion for leave to conduct discovery in its entirety.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court deny Respondent's motion in its entirety, and grant Petitioner's cross-motion in its entirety, with such other, further, and different relief as the Court deems just, proper, and equitable.

ATTORNEY AFFIRMATION IN FURTHER SUPPORT OF RESPONDENT'S MOTION

Jennifer Akchin, an attorney duly admitted to practice law before the courts of the State of New York, hereby swears and affirms as follows:

1. I am a staff attorney at TakeRoot Justice, counsel for Patterson Beckwith in this proceeding. I also represent Mr. Beckwith in a group Housing Part action against the Petitioner, in Part B of this Court.

2. I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances underlying this proceeding.

3. I make this affirmation in opposition to Petitioner's motion and in further support of Respondent's motion to dismiss, for summary judgment, and for discovery.

4. As a preliminary matter, I wish to address the sufficiency of the notice received by my client.

5. When I first received a copy of the notice received by Mr. Beckwith in December 2024, my initial reaction was confusion. None of the allegations in the notice gave me any indication of what the landlord had relied on in reaching the conclusion that my client resided in a dormitory affiliated with the City College of New York, particularly since my client is not a student and my understanding that he was not eligible to reside in "the Towers." Mr. Beckwith shared this understanding. Beckwith Aff, ¶ 7.

6. My client likewise seemed perplexed by this allegation, and has repeatedly and conclusively denied that he resides at or has ever stepped foot in "the Towers" in his affidavit as well as in sworn testimony before the Office of Administrative Tribunals and Hearings (OATH), during which Petitioner's counsel had the opportunity to cross examine him.

7. I also did not know what time period the landlord was referring to in its notice—for example, whether the alleged observations had occurred in the years of 2021-2022 (when my client admits he was away from the building for an employment-related fellowship leave), or more recently.

8. Rather than merely provide a conclusory denial, I advised my client to respond to the allegations with as much detail as possible, based on the sparse information we surmised from the notice. We developed a Verified Answer and affidavit that was excessively general, covering a time period of up to 4 years (from the date Petitioner acquired the building), and responsive to an allegation that at face value was so lacking in evidence that it seemed almost an absurdity. This included obtaining communications from both CCNY and "the Towers" that my client does not reside there and that CCNY does not offer faculty housing, just for the sake of conclusively denying Petitioner's bad-faith allegation. Resp.'s Exhibit E, Resp.'s Exhibit I.

9. Had we been aware that the "agents" who observed my clients were MGNY employees Mint Tan and Michael Geylik, we would have included more detailed facts in our initial Verified

Answer and motion for summary judgment pertaining to those agents' patterns of interactions with Mr. Beckwith and other tenants.

10. Likewise, if we had been informed that the landlord received a notice of termination addressed to Amy Beth Gartrell—my client's spouse, who resides at another address— we would have had sufficient information to adequately respond to that allegation. Instead, we reasonably assumed that the mail in question referred to junk mail addressed to Ms. Gartrell, presumably due to her prior occupancy of the apartment in 2008.

11. In support of his initial motion, Respondent submitted true and accurate copies numerous personal documents uniformly reflecting his primary residence at the subject premises. Beckwith Reply Aff., *5.

12. As Petitioner found these inadequately conclusive, Mr. Beckwith now submits a true and accurate copy of a recent utility bill (internet) and a copy of his renter's insurance policy. Beckwith Reply Aff., ¶ 7, Exhibits R-A, R-B.

13. Likewise, based on Petitioner's concern about a lack of neighbor affidavits substantiating Mr. Beckwith's residency, Respondent submits the affidavits of Thomas Dukleth and Remigiusz Chlapek, two of Respondent's neighbors, who offer affidavits in support of this motion. Affidavit of Thomas Dukleth, Affidavit of Remigiusz Chlapek.

14. As compared to Petitioner's affiant Yousef Salama, who, upon information and belief, has not resided in the building since mid-2022, both Mr. Dukleth and Mr. Chlapek are current tenants at the premises and in a position to regularly interact with and observe Mr. Beckwith's comings and goings from the building.

15. I further wish to address the report submitted by Petitioner's private investigator, Roman Khaykin. Based on my limited review of this report, I have serious concerns about the reliability of the report, and Mr. Khyakin's credibility as a witness.

16. First, Mr, Khaykin appears to have no familiarity with how the camera in question—one of many throughout the building—was installed or maintained, and cannot verify the existence and preservation of the recordings prior to their transfer to him by a third-party systems administrator.

17. Even taking Mr. Khaykin at his word that he reviewed four years of preserved motion-activated surveillance clips, this gives me genuine cause for concern that the set of clips he was provided for review was not the entire, unredacted footage stored by the surveillance system.

18. There is no way to be certain that clips were not omitted from the set of files provided to Mr. Khaykin, as the person who would conceivably have control over the system, Michael Shuksta, has not submitted any testimony to this point.

19. In his report Mr. Khaykin claims to have reviewed 47,390 individual clips downloaded from the 2nd floor landing at 109 East 9th Street, which is the floor below where my client resides.

20. Although my client resides in Apt 2E, this apartment is actually located on the 3rd floor of the building (which doubles as the 2nd residential floor). Therefore, this camera would only capture my client on his way up and down the stairs to the building entrance, or (following removal of the 3rd floor bathing facilities in the fall of 2022) on his way to the 2nd floor bathroom. The camera would presumably not capture my client's entry or exit from his own apartment, or other parts of the building.

21. Upon information and belief, there is a surveillance camera located on the 3rd floor of the building, where my client resides, so it is unclear why this footage was not provided to or analyzed by Mr. Khaykin. This omission is prejudicial to my client, to the extent that the 3rd floor camera footage better reflects his whereabouts.

22. The choice to focus solely on entrance footage also raises questions about Petitioner's conclusions that Respondent solely enters the building to "check mail" or "pay rent," given that Petitioner has admittedly not reviewed any footage of Respondent's actual living area.

23. Additionally, it is unclear to me what the basis is for Mr. Khaykin's recognition of Mr. Beckwith, who attests that he has never met or interacted with Mr. Khaykin. Beckwith Reply Aff., ¶ 17.

24. This is particularly relevant, as Mr. Beckwith resides with tenants with whom he could easily be mistaken. Of the six tenants residing in the building, five (including Mr. Beckwith) are Caucasian and male, and some are of a similar statute to Mr. Beckwith —posing a real risk of misidentification.

25. Nonetheless, I did engage seriously with Mr. Khaykin's findings and, even as a relative layperson found some very substantial and concerning issues with the data reported.

26. Upon review of Mr. Khaykin's report, I determined that each clip contained a file naming system that consisted of four parts: a six-digit date code (four-digit year/two-digit month/two-digit day), a nine-digit time code (hour/minute/second/millisecond) and an additional unique identifying number.

27. Thus, the file name "2023-10-08 12_22_06_700 39324.asf" would refer to a clip logged on October 8, 2023 at 12:22:06:700 p.m., with a unique identifier of "39324."

28. I was struck by the fact that the unique identifiers did not advance sequentially (although they generally increased, with occasional resets). Where one might expect to see the clips advance (e.g. "01, 02, 03, 04" etc.), they instead skip multiple digits in an inconsistent but increasing sequence (e.g. "01, 03, 09, 13" etc.)

29. In the absence of other explanations, this would suggest that the missing clips were not being logged by the camera system, were not turned over to Mr. Khaykin, or were omitted from this report. At no time does Mr. Khaykin discuss these identifying numbers (even as he discusses the file naming protocols) or explain the gaps between them.

30. In order to further assess the accuracy of Mr. Khaykin's report, I obtained assistance from a skilled data analyst to convert the data contained in the report into a machine-readable CSV format, and to isolate certain trends apparent in the PDF report data, specifically low recording rates and low night-time recording rates on certain dates.

31. After reviewing key patterns in an excel spreadsheet, I cross-referenced my findings against the original report to ensure the accuracy of my conclusions. In other words, for each inconsistency that I observed in the CSV data, I was able to confirm this inconsistency against the data in the PDF report.

32. Based upon this close review, I observed approximately 29 incidents where there were conspicuously low numbers of recording, or extended outages of recordings for approximately 12 hours or more. A summary of these inconsistencies is attached as Exhibit R-C.

33. I chose these indicators because, in a building with six tenants, four of whom share the 2nd floor bathroom, it seemed extremely implausible that a camera would not observe a minimum of 15 events per day or would not record any activity for twelve or more hours at a time.

