

Have you noticed this crack at the entrance?

Not yet. Thank you for letting me know.

It got worse

Emphasized an image

The crack under the no smoking sign is new today

This building is about 150 years old.

Will you look into it and see what's going on?

The crack started when you bought the building and it keeps getting bigger

Yes, of course.

Okay

Hello Michael are you downstairs

Did you just feel the entire building shaking?

Yes

Me and Thomas felt it and thought an earthquake?

Thank you for letting me know.

Of course! Be safe!

I'm glad you responded

Michael is there anything that can be done about the loud guitar amp being played?

Edited

It's 10am and no one in this building wants to hear a loud guitar amp

When there is loud screaming you don't do anything and when there is loud music you don't do anything

Hello Judy,
It is nice to hear from you.
Thank you for letting me know.
I've mentioned once to Zak that there are companies about the loud music, he mentioned to me that the law allows to play music from 8:00 am to 10:00pm.
We can just ask him to make lower.
Are you aware of any mechanism on how we could enforce certain rules?
Thank you Judy.