34. These indicators led me to additionally notice that on several occasions with a long period of outage, the identifying digits at the end of the file name would "reset" to a substantially lower digit.

35. For example, I noticed a 12-24 hour gap in recording coinciding with a "reset" in the final identifying digits in the file name on December 1, 2021, December 18, 2021, and December 22, 2021—suggesting three outages in a single month.

36. I noticed a similar reset between January 10-13, 2022, when the camera appears to simply have shut off for almost 72 hours.

37. Quite notably, just before the surveillance period comes to an end, in December 2024, there are around ten incidents involving low rates of recorded activity, 12+ hour outages, or both.

38. These outages—whether intentional or not—clearly aren't just momentary blips, but major, clearly observable omissions from the data.

39. It's important to note: my observations are not intended to be comprehensive, and reflect only the most surface-level and glaring inconsistencies in the report that I was able to locate, as a relative lay-person, with under a week to analyze the report findings.

40. It strikes me as odd that Mr. Khaykin, who claims to have conducted a detailed review of each and every clip in this log failed to notice these quite major gaps in recording, or to reflect them in his report. This calls into question his reliability and the verifiability of the data claimed to be reflected here.

41. Given these fairly substantial omissions, I have serious concerns about any reliance on this data without the opportunity to cross reference it against the continuous camera footage from the 2nd floor, as well as the 3rd floor where my client actually resides, for accuracy.

42. Therefore, Mr. Beckwith renews his application that the proceeding be dismissed for lack of adequate predicate notice, or that the Court grant summary judgment in his favor on the issue of his primary residence.

43. Should the proceeding more forward to discovery and/or trial, Mr. Beckwith requests an order granting him the opportunity to review all surveillance footage from the building, in its continuous (non motion-activated) format, in order to ensure the accuracy of any allegations based on the surveillance footage at trial.

SHIRAS PATTERSON BECKWITH, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the Respondent in this proceeding, and make this affidavit in further support of my motion for dismissal of this proceeding, summary judgment in my favor, and discovery of my landlord's surveillance records.

2. I have reviewed the allegations made by my landlord and his attorneys, and wish to clarify a few key facts for the Court, which could be easily misunderstood.

3. First, I feel it is important to explain that my affidavit sought to respond directly to my landlord's allegations against me—namely, that I never use my apartment for residential purposes and only visit to check my mail or pay rent. Therefore, in my original affidavit I highlighted all of the things I do at my apartment on a daily basis to show the many ways that I am living there—in other words, that I'm using my apartment for many reasons, and not just to pick up mail.

4. My landlord or his attorneys appear to have latched on to the fact that I did not explicitly mention "sleeping" as one of these activities. For the sake of being absolutely clear, I also regularly sleep overnight at my apartment.

5. I have already submitted a true and accurate copy of my driver's license, a true and accurate copy of my redacted tax returns and W-9s, a true and accurate print out of my current voter registration, a true and accurate copy of a recent jury summons mailed to me, and a true and accurate copy of a letter from my employer verifying my address on record.

6. It appears my landlord or his attorneys do not find this sufficient, and have specifically noted the absence of other indicia of tenancy like utility bills, bank statements, and similar accounts.

7. Therefore, I am now attaching a true and accurate copy of my most recent monthly internet bill for the apartment and a true and accurate copy of my renter's insurance policy for this apartment.

8. As my landlord should be aware, I do not pay any other utilities for the apartment because the building is an SRO and all remaining utilities are maintained by the Owner.

9. Secondly, I wish to address the allegation that I am "rarely" seen around the building by Michael Geylik, Mint Tan, or Yousef Salama, who has not lived here for approximately three years.

10. My typical schedule during the work week (when Michael of Mint are present in the MGNY office) is to leave the house at 7 a.m. and to return after 6 p.m.

11. Michael and his attorneys should know this, as my attorney recently had to arrange for me to pick up new keys to the building after 6 p.m., due to my work hours.

12. On those days that I do walk past the MGNY office during working hours, I'm honestly not surprised that Mint wouldn't notice me. Mint is extremely busy, and in my experience he will not notice me unless I am making an active effort to get his attention (i.e. by ringing the door bell). He works behind several computer screens, so even when I see him it's often the case that he doesn't see me.

13. Finally, I want to address the allegations of Yousef Salama, who I lived next door to for decades, and with whom I had numerous interactions during that period.

14. Yussef moved out of the building while I was on fellowship leave, sometime in 2022. From what I understand from other tenants, he relocated through a NYC Affordable Housing Lottery, with some assistance from MGNY Consulting Corp.

15. By the time that I returned from my fellowship leave, Yousef was no longer living there. The only person still living on the floor with me since that time is my neighbor, Remi Chlapek, who I regularly see and interact with.

16. I imagine that my landlord did not ask Remi to write an affidavit, because he knows that Remi would confirm that I am actively residing in the building.

17. I have never seen, heard of, or interacted with anyone by the name of Roman Khaykin. I have no idea how Mr. Khaykin is able to identify me in the landlord's surveillance footage, but it would not be from any real life interaction between us that I'm aware of.

18. Finally, I wish to address allegations related to my long-time partner (now wife), Amy Beth Gartrell.

19. Amy Beth and I were in a relationship for many years before making the decision to get married in April 2022. We lived separately for the majority of this time, and continue to do so.

20. Amy Beth briefly resided with me at 109 East 9th Street, Apt 2E in 2008. Since the time that she moved out, we have always maintained separate residences. We understand that this might not make us a "traditional" married couple, but this living arrangement works well for us (and has been our habit since long before we were married.)

21. Amy Beth currently resides at 119 Freeman Street, in Brooklyn. While I generally spend a few nights per week in Brooklyn, I'm not on Amy's lease, and never have been, and we've always kept a separation between our spaces.

22. I admittedly spent more time at Amy Beth's and with other family and friends during the period when my building was without heat and ~~hot water~~ during the winter, especially after the common area kitchen, the shower facility I used, and the bathroom on my floor were removed in late 2022. This was primarily a matter of necessity due to a temporary lack of essential services, not an intentional decision to permanently move-in with Amy Beth.

23. Although we live apart, Amy Beth and I maintain several accounts in common, including being co-signers on insurance for a car, on the renter's insurance for 109 East 9th Street, and similar. These are primarily tied to my residential address, creating the appearance that Amy Beth resides with me.

24. As a result, Amy Beth's landlord has on two occasions alleged that she lives at 109 East 9th Street. Neither of these allegations has resulted in an actual housing court case against her, likely since they are not true.

25. When I saw that one of my landlord's allegations was pertaining to mail received by Amy Beth, I assumed this was a reference to mail for our shared accounts, or possibly to mail she continues to receive due to her brief period of occupancy at the building years ago—none of which is suggestive that she lives with me, or that I do not live at 109 East 9th Street. I did not understand that they were referring to the legal notices sent by Amy Beth's landlord, otherwise, I would have responded with more detail.

26. Amy Beth and I recently invested in two adjacent row-homes in Pittsburgh. I don't think anyone is alleging that we reside there as our primary residence, but just to be clear: we don't. We are both on the faculty at CUNY, so we go to visit the Pittsburgh houses to work between semesters, or for short breaks. We've probably spent 4 weeks in the Pittsburgh house in the last year.

27. Although the properties are owned in both our names, the tax and other municipal bills are sent to me at 109 East 9th Street.

28. The idea that because Amy Beth is named on some accounts tied to my address, that I am also only using the apartment to receive mail is beyond absurd. I have no reason to spend hundreds of dollars a month solely to protect a rather expensive mailing address.

29. Rather, this apartment has been my home for 30 years, I continue to live here, and I hope to continue living here for many years in the future.

THOMAS DUKLETH, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I reside at 109 East 9th Street, Apt 3D, New York, NY 10003. I make this affidavit in support of my neighbor, Patterson Beckwith, and to confirm that he primarily resides at 109 East 9th Street, Apt 2E, New York, NY 10003.

2. Patterson Beckwith has been a neighbor of mine at 109 E 9th Street since the beginning of the 1990s when I resided on the second floor, a flight below him, and for many years subsequently when I have been residing on the fourth floor, a flight above him.

3. Patterson has lived in the building since his student days at Cooper Union, in the early 1990s, so we are among the longest-term tenants in the building and have known each other over decades.

4. As I have known him better and longer than other neighbors, I have had more reasons to see him more frequently than others may have, particularly as he is one of the quieter neighbors in our building and not as well noticed as others.

5. Patterson has always been an especially good neighbor and always ready to be helpful to his neighbors, especially when people have been in difficulty.

6. For example, he was greatly helpful to our now deceased neighbor Ann Carpentier who passed away in 2019: always asking after her well-being, building furniture for her, installing things for her, helping her move things, etc.

7. I continue to see Patterson at the building frequently when our very different schedules coincide, despite the fact that his work is at the other end of Manhattan and his girlfriend (now wife) lives some distance away.

8. In recent years, before the obstacle of the improper building entrance handrail became a greater problem for Patterson's mother, I would see Patterson in the building with his mother a number of times.

9. Over the years, he has told me more than once that people in romantic relationships can grow apart and that it was important to him to maintain his home at 109 E 9th Street as his home and primary residence so that, despite anything else, he would ensure that he could afford to live in the same city as his work.

10. I can confirm that due to issues with the boiler and how the landlord has operated the boiler, the building has had no heat or insufficient heat over the course of multiple winters, beginning in the second half of the winter of 2021-2022, and continuing through this year.

11. There have also been no janitorial services provided to the building since it was purchased by our current landlord. Previously, there had been a superintendent for many years, but even when we didn't have a superintendent, we received maintenance services from our prior net leaseholders upon request.

12. In the autumn of 2022, the current owners removed the common area kitchen and an adjacent shower room and toilet from the fourth floor, as well as the third floor toilet, from the building. All of these facilities had been functional facilities since the time that Patterson and I moved into the building in the early 1990s (and other tenants of long-standing informed me that they existed for many years before I ever resided there).

13. Although the MGNY Director of Internal Operations is often at his desk at the front window of the MGNY office, which faces 9th street, he is not always present at his station and I have often had to wait to be seen by him in order to pay rent at the MGNY office.

14. Furthermore, particularly since relationships between tenants and building ownership have deteriorated, many tenants including myself walk in front of the MGNY window less often, and enter the building from the West side, where we feel less likely to be surveilled by our landlords.

15. Around the Spring or early Summer of 2022, but certainly before August 2022, the tenant who previously resided in apartment 2A moved out of our building.

16. The apartment suffered from a high concentration of insects and rodents in the particle board shelving, under floorboards, and in the walls, which had not been aggressively treated after he moved out, which led to infestation migrating throughout the building.

17. I recall discouraging Patterson from spending as much time in the building around that time, in order to reduce the risk he might suffer an infestation or spread it to other places he would visit.

18. Patterson and I are both engaged with our building's tenant association, and have been in communication with increasing frequency about the issues in our building in the last several years. Although we live a floor apart, we usually discuss tenants' association matters via telephone or out of the building to reduce the risk of potentially being monitored by the surveillance system installed by the current landlord.

19. From my view, the legal action against Patterson by our landlord seems to be part of a campaign of retaliation against each of the tenants for organizing as a tenants association to protect ourselves and our homes.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN FURTHER SUPPORT OF RESPONDENT'S MOTION, AND IN OPPOSITION TO PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR DISCOVERY

TAKEROOT JUSTICE
Attorneys for Respondent
123 William Street, Suite 401
New York, NY 10038

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Respondent submits this memorandum in reply and further support of Respondent's motion for dismissal, summary judgment, or, in the alternative, limited discovery and in opposition to Petitioner's cross-motion for discovery. Petitioner's opposition does little to address the glaring deficiencies in its filing, and much to support dismissal of this proceeding.

First, Petitioner's affidavits further highlight the critical omissions in its predicate notice, which were not, as Petitioner argues, "reasonable under the attendant circumstances." As these omissions are significant, prejudicial, and apparently without excuse or explanation, the proceeding should be dismissed.

Secondly, Petitioner fails to provide any meaningful evidentiary support to overcome Respondent's motion for summary judgment. Petitioner's evidence—the majority of which is not in admissible form—is so sparse and lacking in merit that it does not and cannot create a meaningful dispute of fact sufficient to warrant discovery and trial.

In the event the proceeding is not dismissed, severe inconsistencies in Petitioner's video surveillance report underscore the critical importance of disclosure of the complete surveillance records, in continuous and unredacted form, from all available cameras. A cursory review of the report by Respondent's counsel revealed at least 29 incidents of absent camera footage, including days-long gaps in recording of up to 72 hours. That Petitioner's private investigator did not note these missing recordings in his report raises serious questions about the findings, the credibility of Petitioner's "expert," and the reliability of Petitioner's surveillance system more generally. Given these inconsistencies in the report findings, full disclosure of the continuous video surveillance records from all surveillance cameras in or around the building is essential to ensuring a fair and accurate evidentiary record at trial.

Finally, Respondent opposes the scope of the discovery sought by Petitioner, as much of the discovery sought—including cell phone records, medical records, bank statements, and similar—would add no evidentiary value in this proceeding and would serve only to prolong judicial review, confuse the parties, and burden Respondent and his attorneys.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

For a statement of all relevant facts, the Court is respectfully referred to the affidavit of Shiras Patterson Beckwith (Beckwith Reply Aff.), sworn to on July 4, 2025, the affidavit of Thomas Dukleth (Dukleth Aff.) sworn to on July 7, 2025, the affidavit of Remigiusz Chlapek (Chlapek Aff.) sworn to on July 7, 2025 and the attorney affirmation of Jennifer Akchin (Att. Reply Aff.) dated July 7, 2025, Exhibits R-A, R-B, and R-C, and the court file to date, uploaded to NYSCEF (NYSCEF Documents Number 1-46.)

ARGUMENT

I. PETITIONER'S OPPOSITION FAILS TO EXCUSE OR RESOLVE THE DEFICIENCIES IN ITS PREDICATE NOTICE, NECESSITATING DISMISSAL.

Petitioner's opposition fails to explain or justify the absence of case-specific facts in its predicate notice, further supporting a finding that the predicate notice was defective as a matter of law. Rather, Petitioner rationalizes these omissions by claiming that they were "reasonable under the attendant circumstances" and gave sufficient notice to Mr. Beckwith of the claims against him, as evidenced by his response.

Contrary to Petitioner's claims, the affidavits of its agents Mint Tan and Michael Geylik (who in fact authored the notices) reflect that Petitioner knowingly omitted facts clearly within its possession at the time that the notice was issued, i.e. that the lack of information provided was not reasonable under the circumstances.

Moreover, the omissions prejudiced Mr. Beckwith in his ability to respond to the allegations against him, leaving him to merely guess the basis for Petitioner's excessively attenuated claims that he resides in City College of New York faculty housing—which essentially amounts to no notice of the basis for its claims at all—based on allegations of unidentified agents for an undisclosed period of time. As this cannot reasonably be deemed adequate notice of the facts underlying Petitioner's legal claims, the proceeding must be dismissed.

A. Petitioner's Omissions of Facts Within its Knowledge, and Reliance on Overbroad, Undefined Statements Was not "Reasonable Under the Attendant Circumstances"

Petitioner argues, in sum and substance, that its notice was reasonable under the attendant circumstances. However, as Petitioner's own affidavits make clear, Petitioner had readily available information at the time that it authored its notice, directly relevant to Respondent's ability to form a defense, which it willfully omitted from the predicate notice to Respondent's detriment. These omissions included key information as to what Petitioner would theoretically be intending to provide in Court, essential to framing a defense, which Courts have repeatedly upheld are required to be included in a notice of termination:

- A precise statement of the relevant time frame during which Respondent was allegedly not observed occupying the apartment as his primary residence. See, Zevrone Realty Corp. v Cedano, 61 Misc 3d 1213(A) [Civ Ct, Bronx Cty., 2018]; PR 307 W. 93, LLC v Constantin, 51 Misc 3d 992, 995 [Civ Ct, N.Y. Cty., 2016]; UVI Holdings LLC v Xiu Ling Ni, 28 Misc 3d 1209(A) [Civ Ct, N.Y. Cty., 2010]; 297 Lenox Realty Co. v Babel, 19 Misc 3d 1145(A) [Civ. Ct., Kings Cty., 2008]; Carriage Ct. Inn, Inc. v Rains, 138 Misc 2d 444, 446 [Civ Ct, N.Y. Cty. 1988].

- The identities of individuals or agents who allegedly did not observe Respondent residing at the premises. Id.; London Terrace Gardens, L.P. v Heller, 40 Misc 3d 135(A) [App Term, 1st Dept., 2009]; PR 307 W. 93, LLC v Constantin, 51 Misc 3d 992, 995 [Civ Ct, N.Y. Cty., 2016]; UVI Holdings LLC v Xiu Ling Ni, 28 Misc 3d 1209(A) [Civ Ct, N.Y. Cty., 2010].
- Case-specific facts supporting Petitioner's conclusion that Respondent was offered and/or resided in faculty housing through his employer, City College of New York. See, 325 Third Ave. LLC v Vargas, 52 Misc 3d 564, 566 [Civ Ct N.Y. Cty., 2016]; Mak v Yun Pan Lee, 12 Misc 3d 142(A) [App Term, 1st Dept. 2006];
- Allegations plead by an affiant based on direct knowledge of any affiant, rather than "upon information and belief." PR 307 W. 93, LLC v Constantin, 51 Misc 3d 992, 995 [Civ Ct, N.Y. Cty., 2016];

While Petitioner alleges that the allegations in the notice were "reasonable" under the attendant circumstances, citing Hughes v. Lenox Hill Hospital, Petitioner's omissions deviate widely from the standard articulated in Hughes, insofar as the information withheld was directly within Petitioner's personal knowledge at the time the notice was issued. ("Significantly, plaintiff does not suggest what else the notice should contain or what 'facts' were within the landlord's knowledge but omitted from its notice.") 226 A.D.2d 4 (1st Dept., 1996), 18; see also, Kings Thorn LLC v Walters, 64 Misc 3d 1212(A) [Civ Ct 2019](observing that the Court in Hughes "suggested that a showing of material facts within the landlord's knowledge and not contained in a predicate notice would tend to favor dismissal. Requiring that a landlord engage in a fact-specific investigation is meant to ensure the proceeding is not speculative or frivolous.")

For example, Petitioner's affidavits confirm that Petitioner could have easily provided the names of its agents who allegedly observed and/or failed to observe Mr. Beckwith occupying the premises during the relevant period. Petitioner now reveals these agents to be MGNY employee Mint Tan and 109E9 LLC agent Michael Geylik, who have submitted affidavits in this proceeding. Pet.'s Attorney Affirmation, ¶ 10. Either of these agents could have been disclosed as affiants in the original predicate notice (which is attested to "upon information and belief" by Mr. Geylik himself). Pet.'s Ex. F

Likewise, Petitioner could have easily provided a time frame for its allegations to establish the period during which Mr. Beckwith allegedly has not maintained the apartment as a primary residence. In fact, this period remains undefined, although Petitioner's counsel has stated that it is "over two years" and Petitioner's report refers to a period of surveillance footage that spans approximately three years. Pet.'s Attorney Aff., ¶ 10., Exhibit I.

Petitioner could have more clearly described the nature and contents of the legal notices mailed to Amy Beth Gartrell, and their relationship to Petitioner's legal conclusion that Mr. Beckwith did not occupy the premises as a primary residence—a set of facts explained in detail in Mr. Geylik's affidavit, but not in the predicate notices, which simply refer to "mail" addressed to Ms. Gartrell at the premises. Affidavit of Michael Geylik, ¶ 13.

Similarly, Petitioner could have included case-specific facts regarding its service of notices of nonrenewal on Mr. Beckwith's mother (based on the information on Mr. Beckwith's rent checks)—also explained in detail in Mr. Geylik's affidavit, but not in the predicate notice Affidavit of Michael Geylik, ¶ 15.

Petitioner's opposition fails to explain or justify why it chose to exclude these facts, which were readily available when the predicate notice was served. In light of Petitioner's affidavits, these omissions are not only not "reasonable" under the attendant circumstances, but appear calculated to deprive Respondent of information necessary to form an adequate defense.

B. Petitioner's Omissions Were Prejudicial to Respondent's Ability to Frame His Defenses

Petitioner further attempts to rationalize these omissions, citing to Second 82nd Corp. v Veiders, 34 Misc. 3d 130(A) [App. Term., 1st Dept, 2011], by arguing that Respondent had sufficient notice to make out a Verified Answer and motion for dismissal/summary judgment and therefore was not deprived of any ability to form a defense. Pet.'s Att. Aff., ¶ 40.

Setting aside the quite dangerous precedent suggested by such a response—essentially that positing any defense to an overbroad or vague could be deemed a waiver of objections to the sufficiency of that notice—the Appellate Term's decision in Second 82nd Corp. is based on circumstances notably distinct from the instant case in several respects worth highlighting here.

In that proceeding, the Appellate Term recognized that the predicate notice provided case-specific facts, including a specific address, as well as residential telephone number connected to that address—that supported the owner's allegation that the tenant maintained a primary residence in Clarence, New York, and not at the subject dwelling. The Court found that these facts were sufficient to put the Respondent on notice of the evidence that Petitioner would introduce at trial, and to compose a "detailed" affidavit in support of his motion for summary judgment. Second 82nd Corp. v Veiders, 34 Misc 3d 130(A) [App Term 2011]

By comparison, Petitioner has not only set forth an actual address where Respondent is believed to maintain a primary residence (instead naming the general address of a building in which Petitioner believes that Respondent may have been offered housing, based on his employment by the City College of New York), but also fails to supply case-specific facts which would support that finding, for example, a telephone number, utility account, or other documentation tying Respondent to that address in question.

What Petitioner's notice offers instead is essentially an admission of its guesswork: Petitioner's unidentified agents have not observed Respondent for an unidentified period of time, have seen mail addressed to an individual who does not live with him, and have done internet research that suggests that his employer owns or is affiliated with a residential property. In this respect, Petitioner's allegations can hardly be said to apprise Respondent of the claims against him; rather they appear to serve the sole purpose of ticking a procedural box to commence a nonprimary residence proceeding, even if Petitioner is aware that the allegation is not made in good faith.[1] Putting Respondent in the position of answering an allegation so openly lacking in basis is functionally the same as making no claim at all. Housing Court should not be a venue to advance "vague and conclusory allegations and expression of hope that discovery, if and when conducted, might provide some factual support for their causes of action under [the] Rent Stabilization Code" and Petitioner's allegations must be dismissed accordingly. 128 Second Realty LLC v Dobrowolski, 51 Misc 3d 147(A) [App Term, 1st Dept, 2016].

Furthermore, and contrary to Petitioner's assertions, Respondent's ability to form defenses in this proceeding, including his initial affidavit in support of this motion, were significantly impaired by Petitioner's willful omissions and vague generalizations. Solely by way of example:

[1] Petitioner's Memorandum of Law notes that the appropriate remedy for materially untrue statements made in its predicate notice is sanctions pursuant to 22 NYCRR § 130-1.1. (Pet.'s Memorandum of Law, * 4). While Respondent has not moved for this relief, Respondent would support the Court's exercise of discretion to impose sanctions where, as here, Petitioner appears to openly admit that it lacked a good faith factual basis to support the allegations in its legal notices.

- Respondent was unaware (and remains unclear) as to what time frame is included in the predicate notice, and was forced to compose a response to a hypothetical time period that extended from the date of Petitioner's purchase of the building through the present. Att. Reply Aff, ¶ 7, 8.
- Respondent was also unaware of which specific personnel observed or failed to observe him at the building, curtailing Respondent's ability to offer specific facts relevant to his relationship and/or interactions with those individuals (many of which are now included in his supplemental affidavit). Attorney Aff, ¶ 9, Beckwith Reply Aff. ¶¶ 9-13.
- Respondent and his counsel were deprived of essential information regarding the nature of the mail received by Ms. Gartrell, Respondent's spouse. Respondent and his attorney did not understand the purported legal significance of the mail alluded to, as receipt of mail by prior occupants typically does not carry any nexus to the primary residence of the existing tenant, and were unable to adequately address this claim in their initial responses. Attorney Reply Aff, ¶ 10, Beckwith Reply Aff. ¶ 25.
- Respondent and his counsel likewise were unclear as to the basis of Mr. Geylik's conclusion that Respondent had been offered faculty housing at "the Towers" as both Respondent and counsel were under the impression that "the Towers" was solely used as student dormitory housing. Attorney Reply Aff, ¶ 6; Beckwith Aff, ¶ 7.
- Respondent and counsel remain unclear as to what surveillance camera footage was reviewed, and by whom, to reach the legal conclusion in the predicate notice.

As these omissions directly impacted Respondent's understanding of the claims against him and his ability to prepare a defense, Petitioner's notice failed to satisfy the requirements of RSC § 2524.2(b), and the proceeding should be dismissed.

II. PETITIONER FAILS TO ALLEGE ANY FACTS, IN ADMISSIBLE FORM, SUFFICIENT TO ESTABLISH A TRIABLE ISSUE OF FACT REGARDING RESPONDENT'S PRIMARY RESIDENCE.

In oppositon to Respondent's motion for summary judgment, Petitioner attempts to remedy the insufficiency of its notice of termination with a bevy of affidavits and evidence in a last-ditch effort to create a dispute of material fact regarding Mr. Beckwith's primary residence, where none exists. Petitioner's smoke-and-mirrors strategy – now submitting the deed for a vacation home in Pittsburgh (where Petitioner does not allege Respondent resides), a nonprimary residence notice against Respondent's spouse (at another dwelling), and even the testimony of an affiant who has not resided in the building for three years—lay bare the total lack of merit of their claims, and militate against further hearings. Petitioner produces not a single piece of documentary or testimonial evidence that ties Respondent to the Towers or to any other primary residence—and in fact, submits evidence that support a finding that Respondent resides at 109 East 9th Street, Apt 2E.

As Petitioner fails to present admissible evidence of any kind to supports its legal theory that Respondent does not reside in the Subject Premises, the Court should grant summary judgment in favor of Respondent and dismiss the proceeding.

A. The Majority of Petitioner's Evidence is not in Admissible Form, and Therefore Cannot Establish a Dispute of Material Fact Sufficient to Defeat Respondent's Motion for Summary Judgment.

To defeat a motion for summary judgment, a party must "demonstrate by admissible evidence the existence of a factual issue requiring the trial of the action" or at minimum provide a reasonable excuse for its failure to do so. Zuckerman v City of New York, 49 NY2d 557, 560 [1980]. Hearsay alone is insufficient to establish a dispute of material fact sufficient to warrant trial. Id.

As a threshold matter, Respondent has submitted numerous documents in opposition to this motion which are not in admissible form, are inadmissible as hearsay, and therefore cannot properly be considered in determining this motion for summary judgment. These include uncertified property records (Pet.'s Ex. A, J, and K), an unauthenticated website printout from "HoneyFund" (Resp.'s Ex. C) for which no foundation is laid, a notice of termination addressed to Respondent's spouse (Pet.'s Ex. D), and an unauthenticated website printout from City College of New York (Resp.'s Ex. E).

Likewise, the report of Petitioner's "expert" investigator (Resp.'s Ex. I.) is inadmissible as double hearsay. The report is not in affidavit form, or otherwise sworn to in a manner in compliance with CPLR 2106 requirements. The report further does not adequately support a foundation for the hearsay evidence, as Mr. Khaykin never attests to having personally observed the events depicted in the footage, nor does Petitioner provide an affidavit of the person who installed and/or maintained the footage, prepared the footage for transfer, and then transferred the footage to Mr. Khaykin, presumably the system administrator referenced in Mr. Khaykin's report. Exhibit I, Appendix A, page 1 of 2.

As the majority of Petitioner's documents are not in admissible form without excuse or justification, they cannot properly be considered as evidence of Mr. Beckwith's primary residence on summary judgment.

B. Petitioner's Affidavits and Evidence Fail to Create a Meaningful Dispute of Fact Regarding Respondent's Primary Residence.

Even setting aside the inadmissible form of Petitioner's evidence, Petitioner fails to create a meaningful showing that Mr. Beckwith does not maintain "a substantial physical nexus" with the Subject Premises, even when granted every reasonable inference in favor of their claims. Katz Park Ave. Corp. v Jagger, 11 NY3d 314, 317 (2008).

The Affirmation of David Fonseca does not create a meaningful dispute of fact, as Mr. Fonseca does not have any direct or personal knowledge of Mr. Beckwith's whereabouts or residence, and does not allege to have reviewed any surveillance footage documenting the same.

The Affidavits of Michael Geylik and Mint Tan do not create a meaningful dispute of fact as to Mr. Beckwith's primary residence. Both affiants attest that they are only present at the building during working hours or during the work week (Monday to Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.). Geylik Aff, ¶ 5; Tan Aff., ¶ 3. Both affiants also admit that they are present at the building in their capacities as employees of MGNY Consulting Corp—in other words, that their primary purpose at the building is to carry out job responsibilities which are not related to monitoring the whereabouts of individuals residing in the residential portion of the building. Geylik Aff, ¶¶ 5, 9; Tan Aff., ¶ 1. Neither affiant attests that they make a log or other record of their observations of the comings and goings of tenants in the building in the course of their professional responsibilities regarding those interactions. Neither affiant attests that they have personally reviewed any surveillance footage of Mr. Beckwith's whereabouts outside of work hours, and the sole mention of this footage is referenced in the passive voice. Geylik Aff, ¶ 10.

Even when viewed in a light most favorable to Petitioners, the affiants' generalized statements that Mr. Beckwith was "rarely" seen by management as compared to other tenants are easily resolved by the fact that Mr. Beckwith works full time (in contrast to many of his neighbors), leaves the building at 7 a.m. for work and returns after 6 p.m., and would generally not be present at the building during working hours, when Mr. Tan and Mr. Geylik would have occasion to observe him. Beckwith Reply Aff., ¶¶ 10,11.

The affidavit of Yousef Salama fails to create a dispute of fact as to Respondent's whereabouts, as Mr. Salama has not resided in the building since mid-2022—nearly two years before the commencement of this proceeding, and during a period of time when Respondent was admittedly out of the country for temporary work-related travel. Dukleth Aff., ¶ 15, Beckwith Reply Aff., ¶ 14. Mr. Salama's vacatur from the building also pre-dates the relevant discovery period in Petitioner's own discovery demands, and therefore is presumably outside the scope of even Petitioner's inquiry. Pet's Exhibit L. As such, it is clear that Mr. Salama has not been in a position to personally observe Mr. Beckwith's presence and/or absence from the building for approximately three years, and his testimony fails to overlap with the inquiry period for discovery, the affidavit does not create a dispute of fact necessitating trial.

Petitioner's Exhibit B does not create a dispute of fact. As noted above, the photograph (for which no foundation was laid) reflects a desk, obscured by not one but three computer screens, behind which Mr. Tan presumably conducts work within the scope of his employment within MGNY's business hours. This photo does not contribute to a finding that Mr. Beckwith does not reside in the building, or that Mr. Tan could reliably observe his whereabouts (a suggestion disputed by not only Mr. Beckwith but his neighbors, Mr. Dukleth.) Beckwith Reply Aff. , ¶ 12, Dukleth Aff. ¶ 13.

Petitioner's Exhibit C does not create a dispute of fact. No one has alleged that Mr. Beckwith resides in Pittsburgh, where he owns vacation property, and Mr. Beckwith expressly denies this in his sworn affidavit. Beckwith Reply Aff., ¶ 26.

Petitioner's Exhibit D does not create a dispute of fact. The notice of termination addressed to Mr. Beckwith's spouse does not offer any facts in evidence regarding Mr. Beckwith's primary residence.

Petitioner's Exhibit E does not create a dispute of fact. That a "limited number of studio and one-bedroom suites" at "the Towers" are available for faculty and staff of the City College of New York does not in any way suggest that Mr. Beckwith currently resides in this select number of suites.

Petitioner's Exhibit I provides no persuasive evidence that Mr. Beckwith does not reside at the building as his primary residence. Even assuming Mr. Khaykin to be a credible witness, and setting aside the glaring lack of foundation for its contents, the report relies on footage from a camera which is not even located on the same floor as Mr. Beckwith's apartment, reviewed by an individual who has never interacted with and does not explain how he was able to recognize Respondent vis-à-vis his neighbors. Att. Reply Aff, ¶¶ 20-24, Beckwith Reply Aff., ¶ 17. As discussed in Section III, infra, a review of the footage by Respondent's counsel reveals a substantial number of unexplained and long-term gaps in recording, which were not noted in any part of the report, and which strongly call into question the credibility of its findings and of Petitioner's "expert witness". Att. Reply Aff., ¶¶ 28-40, Exhibit R-C.

Petitioner's Exhibits J and Exhibit K do not create a dispute of fact and in fact support Respondent's motion for summary judgment. Again, no party has alleged that Mr. Beckwith resides full-time in Pittsburgh as his primary residence, and Mr. Beckwith's sworn affidavit affirms that this is not the case. Beckwith Reply Aff., ¶ 26. If support of Mr. Beckwith's motion for summary judgment, both deeds reflect that the mailing address for taxes and all other purposes is the Subject Premises—consistent with Mr. Beckwith's testimony that the homes are not his or his spouse's primary residence, and that his primary residence is the subject premises. Id.

In sum—Petitioner does not provide any sufficient documentary evidence to support its theory that Respondent lives at "the Towers," or at any other residence. At most, Petitioner's admissible exhibits and affidavits suggest that Mr. Beckwith is not at home during the hours that MGNY is open—certainly not unusual, given that he is works full time in Harlem—and that he owns property in another state (the taxes for which are mailed to his home, the Subject Premises.) As this is simply not enough to warrant a full factual hearing on the substance of Petitioner's sparse and attenuated claim that Mr. Beckwith resides in a student dormitory operated by the City College of New York, this proceeding should be dismissed.

III. SIGNIFICANT INCONSISTENCIES IN PETITIONER'S VIDEO SURVEILLANCE REPORTS UNDERSCORE THE NEED FOR DISCOVERY OF PETITIONER'S COMPLETE AND UNREDACTED SURVEILLANCE FOOTAGE.

Petitioner's provision of unverified, inconsistent, and patently incomplete surveillance camera summary reports further underscores Respondent's "ample need" for access to complete, unredacted, and continuous surveillance footage for the entire relevant period.

In support of its motion, Petitioner provides a report by private investigator Roman Khaykin, Petitioner's Exhibit I. The title page of the report notes that it was prepared in anticipation of litigation, suggesting that Petitioner will seek to have this report entered at trial. Id, at 3. The report, approximately 433 pages long, is comprised primarily of a list of video clips, dating from December 5, 2021 to December 13, 2024. The footage is allegedly collected from a camera on the 2nd floor landing, where the camera would have occasion to observe the entries and exits from the building of all six of the building's tenants (including Mr. Beckwith), as well as any trips to the 2nd floor water closet, which is used by 4 of the 6 tenants in the building, including Mr. Beckwith. Id, Appendix D, page 1 of 2 (page 432), Att. Reply Aff., ¶ 33. Per the report, while the camera surveillance is continuous, the recording and preservation of clips is triggered by motion-activation, such that any motion on the 2nd floor landing would result in the logging of a video clip. Petitioner's Exhibit I.

As a preliminary matter, it is unclear why Mr. Khaykin solely analyzed video of the 2nd floor landing, as Respondent's apartment is located on the third floor of the building, where there is an additional surveillance camera in operation. Att. Reply Aff, ¶¶ 20-21. Given that the 3rd floor footage would offer the most specific information as to Respondent's entry/exit from his own home, and lengths of visits, the exclusion of this footage is notable and suggests substantial need for discovery of companion footage.

Additionally, Mr. Khaykin fails to explain his basis for recognition of Mr. Beckwith. Mr. Beckwith has no knowledge of every meeting Mr. Khaykin or interacting with him. Beckwith Reply Aff., ¶ 17. Of note, of the six tenants residing in the building (including Mr. Beckwith), five are caucasian males, creating significant risk of misidentification or Mr. Beckwith and/or his neighbors. Att. Reply Aff., ¶ 24.

There are also significant gaps in Mr. Khaykin's testimony regarding the foundation for his report, and the chain of custody of the clips logged. Specifically, there is no information provided regarding the installation and maintenance of the cameras, or of the process of exporting and preparing these recordings for transfer, presumably carried out by the system administrator, Michael Shuksta. Exhibit I, Appendix A, page 1 of 2 (page 8). In the absence of this information, or access to the original footage, it is therefore impossible to verify the integrity of the clips provided to Mr. Khaykin by Mr. Shuksta, or the reliability of the system more broadly.

Even more concerningly, while Mr. Khaykin attests that there are "no unexplained gaps in recording activity" across the clips, a cursory review of the list of 47,390 timestamped clips strongly suggests otherwise. For example, the data provided reflects numerous dates in which Petitioner's cameras recorded fifteen or fewer motion-activated events within a twenty-four hour period, or failed to record any events for 12 hours at a time—simply implausible in a building with six residents, four of whom use the 2nd floor bathroom (within camera range) as a primary sanitary facility. Exhibit R-C. In at least one case, the data provided reflects no recorded activity for approximately three days. Id. That Mr. Khaykin claims to have reviewed each clip and vouches for the integrity of his review, but failed to note these incidents (let alone explain them) calls into question both the reliability of the underlying data and the credibility of Mr. Khaykin as an analyst.

Finally, the file-naming conventions reflected in Mr. Khaykin's report strongly points to absent or withheld footage, substantial camera malfunction, or both. Mr. Khaykin's report notes the timestamp included in the file names for each clip, however, fails to note that each file name also contains an additional unique and unrelated identifying number, located at the end of the file name. Att. Reply Aff., ¶¶ 26-27. While these identifiers occasionally reset (for reasons unexplained in Mr. Khaykin's report), they appear broadly to be increasing in a non-sequential pattern. Att. Reply Aff., ¶¶ 28, 29, 34-36.

Put differently, where one might expect a set of sequential identifying codes for each clip ("001, 002, 003"), the report reflects gaps between every one of the identifying numbers ("002, 005, 009") without any explanation. Att. Reply Aff., ¶¶ 28, 29. Significantly, the "reset" of these identifiers to lower digits appears to coincide with unexplained gaps in recorded activity, suggesting a potential technical malfunction impacting the accurate logging of video clips. Att. Reply Aff., 35; Exhibit R-C.

Given these surface-level inconsistencies, evident on the face of the report, there is genuine cause to question the reliability of Mr. Khaykin's statements and the comprehensiveness of the camera footage he reviewed. To not grant Respondent the opportunity to access, review and verify the statements in Mr. Khaykin's report against the complete, continuous, and unredacted footage would deprive him of essential rights to form his defenses in this proceeding. As such, to the extent that this proceeding is not dismissed, Respondent renews his request that the Court order Petitioner to disclose the entire, continuous surveillance footage (as compared to the selected clips reviewed by Mr. Khaykin).

VI. PETITIONER FAILS TO DEMONSTRATE AMPLE NEED FOR THE DISCOVERY SOUGHT IN ITS CROSS MOTION.

Finally, Petitioner fails to adequately justify its "ample need" for the extensive discovery sought in this proceeding.

The Rent Stabilization Code and decades of caselaw on the subject of nonprimary residence, offer a clear roadmap for the evidence most relevant in adjudicating nonprimary residency proceedings: employment and tax return records, motor vehicle registrations, driver's licenses, documents filed with a public agency, and voter registration records. RSC 2520.6 (u), e

Draper v Georgia Properties, Inc., 94 NY2d 809, 811 [1999]. Where a tenant can present and persuasive documentation of their continuous occupancy of the apartment as a primary residence, landlord can "neither discover nor present anything to overcome the tenant's prevailing legal position that no triable issue of fact is present." Id.

. Respondent has already tendered the many of these exact types of indicia of residency as exhibits in this proceeding. Resp.'s Exhibits A-E, R-A, R-B. In fact, Petitioner's own Exhibits J and K, which identify the subject premises as Respondent's primary residence for the purpose of paying taxes on his properties in Pittsburgh, lend further support to a finding that the subject premises is his primary residence. It is questionable what additional documents Petitioner could "discover" which would rebut the substantial physical nexus between Respondent and the apartment reflected across an array of documents uniformly pointing to Respondent's ongoing, 30-year residence at the premises.

Moreover, it is dubious that any additional evidentiary value would be offered by the discovery sought. As compared with cases where a tenant is alleged to maintain a primary residence out of the city, out of state or in another country, Petitioner alleges that Respondent lives in West Harlem, just a few blocks from his place of work. Since it is reasonable to assume that many of Respondent's day-to-day transactions, bank deposits/withdrawals, cell phone calls, and similar would occur within the vicinity of his employment, providing these records in discovery offers almost no probative value in this proceeding. Even setting this aside, it is not uncommon for tenants in New York City to shop, dine, visit doctors, or make phone calls outside of the immediate radius of their home. Under these circumstances, there is not only no "ample need" for this additional information based on the allegations at issue, but discovery would be an exercise in futility for all parties, offering little to no evidentiary value while consuming excessive time, resources, and effort for Respondent.

Lastly, Petitioner's subpoena of Respondent's wife, Amy Beth Gartrell, offers no evidentiary value in this proceeding and serves no purpose other than to vex Respondent and his wife. Ms. Gartrell is not alleged to use the Subject Premises as her primary or even non-primary residence—all parties agree that she resides elsewhere— and there is no information within Ms. Gartrell's personal knowledge regarding Mr. Beckwith's whereabouts that he could not offer himself, should this proceeding advance to trial. Moreover, Ms. Gartrell's confidential communications with Mr. Beckwith are shielded from disclosure pursuant to CPLR 4502(b). Therefore, as no meaningful evidentiary purpose exists to compel Ms. Gartrell's testimony, this subpoena should be denied.

CONCLUSION

Respondent requests the Court grant his motion for dismissal and summary judgment, as Petitioner's allegations of nonprimary residence are defective as a matter of law, fail to raise a triable issue of material fact, and as Mr. Beckwith has presented a weight of evidence establishing his primary residence at the Subject Premises (and Petitioner's own Exhibits J and K further point to the same). To the extent that the Court finds that a dispute of fact exists warranting trial on Petitioner's allegations, Respondent requests the Court grant him leave to conduct discovery of all footage recorded on Petitioner's surveillance camera system within the relevant period.

In addition, Respondent respectfully requests the Court deny Petitioner's motion for discovery. Not only has Respondent already submitted much of the documentation sought (a substantial amount of which has already been offered into evidence in this proceeding), but the nature of Petitioner's allegations suggest that any additional documents and testimony sought would not offer meaningful evidence to the issue of nonprimary residence, given the close proximity of Respondent's workplace to his alleged primary residence.

M. DAVID FONSECA, an attorney admitted to practice law in the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following under penalty of perjury pursuant to CPLR §2106:

1. I am a partner of the law firm Kucker Marino Winiarsky & Bittens, LLP, attorneys for 109E9 LLC, Petitioner[1] herein, and, as such, am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances set forth herein. I submit this Affirmation in further support of Petitioner's cross-motion pursuant to CPLR §§408 and 3101, granting leave for Petitioner to conduct discovery; and for such other, further, and different relief as the Court deems just, proper, and equitable.

2. Respondent Shiras Patterson Beckwith ("Respondent") does not meaningfully oppose Petitioner's cross-motion for discovery, but instead focuses on his attorney's contrived discrepancies in the InfoTactic Report and unsupported claims that Respondent is indistinguishable in appearance from other residents of the Building, Respondent's anemic claims that his work schedule supposedly prevents him being seen by Petitioner's agents and admissions that he resides with his wife – at least – "a few nights per week" (Doc.48, par.21), and the vague affidavits of alleged residents of the Building, none of which definitively attest to or evidence Respondent's primary residence in the Unit.

3. Indeed, Respondent's counsel goes to great lengths to claim that the InfoTactic Report is unreliable because there are supposed gaps in recordings and/or "resets" in file digit numbers.

4. However, the three-day span referenced by opposing counsel (see, Doc.47, pars. 35, 36), occurred within a month of the installation of the cameras, and it is entirely possible that this period coincided with scheduled maintenance, a temporary power-down, or the relocation of the server within the office.

5. Importantly, all video files contain embedded metadata that is hardcoded at the time of recording, such that any tampering with a file or its contents is automatically captured in that metadata—if the camera were ever offline, those dates would be clearly reflected in the system logs, which confirm that all videos are saved in chronological sequence, with no signs of tampering.

6. Although Respondent's counsel purports to highlight calendar gaps, the system is configured for motion-triggered recordings. If no activity occurred, the system would not generate footage. This is expected system behavior and not evidence of malfunction or interference.

7. In short, Respondent has provided no technical or admissible evidence to support their claims, only unsupported speculation. Moreover, Respondent's insistence that the InfoTactic Report somehow might be inaccurate or might not reflect his actual frequency of presence in the Building further supports Petitioner's need for discovery to resolve the central issues herein.

8. Nor do Respondent's supposed evidentiary submissions resolve Petitioner's motion—in fact, they further support it.

9. In the face of Petitioner's claims that Respondent has failed to adduce evidence of his supposed decades-long primary residence in the Unit, necessitating discovery, Respondent proffers an alleged renter's insurance policy letter confirming coverage for the period of April 7, 2025 through April 7, 2026 (Doc.52), as well as an internet bill for May 2025 (Doc.51)—both dated well after the issuance of the Termination Notice and the commencement of this proceeding, and thus of no probative value. See, Pearlbud Realty Corp. v. White, 10 Misc. 3d 141(A), 814 N.Y.S.2d 563 (App. Term 1st Dept. 2006) (lower court properly found that account statement and Domestic Partnership certificate post-dating commencement of holdover proceeding to be "of no probative value.").

10. Similarly, the affidavits of Respondent's supposed neighbors shed no light on whether Respondent has had an actual ongoing substantial physical nexus to the Unit for primary residence purposes, but merely characterize Respondent as a quiet neighbor, with vague allegations as to how often and under what circumstances Respondent is present at the Building.

11. Indeed, while Respondent may occasionally be seen in the Building and provide help to neighbors, such scant and vague claims and complaints about the Building do not establish Respondent's primary residence nor detract from Petitioner's ample need for discovery herein.

12. The central matter remains that there are disputed material issues of fact in this non-primary residence holdover proceeding, and that Petitioner has indisputably shown ample need for the discovery sought and routinely granted in such proceedings—regardless of Respondent's incredulous claims that "it is dubious that any additional evidentiary value would be offered by the discovery sought" (Doc.54, p.19). See, Malafis v. Garcia, 2002 NY Slip Op 40180(U), *1-3 (App. Term 2d Dept. 2002); Quality & Ruskin Assoc. v. London, 8 Misc. 3d 102, 103-104 (App.

Term 2d Dept. 2005); Warnock v. Visconti, 2006 N.Y. Misc. LEXIS 3026, 236 N.Y.L.J. 75, *5 (Civ. Ct. Kings Co. 2006).

13. Therefore, or the reasons set forth herein, in Petitioner's moving papers, including the Geylik Affirmation, Tan Affirmation, Salama Affidavit, Exhibits hereto, and Memorandum of Law, incorporated herein by reference, it is respectfully requested that Respondent's motion be denied in its entirety, and Petitioner's cross-motion be granted in its entirety.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court deny Respondent's motion in its entirety, and grant Petitioner's cross motion in its entirety, with such other, further, and different relief as the Court deems just, proper, and equitable.

RELEVANT FACTS AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner commenced this non-primary residence holdover proceeding seeking possession of the premises known as 109 East 9th Street, New York, New York 10003 ("Building") Apt 2E ("Apartment") on or around April 4, 2025. (NYSCEF Docs. Nos. 1–4). In Petitioner's Notice of Intention to Discontinue a Hotel tenancy and to Commence an Action or Proceeding Based upon Non-Primary Residence ("Notice"), Petitioner alleges that the Respondent Shiras Patterson Beckwith does not primarily reside in the Apartment. (NYSCEF Doc. No. 1 at pgs. 5-7).

Respondent, through counsel, interposed a Verified Answer to the Petition alleging, inter alia, that Petitioner failed to state a claim of non-primary residence because it "fails to establish that Mr. Beckwith maintains a primary residence at 401 West 130th Street or at any other location besides the subject premises…" (NYSCEF Doc. No. 6). Respondent thereafter filed a motion to dismiss pursuant to CPLR §§ 3211(a)(2) and (a)(7) and 3212 or in the alternative for leave to conduct discovery. (NYSCEF Docs. Nos. 9-24). Petitioner opposed and cross-moved for leave to conduct discovery. (NYSCEF Docs. Nos. 26-46).

This proceeding is brought pursuant to NYCRR 9 § 2524.4(c) which reads, in relevant part:

> "The owner shall not be required to offer a renewal lease to a tenant, or in hotels, to continue a hotel tenancy, and may commence an action or proceeding to recover possession in a court of competent jurisdiction, upon the expiration of the existing lease term, if any, after serving the tenant with a notice as required pursuant to section 2524.2 of this Part, only on one or more of the following grounds:

(c) Primary residence. The housing accommodation is not occupied by the tenant, not including subtenants or occupants, as his or her primary residence, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction;…"

In support, the Notice asserts:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that 109E9 LLC ("Landlord"), the landlord of 109 East 9th Street, Apartment #2E, New York, New York 10003 (hereinafter "subject premises") elects to discontinue and terminate your hotel tenancy as same is defined in Sections 2520.6(b), 2520.6(j), and 2521.3(c) of the Rent Stabilization Code, on March 31, 2025, based upon your non-primary residence of the subject premises in that you do not maintain the subject premises as your primary residence. The facts supporting this conclusion include, but are not limited to the following:

1. Agents for the Landlords have not observed Tenant SHIRAS PATTERSON BECKWITH ("Tenant") occupying the subject premises as his primary residence for an extended period of time.

2. Upon information and belief, Tenant primarily resides at The Towers, located at 401 West 130th Street, New York, New York 10027 ("alternative address"), a residential hall on the South Campus of The City College of New York ("CCNY").

a. Upon information and belief, Tenant is currently employed full-time as a Lecturer at CCNY, located at 160 Convent Avenue, New York, New York 10031.

b. Upon information and belief, Tenant was provided with faculty housing at the alternative address.

3. Landlord's agents and security cameras installed by the Landlord have not observed Tenant residing at the subject premises. Instead, Tenant has been observed visiting the subject premises once or twice a month.

a. Upon information and belief, Tenant receives mail addressed to Amy Beth Gartrell ("Amy") at the subject premises, although Amy does not reside at the subject premises.

b. Upon information and belief, Tenant use these visits to check the mail and drop off rent check, with each visit lasting approximately fifteen minutes.

DISCUSSION

Motion to Dismiss

Respondent first challenges the court's subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(2). Neither the affirmation or affidavit in support, nor the Memorandum of Law explain or establish a basis for dismissal on this ground. (see, Kace Realty Co. v Levy, 130 Misc 2d 858 [App Term 1986]).

Respondent next argues that the pleadings fail to state a cause of action for non-primary residence and must be dismissed. Respondent argues that the predicate notice fails to allege, with sufficient particularity, the basis for Petitioner's claims that the Respondent is not primarily residing in the Apartment.

"In general, on a CPLR 3211 motion to dismiss, the pleading should be construed liberally, and the facts as alleged in the complaint are presumed to be true and are accorded the benefit of every possible favorable inference." (CPLR 3026; Rovello v Orofino Realty Co., 40 NY2d 633, 634). Where documentary evidence flatly contradicts the factual claims, the entitlement to the presumption of truth and the favorable inference is rebutted (Ullmann v Norma Kamali, Inc., 207 AD2d 691, 692). The applicable standard for determining a CPLR § 3211(a)(7) motion is whether, within the four corners of the complaint, any cognizable cause of action has been stated (Guggenheimer v Ginzburg, 43 NY2d 268, 275; Morone v Morone, 50 NY2d 481).

The pleadings must be reasonable to comport with due process, including containing case-specific factual allegations rather than merely a resuscitation of the statute or lease provision. (See Broderick v Lemkau-Kidd Corp, 267 AD 91 [1st Dept 1943]). "Reasonableness" is a fact-specific determination based on the totality of the circumstances rather than a "bright-line rule." (Riverbay Corp. v Frere, 79 Misc 3d 1218[A], 2023 NY Slip Op 50655[U], at *3 [Civ Ct, BX County] [citing Hughes v Lenox Hill Hosp., 226 AD2d 4, 18, 651 NYS2d 418 [1st Dept 1996]). In determining whether a predicate notice has met the minimum standard of reasonableness, the notice taken as a whole must "adequately apprise[] the tenant of the grounds upon which the case is based, thus permitting them to prepare a defense." (Id. citing Jewish Theological Seminary of Am. V Fitzer, 258 AD2d 337, 338, 685 NYS2d 215 [1st Dept 1999]).

Here, despite Respondent's arguments to the contrary, the Notice cites to the specific provisions of the Rent Stabilization Code ("RSC") which the proceeding is based. Petitioner alleges in factual support that Respondent has not been observed occupying the Apartment for an extended period. Further, and upon information and belief, that Respondent has been provided faculty housing through his employment at The City College of New York ("CCNY") and resides at an alternate address on West 130th Street. The Notice also states that Respondent receives mail at the Apartment addressed to a third party and that the Respondent has only been seen at the Building checking the mail and dropping off his rent checks. Within the four-corners of the Notice, Petitioner alleges that Respondent has not been seen occupying the Apartment and instead resides at specified alternate address. The Notice sufficiently sets forth the legal and factual basis to adequately apprise Respondent of the allegations against him based on illegal occupancy thus enabling Respondent to properly mount a defense.

Summary Judgment

Respondent next moves for summary judgment dismissing the Petition arguing that Respondent does not reside at 401 West 130th Street, New York, New York 10027 ("The Towers") as stated in the Notice, that the balance of the allegations in the Notice lack specificity to establish Petitioner's claim and finally that Respondent has provided evidence conclusively establishing that he primarily resides at the Apartment.

In support of his claim that he does not reside in The Towers Respondent annexes a letter from CCNY confirming Respondent's employment but stating that the university does not provide faculty housing. (NYSCEF Doc 16). Respondent also attaches a photocopy of an email from "The Towers Team" stating that they have no record of Respondent ever residing at The Towers. (NYSCEF Doc. 20).

In support of his defense that he maintains the Apartment as his primary residence Respondent annexes his affirmation in support, photocopies of the front of his NYS Driver's license, redacted US tax return forms for 2021-2023, W-2 statements for 2021-2024, a screenshot of his voter's registration information, a 2025 juror summons, and a letter verifying Respondent's employment and confirmation of his address on file with CCNY. (NYSCEF Doc. 11 -16).

It is well established that to obtain summary judgment, "the movant [must] establish his cause of action of defense 'sufficiently to warrant the court as a matter of law in directing judgment' in his favor, and he must do so by tender of evidentiary proof in admissible form." (Zuckerman v New York, 49 NY2d 557, 562 [1980][citing CPLR §

3212(b)]). "Failure to make such a prima facie showing requires a denial of the motion, regardless of the sufficiency of the opposing papers." (Alvarez v Prospect Hosp., 68 NY2d 320, 324 [1986][emphasis added]).

None of the proof offered by Respondent in support of his motion is in evidentiary form or facially dispositive of Respondent's primary residence claim. Further, Petitioner's opposition creates an issue of fact regarding the nature and extent of Respondent's usage of the Apartment sufficient to require a trial.

Discovery

Both Petitioner and Respondent move for discovery on the issue of Respondent's primary residence.

Discovery in a summary proceeding is only available by leave of court. (CPLR § 408). In determining whether a party is entitled to discovery, courts use the "ample need" test as set forth in New York Univ. v Farkas. The Farkas factors that the Court must consider are: 1) whether there are facts to establish a cause of action; 2) whether there is a need for information directly related to the cause of action; 3) whether disclosure is carefully tailored; and 4) whether prejudice to either party will result from granting disclosure. (New York University v Farkas, 468 NYS2d 808, 810 [Civ Ct NY County 1983]).

Generally, ample need is established where "it is clear that [the occupants] possess particular knowledge which could shed light on the occupancy issues raised . . . . [T]he use made of the premises are peculiarly within respondent's knowledge." (656 W Realty, LLC v Blanco, 932 NYS2d 763, 763 [1st Dept 2011] [internal citations omitted]). (See also, Ludor Props. LLC v De Brito, 48 Misc 3d 142[A], 2015 NY Slip Op 51261[U], at *1 [1st Dept 2015]).

Both parties here, to the extent that they are seeking documents within the custody and control of the other, have established ample need under the Farkas test. The court will prune Petitioner's Notice of Discovery and Inspection as some of the demand is overbroad, irrelevant or unduly burdensome.

Petitioner's demand numbers 27; 28; 36; 46; 59 and 61 are stricken.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED, that Respondent's motion to dismiss is denied; and it is further

ORDERED, that Respondent's motion for summary judgment is denied; and it is further ORDERED, that both Petitioner and Respondent's motion for discovery are granted. Respondent's Notice to Produce and Demand for Interrogatories are deemed served and filed; Petitioner's Notice of Discovery and Inspection as modified herein and Notice of Deposition are deemed served and filed. Documents/Responses are due to opposing counsels within 45 days of the date of this Order, Respondent's deposition to be scheduled within two weeks thereafter. Petitioner's request for judicial subpoenas is denied without prejudice.

The proceeding is marked off calendar pending completion of discovery and may be restored by two attorney stipulation or by notice of motion.

This constitutes the Decision and Order of this Court.
